

has testified against you, saying, "I have killed the LORD's anointed."

<sup>22</sup>From the blood of the slain, From the fat of the mighty, The bow of Jonathan did not turn back, And the sword of Saul did not return empty.

<sup>23</sup>"Saul and Jonathan were beloved and pleasant in their lives, And in their death they were not divided; They were swifter than eagles, They were stronger than lions.

<sup>25</sup>"How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan was slain in your high places.

<sup>26</sup>I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; You have been very pleasant to me; Your love to me was wonderful, Surpassing the love of women.

2It happened after this that David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up to any of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up." David said, "Where shall I go up?" And He said, "To Hebron."

<sup>3</sup>And David brought up the men who were with him, every man with his household. So they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

<sup>4</sup>Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, "The men of Jabesh Gilead were the ones who buried Saul."

<sup>5</sup>So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said to them, "You are blessed of the LORD, for you have shown this kindness to your lord, to Saul, and have buried him.

<sup>6</sup>And now may the LORD show kindness and truth to you. I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing.

<sup>7</sup>Now therefore, let your hands be strengthened, and be valiant; for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

<sup>9</sup>and he made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

<sup>10</sup>Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. Only the house of Judah followed David.

<sup>11</sup>And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

<sup>12</sup>Now Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

<sup>13</sup>And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. So they sat down, one on one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool.

<sup>14</sup>Then Abner said to Joab, "Let the young men now arise and compete before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise."

<sup>15</sup>So they arose and went over by number, twelve from Benjamin, followers of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David.

<sup>16</sup>And each one grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called the Field of Sharp Swords, which is in Gibeon.

<sup>17</sup>So there was a very fierce battle that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

<sup>18</sup>Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab and Abishai and Asahel. And Asahel was as fleet of foot as a wild gazelle.

<sup>20</sup>Then Abner looked behind him and said, "Are you Asahel?" He answered, "I am."

<sup>22</sup>So Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I face your brother Joab?"

<sup>23</sup>However, he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner struck him in the stomach with the blunt end of the spear, so that the spear came out of his back; and he fell down there and died on the spot. So it was that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

<sup>26</sup>Then Abner called to Joab and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the latter end? How long will it be then until you tell the people to return from pursuing their brethren?"

<sup>27</sup>And Joab said, "As God lives, unless you had spoken, surely then by morning all the people would have given up pursuing their brethren."

<sup>28</sup>So Joab blew a trumpet; and all the people stood still and did not pursue Israel anymore, nor did they fight anymore.

<sup>29</sup>Then Abner and his men went on all that night through the plain, crossed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron; and they came to Mahanaim.

<sup>30</sup>So Joab returned from pursuing Abner. And when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

<sup>31</sup>But the servants of David had struck down, of Benjamin and Abner's men, three hundred and sixty men who died.

<sup>32</sup>Then they took up Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb, which was in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at daybreak.

3Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David. But David grew stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.

<sup>5</sup>and the sixth, Ithream, by David's wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

<sup>6</sup>Now it was so, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner was strengthening his hold on the house of Saul.

<sup>7</sup>And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. So Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"

<sup>8</sup>Then Abner became very angry at the words of Ishbosheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David; and you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman?"

<sup>9</sup>May God do so to Abner, and more also, if I do not do for David as the LORD has sworn to him--

<sup>12</sup>Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to David, saying, "Whose is the land?" saying also, "Make your covenant with me, and indeed my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel to you."

<sup>13</sup>And David said, "Good, I will make a covenant with you. But one thing I require of you: you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face."

<sup>14</sup>So David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul's son, saying, "Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines."

<sup>16</sup>Then her husband went along with her to Bahurim, weeping behind her. So Abner said to him, "Go, return!" And he returned.

<sup>17</sup>Now Abner had communicated with the elders of Israel, saying, "In time past you were seeking for David to be king over you.

<sup>18</sup>Now then, do it! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, "By the hand of My servant David, I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and the hand of all their enemies."

<sup>19</sup>And Abner also spoke in the hearing of Benjamin. Then Abner also went to speak in the hearing of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and the whole house of Benjamin.

<sup>20</sup>So Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

<sup>21</sup>Then Abner said to David, "I will arise and go, and gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your heart desires." So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

much spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

<sup>23</sup>When Joab and all the troops that were with him had come, they told Joab, saying, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he sent him away, and he has gone in peace."

<sup>24</sup>Then Joab came to the king and said, "What have you done? Look, Abner came to you; why is it that you sent him away, and he has already gone?"

<sup>25</sup>Surely you realize that Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you, to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing."

<sup>26</sup>And when Joab had gone from David's presence, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it.

<sup>27</sup>Now when Abner had returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him privately, and there stabbed him in the stomach, so that he died for the blood of Asahel his brother.

<sup>28</sup>Afterward, when David heard it, he said, "My kingdom and I are guiltless before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

<sup>29</sup>Let it rest on the head of Joab and on all his father's house; and let there never fail to be in the house of Joab one who has a discharge or is a leper, who leans on a staff or falls by the sword, or who lacks bread."

<sup>31</sup>Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, "Tear your clothes, gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn for Abner." And King David followed the coffin.

<sup>33</sup>And the king sang a lament over Abner and said: "Should Abner die as a fool dies?"

<sup>34</sup>Your hands were not bound Nor your feet put into fetters; As a man falls before wicked men, so you fell." Then all the people wept over him again.

<sup>35</sup>And when all the people came to persuade David to eat food while it was still day, David took an oath, saying, "God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else till the sun goes down!"

<sup>36</sup>Now all the people took note of it, and it pleased them, since whatever the king did pleased all the people.

<sup>37</sup>For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the king's intent to kill Abner the son of Ner.

<sup>38</sup>Then the king said to his servants, "Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?"

<sup>39</sup>And I am weak today, though anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too harsh for me. The LORD shall repay the evildoer according to his wickedness."

4When Saul's son heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost heart, and all Israel was troubled.

<sup>2</sup>Now Saul's son had two men who were captains of troops. The name of one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin. (For Beeroth also was part of Benjamin,

<sup>4</sup>Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel; and his nurse took him up and fled. And it happened, as she made haste to flee, that he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.

<sup>5</sup>Then the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, set out and came at about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, who was lying on his bed at noon.

<sup>6</sup>And they came there, all the way into the house, as though to get wheat, and they stabbed him in the stomach. Then Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

<sup>7</sup>For when they came into the house, he was lying on his bed in his bedroom; then they struck him and killed him, beheaded him and took his head, and were all night escaping through the plain.

<sup>8</sup>And they brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, "Here is the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Saul your enemy, who sought your life; and the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul and his descendants."

<sup>9</sup>But David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all adversity, <sup>10</sup>when someone told me, saying, 'Look, Saul is dead,' thinking to have brought good news, I arrested him and had him executed in Ziklag--the one who thought I would give him a reward for his news.

<sup>11</sup>How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous person in his own house on his bed? Therefore, shall I not now require his blood at your hand and remove you from the earth?"

<sup>12</sup>So David commanded his young men, and they executed them, cut off their hands and feet, and hanged them by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron.

5Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and spoke, saying, "Indeed we are your bone and your flesh.

<sup>2</sup>Also, in time past, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD said to you, "You shall shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over Israel."

<sup>4</sup>David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

<sup>5</sup>In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

<sup>6</sup>And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to David, saying, "You shall not come in here; but the blind and the lame will repel you," thinking, "David cannot come in here."

<sup>8</sup>Now David said on that day, "Whoever climbs up by way of the water shaft and defeats the Jebusites (the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul), he shall be chief and captain." Therefore they say, "The blind and the lame shall not come into the house."

<sup>10</sup>So David went on and became great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

<sup>11</sup>Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters and masons. And they built David a house.

<sup>12</sup>So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted His kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

<sup>13</sup>And David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron. Also more sons and daughters were born to David.

<sup>17</sup>Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went down to the stronghold.

<sup>19</sup>So David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?" And the LORD said to David, "Go up, for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand."

<sup>20</sup>So David went to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there; and he said, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

<sup>24</sup>And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall advance quickly. For then the LORD will go out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines."

<sup>25</sup>And David did so, as the LORD commanded him; and he drove back the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

6 Again David gathered all the choice men of Israel, thirty thousand.

<sup>2</sup>And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, whose name is called by the Name, the LORD of Hosts, who dwells between the cherubim.

<sup>3</sup>So they set the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.

<sup>6</sup>And when they came to Nachon's threshing floor, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled.

<sup>7</sup>Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his error; and he died there by the ark of God.

<sup>8</sup>And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzzah; and he called the name of the place Perez Uzzah to this day.

<sup>9</sup>David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"

<sup>10</sup>So David would not move the ark of the LORD with him into the City of David; but David took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

<sup>11</sup>The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months. And the LORD blessed Obed-Edom and all his household.

<sup>12</sup>Now it was told King David, saying, "The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with gladness.

<sup>13</sup>And so it was, when those bearing the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, that he sacrificed oxen and fatted sheep.

<sup>16</sup>Now as the ark of the LORD came into the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David leaping and whirling before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

<sup>17</sup>So they brought the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>And when David had finished offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

<sup>19</sup>Then he distributed among all the people, among the whole multitude of Israel, both the women and the men, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins. So all the people departed, everyone to his house.

<sup>20</sup>Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How glorious was the king of Israel today, uncovering himself today in the eyes of the maids of his servants, as one of the base fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!"

<sup>21</sup>So David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me instead of your father and all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel. Therefore I will play music before the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>And I will be even more undignified than this, and will be humble in my own sight. But as for the maidservants of whom you have spoken, by them I will be held in honor."

7 Now it came to pass when the king was dwelling in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies all around,

<sup>2</sup>that the king said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells inside tent curtains."

<sup>3</sup>Then Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in your heart, for the LORD is with you."

<sup>4</sup>But it happened that night that the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying,

<sup>5</sup>"Go and tell My servant David, "Thus says the LORD: "Would you build a house for Me to dwell in?"

<sup>6</sup>For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought the children of Israel up from Egypt, even to this day, but have moved about in a tent and in a tabernacle.

<sup>7</sup>Wherever I have moved about with all the children of Israel, have I ever spoken a word to anyone from the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, "Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?"

<sup>8</sup>Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, "Thus says the LORD of hosts: "I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel.

<sup>9</sup>And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

<sup>10</sup>Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously, <sup>11</sup>since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. Also the LORD tells you that He will make you a house.

<sup>12</sup>"When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.

<sup>13</sup>He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

<sup>14</sup>I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men.

<sup>15</sup>But My mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

<sup>17</sup>According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

<sup>18</sup>Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: "Who am I, O Lord GOD? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far?"

<sup>19</sup>And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O Lord GOD; and You have also spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come. Is this the manner of man, O Lord GOD?

For You, Lord GOD, know Your servant.

to Your own heart, You have done all these great things, to make Your servant know them.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore You are great, O Lord GOD.
For there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

<sup>23</sup>And who is like Your people, like Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make for Himself a name--and to do for Yourself great and awesome deeds for Your land--before Your people whom You redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, the nations, and their gods?

<sup>24</sup>For You have made Your people Israel
Your very own people forever; and You,
LORD, have become their God.

<sup>25</sup>"Now, O LORD God, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, establish it forever and do as You have said.

saying, "The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel." And let the house of Your servant David be established before You.

<sup>27</sup>For You, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed this to Your servant, saying, "I will build you a house." Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray this prayer to You.

<sup>28</sup>"And now, O Lord GOD, You are God, and Your words are true, and You have promised this goodness to Your servant.

<sup>29</sup>Now therefore, let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You, O Lord GOD, have spoken it, and with Your blessing let the house of Your servant be blessed forever."

8After this it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines and subdued them. And David took Gath from the hand of the Philistines.

<sup>2</sup>Then he defeated Moab. Forcing them down to the ground, he measured them off with a line. With two lines he measured off those to be put to death, and with one full line those to be kept alive. So the Moabites became David's servants, and brought tribute.

<sup>3</sup>David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his territory at the River Euphrates.

chariots, seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. Also David hamstrung all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.

killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians.

<sup>10</sup>then Toi sent Joram his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Toi); and Joram brought with him articles of silver, articles of gold, and articles of bronze.

<sup>11</sup>King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all the nations which he had subdued--

<sup>13</sup>And David made himself a name when he returned from killing eighteen thousand Syrians in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>14</sup>He also put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

<sup>17</sup>Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Seraiah was the scribe;

<sup>18</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers.

9 Now David said, "Is there still anyone who is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

<sup>2</sup>And there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba. So when they had called him to David, the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" He said, "At your service!"

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said, "Is there not still someone of the house of Saul, to whom I may show the kindness of God?" And Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan who is lame in his feet."

<sup>4</sup>So the king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "Indeed he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo Debar."

<sup>5</sup>Then King David sent and brought him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo Debar.

<sup>6</sup>Now when Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, had come to David, he fell on his face and prostrated himself. Then David said, "Mephibosheth?" And he answered, "Here is your servant!"

<sup>7</sup>So David said to him, "Do not fear, for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake, and will restore to you all the land of Saul your grandfather; and you shall eat bread at my table continually."

<sup>8</sup>Then he bowed himself, and said, "What is your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I?"

<sup>9</sup>And the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "I have given to your master's son all that belonged to Saul and to all his house.

<sup>10</sup>You therefore, and your sons and your servants, shall work the land for him, and you shall bring in the harvest, that your master's son may have food to eat. But Mephibosheth your master's son shall eat bread at my table always." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

<sup>11</sup>Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so will your servant do." "As for Mephibosheth," said the king, "he shall eat at my table like one of the king's sons."

<sup>12</sup>Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Micha. And all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants of Mephibosheth.

<sup>13</sup>So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem, for he ate continually at the king's table. And he was lame in both his feet.

10 It happened after this that the king of the people of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place.

<sup>2</sup>Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the people of Ammon.

<sup>3</sup>And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think that David really honors your father because he has sent comforters to you? Has David not rather sent his servants to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?"

<sup>5</sup>When they told David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

<sup>6</sup>When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, the people of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth Rehob and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand foot soldiers; and from the king of Maacah one thousand men, and from Ish-Tob twelve thousand men.

<sup>7</sup>Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.

<sup>8</sup>Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array at the entrance of the gate. And the Syrians of Zoba, Beth Rehob, Ish-Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.

<sup>10</sup>And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, that he might set them in battle array against the people of Ammon.

<sup>11</sup>Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you.

<sup>12</sup>Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight."

<sup>13</sup>So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.

<sup>14</sup>When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai, and entered the city. So Joab returned from the people of Ammon and went to Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered together.

<sup>16</sup>Then Hadadezer sent and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River, and they came to Helam. And Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them.

<sup>17</sup>When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in battle array against David and fought with him.

<sup>18</sup>Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand horsemen of the Syrians, and struck Shobach the commander of their army, who died there.

<sup>19</sup>And when all the kings who were servants to Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Syrians were afraid to help the people of Ammon anymore.

11 It happened in the spring of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the people of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Then it happened one evening that David arose from his bed and walked on the roof of the king's house. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to behold.

<sup>3</sup>So David sent and inquired about the woman. And someone said, "Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

<sup>5</sup>And the woman conceived; so she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."

<sup>6</sup>Then David sent to Joab, saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David.

<sup>7</sup>When Uriah had come to him, David asked how Joab was doing, and how the people were doing, and how the war prospered.

<sup>8</sup>And David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." So Uriah departed from the king's house, and a gift of food from the king followed him.

<sup>10</sup>So when they told David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Did you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

<sup>11</sup>And Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah are dwelling in tents, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open fields. Shall I then go to my house to eat and drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing."

<sup>12</sup>Then David said to Uriah, "Wait here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.

<sup>13</sup>Now when David called him, he ate and drank before him; and he made him drunk. And at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

<sup>14</sup>In the morning it happened that David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

<sup>15</sup>And he wrote in the letter, saying, "Set Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retreat from him, that he may be struck down and die."

<sup>16</sup>So it was, while Joab besieged the city, that he assigned Uriah to a place where he knew there were valiant men.

<sup>17</sup>Then the men of the city came out and fought with Joab. And some of the people of the servants of David fell; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

<sup>19</sup>and charged the messenger, saying, "When you have finished telling the matters of the war to the king, <sup>20</sup>if it happens that the king's wrath rises, and he says to you: "Why did you approach so near to the city when you fought? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

<sup>21</sup>Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Was it not a woman who cast a piece of a millstone on him from the wall, so that he died in Thebez? Why did you go near the wall?'--then you shall say, "Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also."

<sup>22</sup>So the messenger went, and came and told David all that Joab had sent by him.

<sup>23</sup>And the messenger said to David, "Surely the men prevailed against us and came out to us in the field; then we drove them back as far as the entrance of the gate.

<sup>25</sup>Then David said to the messenger, "Thus you shall say to Joab: "Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Strengthen your attack against the city, and overthrow it.' So encourage him."

<sup>26</sup>When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

<sup>27</sup>And when her mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

12

Then the LORD sent Nathan to David. And he came to him, and said to him: "There were two men in one city, one rich and the other poor.

<sup>3</sup>But the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb which he had bought and nourished; and it grew up together with him and with his children. It ate of his own food and drank from his own cup and lay in his bosom; and it was like a daughter to him.

<sup>4</sup>And a traveler came to the rich man, who refused to take from his own flock and from his own herd to prepare one for the wayfaring man who had come to him; but he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him."

<sup>5</sup>So David's anger was greatly aroused against the man, and he said to Nathan,

"As the LORD lives, the man who has done this shall surely die!

<sup>6</sup>And he shall restore fourfold for the lamb, because he did this thing and because he had no pity."

<sup>7</sup>Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul.

<sup>8</sup>I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your keeping, and gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if that had been too little, I also would have given you much more!

<sup>9</sup>Why have you despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in His sight? You have killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword; you have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the people of Ammon.

<sup>10</sup>Now therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'

<sup>11</sup>Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will raise up adversity against you from your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.

<sup>12</sup>For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, before the sun."

<sup>13</sup>So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die.

<sup>14</sup>However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die."

<sup>16</sup>David therefore pleaded with God for the child, and David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground.

<sup>17</sup>So the elders of his house arose and went to him, to raise him up from the ground. But he would not, nor did he eat food with them.

<sup>18</sup>Then on the seventh day it came to pass that the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead. For they said, "Indeed, while the child was alive, we spoke to him, and he would not heed our voice. How can we tell him that the child is dead? He may do some harm!"

<sup>19</sup>When David saw that his servants were whispering, David perceived that the child was dead. Therefore David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" And they said, "He is dead."

<sup>20</sup>So David arose from the ground, washed and anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then he went to his own house; and when he requested, they set food before him, and he ate.

<sup>21</sup>Then his servants said to him, "What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but when the child died, you arose and ate food."

<sup>22</sup>And he said, "While the child was alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, 'Who can tell whether the LORD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?'

<sup>23</sup>But now he is dead; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me."

<sup>27</sup>And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, and I have taken the city's water supply.

<sup>28</sup>Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called after my name."

<sup>30</sup>Then he took their king's crown from his head. Its weight was a talent of gold, with precious stones. And it was set on David's head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance.

<sup>31</sup>And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws and iron picks and iron axes, and made them cross over to the brick works. So he did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

After this Absalom the son of David had a lovely sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.

<sup>2</sup>Amnon was so distressed over his sister Tamar that he became sick; for she was a virgin. And it was improper for Amnon to do anything to her.

<sup>3</sup>But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother. Now Jonadab was a very crafty man.

<sup>4</sup>And he said to him, "Why are you, the king's son, becoming thinner day after day? Will you not tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

<sup>5</sup>So Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, "Please let my sister Tamar come and give me food, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it and eat it from her hand."

<sup>6</sup>Then Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let Tamar my sister come and make a couple of cakes for me in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."

<sup>7</sup>And David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Now go to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him."

<sup>8</sup>So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was lying down. Then she took flour and kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.

<sup>9</sup>And she took the pan and placed them out before him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon said, "Have everyone go out from me." And they all went out from him.

<sup>10</sup>Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom, that I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them to Amnon her brother in the bedroom.

<sup>11</sup>Now when she had brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

<sup>12</sup>But she answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me, for no such thing should be done in Israel. Do not do this disgraceful thing!

<sup>13</sup>And I, where could I take my shame? And as for you, you would be like one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you."

<sup>14</sup>However, he would not heed her voice; and being stronger than she, he forced her and lay with her.

<sup>15</sup>Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Arise, be gone!"

<sup>16</sup>So she said to him, "No, indeed! This evil of sending me away is worse than the other that you did to me." But he would not listen to her.

<sup>17</sup>Then he called his servant who attended him, and said, "Here! Put this woman out, away from me, and bolt the door behind her."

<sup>19</sup>Then Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her robe of many colors that was on her, and laid her hand on her head and went away crying bitterly.

<sup>20</sup>And Absalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother; do not take this thing to heart." So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

<sup>23</sup>And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal Hazor, which is near Ephraim; so Absalom invited all the king's sons.

<sup>24</sup>Then Absalom came to the king and said, "Kindly note, your servant has sheepshearers; please, let the king and his servants go with your servant."

<sup>25</sup>But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go now, lest we be a burden to you." Then he urged him, but he would not go; and he blessed him.

<sup>26</sup>Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"

<sup>27</sup>But Absalom urged him; so he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

<sup>28</sup>Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, "Watch now, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon!' then kill him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and valiant."

<sup>29</sup>So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded.

Then all the king's sons arose, and each one got on his mule and fled.

<sup>31</sup>So the king arose and tore his garments and lay on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

<sup>32</sup>Then Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, "Let not my lord suppose they have killed all the young men, the king's sons, for only Amnon is dead. For by the command of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

<sup>33</sup>Now therefore, let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead. For only Amnon is dead."

<sup>34</sup>Then Absalom fled. And the young man who was keeping watch lifted his eyes and looked, and there, many people were coming from the road on the hillside behind him.

<sup>35</sup>And Jonadab said to the king, "Look, the king's sons are coming; as your servant said, so it is."

<sup>36</sup>So it was, as soon as he had finished speaking, that the king's sons indeed came, and they lifted up their voice and wept. Also the king and all his servants wept very bitterly.

<sup>38</sup>So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

<sup>39</sup>And King David longed to go to Absalom. For he had been comforted concerning Amnon, because he was dead.

14 So Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was concerned about Absalom.

<sup>2</sup>And Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman, and said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel; do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has been mourning a long time for the dead.

<sup>3</sup>Go to the king and speak to him in this manner." So Joab put the words in her mouth.

<sup>4</sup>And when the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and prostrated herself, and said, "Help, O king!"

<sup>5</sup>Then the king said to her, "What troubles you?" And she answered, "Indeed I am a widow, my husband is dead.

<sup>6</sup>Now your maidservant had two sons; and the two fought with each other in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other and killed him.

<sup>7</sup>And now the whole family has risen up against your maidservant, and they said, "Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may execute him for the life of his brother whom he killed; and we will destroy the heir also." So they would extinguish my ember that is left, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the earth."

<sup>8</sup>Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."

<sup>9</sup>And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, "My lord, O king, let the iniquity be on me and on my father's house, and the king and his throne be guiltless."

<sup>10</sup>So the king said, "Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you anymore."

<sup>11</sup>Then she said, "Please let the king remember the LORD your God, and do not permit the avenger of blood to destroy anymore, lest they destroy my son." And he said, "As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground."

<sup>12</sup>Therefore the woman said, "Please, let your maidservant speak another word to my lord the king." And he said, "Say on."

<sup>13</sup>So the woman said: "Why then have you schemed such a thing against the people of God? For the king speaks this thing as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring his banished one home again.

<sup>14</sup>For we will surely die and become like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not take away a life; but He devises means, so that His banished ones are not expelled from Him.

<sup>15</sup>Now therefore, I have come to speak of this thing to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. And your maidservant said, "I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his maidservant.

<sup>16</sup>For the king will hear and deliver his maidservant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together from the inheritance of God.'

<sup>17</sup>Your maidservant said, "The word of my lord the king will now be comforting; for as the angel of God, so is my lord the king in discerning good and evil. And may the LORD your God be with you."

<sup>18</sup>Then the king answered and said to the woman, "Please do not hide from me anything that I ask you." And the woman said, "Please, let my lord the king speak."

<sup>19</sup>So the king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?" And the woman answered and said, "As you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab commanded me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant.

<sup>20</sup>To bring about this change of affairs your servant Joab has done this thing; but my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of the angel of God, to know everything that is in the earth."

<sup>22</sup>Then Joab fell to the ground on his face and bowed himself, and thanked the king. And Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has fulfilled the request of his servant."

<sup>23</sup>So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup>And the king said, "Let him return to his own house, but do not let him see my face." So Absalom returned to his own house, but did not see the king's face.

<sup>25</sup>Now in all Israel there was no one who was praised as much as Absalom for his good looks. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

<sup>26</sup>And when he cut the hair of his head--at the end of every year he cut it because it was heavy on him--when he cut it, he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels according to the king's standard.

<sup>27</sup>To Absalom were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar.

She was a woman of beautiful appearance.

<sup>28</sup>And Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, but did not see the king's face.

<sup>29</sup>Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. And when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

<sup>30</sup>So he said to his servants, "See, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire." And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

<sup>31</sup>Then Joab arose and came to Absalom's house, and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"

<sup>32</sup>And Absalom answered Joab, "Look, I sent to you, saying, 'Come here, so that I may send you to the king, to say, 'Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still.'" Now therefore, let me see the king's face; but if there is iniquity in me, let him execute me."

<sup>33</sup>So Joab went to the king and told him. And when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king. Then the king kissed Absalom.

15After this it happened that Absalom provided himself with chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

<sup>2</sup>Now Absalom would rise early and stand beside the way to the gate. So it was, whenever anyone who had a lawsuit came to the king for a decision, that Absalom would call to him and say, "What city are you from?" And he would say, "Your servant is from such and such a tribe of Israel."

<sup>3</sup>Then Absalom would say to him, "Look, your case is good and right; but there is no deputy of the king to hear you."

<sup>4</sup>Moreover Absalom would say, "Oh, that I were made judge in the land, and everyone who has any suit or cause would come to me; then I would give him justice."

<sup>5</sup>And so it was, whenever anyone came near to bow down to him, that he would put out his hand and take him and kiss him.

<sup>6</sup>In this manner Absalom acted toward all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>Now it came to pass after forty years that Absalom said to the king, "Please, let me go to Hebron and pay the vow which I made to the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>For your servant took a vow while I dwelt at Geshur in Syria, saying, "If the LORD indeed brings me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD."

<sup>9</sup>And the king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose and went to Hebron.

<sup>10</sup>Then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, "Absalom reigns in Hebron!"

<sup>14</sup>So David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee, or we shall not escape from Absalom. Make haste to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly and bring disaster upon us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

<sup>15</sup>And the king's servants said to the king, "We are your servants, ready to do whatever my lord the king commands."

<sup>18</sup>Then all his servants passed before him; and all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who had followed him from Gath, passed before the king.

<sup>19</sup>Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why are you also going with us? Return and remain with the king. For you are a foreigner and also an exile from your own place.

<sup>20</sup>In fact, you came only yesterday. Should I make you wander up and down with us today, since I go I know not where? Return, and take your brethren back. Mercy and truth be with you."

<sup>21</sup>But Ittai answered the king and said, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in whatever place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also your servant will be."

<sup>22</sup>So David said to Ittai, "Go, and cross over." Then Ittai the Gittite and all his men and all the little ones who were with him crossed over.

<sup>23</sup>And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people crossed over. The king himself also crossed over the Brook Kidron, and all the people crossed over toward the way of the wilderness.

<sup>24</sup>There was Zadok also, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar went up until all the people had finished crossing over from the city.

<sup>25</sup>Then the king said to Zadok, "Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, He will bring me back and show me both it and His dwelling place.

<sup>26</sup>But if He says thus: "I have no delight in you," here I am, let Him do to me as seems good to Him."

<sup>27</sup>The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

<sup>28</sup>See, I will wait in the plains of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me."

<sup>29</sup>Therefore Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem. And they remained there.

<sup>30</sup>So David went up by the Ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered and went barefoot. And all the people who were with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they went up.

<sup>31</sup>Then someone told David, saying, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David said, "O LORD, I pray, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness!"

<sup>32</sup>Now it happened when David had come to the top of the mountain, where he worshiped God--there was Hushai the Archite coming to meet him with his robe torn and dust on his head.

<sup>33</sup>David said to him, "If you go on with me, then you will become a burden to me.

<sup>34</sup>But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, "I will be your servant, O king; as I was your father's servant previously, so I will now also be your servant," then you may defeat the counsel of Ahithophel for me.

<sup>35</sup>And do you not have Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? Therefore it will be that whatever you hear from the king's house, you shall tell to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

<sup>36</sup>Indeed they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son; and by them you shall send me everything you hear."

<sup>37</sup>So Hushai, David's friend, went into the city. And Absalom came into Jerusalem.

16When David was a little past the top of the mountain, there was Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth, who met him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred clusters of raisins, one hundred summer fruits, and a skin of wine.

<sup>2</sup>And the king said to Ziba, "What do you mean to do with these?" So Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for those who are faint in the wilderness to drink."

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said, "And where is your master's son?" And Ziba said to the king, "Indeed he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.'"

<sup>4</sup>So the king said to Ziba, "Here, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours." And Ziba said, "I humbly bow before you, that I may find favor in your sight, my lord, O king!"

<sup>5</sup>Now when King David came to Bahurim, there was a man from the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei the son of Gera, coming from there. He came out, cursing continuously as he came.

<sup>7</sup>Also Shimei said thus when he cursed: "Come out! Come out! You bloodthirsty man, you rogue!"

<sup>8</sup>The LORD has brought upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. So now you are caught in your own evil, because you are a bloodthirsty man!"

<sup>9</sup>Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please, let me go over and take off his head!"

<sup>10</sup>But the king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because the LORD has said to him, 'Curse David.' Who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?'"

<sup>11</sup>And David said to Abishai and all his servants, "See how my son who came from my own body seeks my life. How much more now may this Benjamite? Let him alone, and let him curse; for so the LORD has ordered him.

<sup>12</sup>It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction, and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing this day."

<sup>13</sup>And as David and his men went along the road, Shimei went along the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, threw stones at him and kicked up dust.

<sup>14</sup>Now the king and all the people who were with him became weary; so they refreshed themselves there.

<sup>15</sup>Meanwhile Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem; and Ahithophel was with him.

<sup>16</sup>And so it was, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

<sup>17</sup>So Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

<sup>18</sup>And Hushai said to Absalom, "No, but whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his I will be, and with him I will remain.

<sup>19</sup>"Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence."

<sup>20</sup>Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give advice as to what we should do."

<sup>21</sup>And Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong."

<sup>22</sup>So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

<sup>23</sup>Now the advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if one had inquired at the oracle of God. So was all the advice of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Now let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight.

<sup>2</sup>I will come upon him while he is weary and weak, and make him afraid. And all the people who are with him will flee, and I will strike only the king.

<sup>3</sup>Then I will bring back all the people to you. When all return except the man whom you seek, all the people will be at peace."

<sup>4</sup>And the saying pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he says too."

<sup>6</sup>And when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, "Ahithophel has spoken in this manner. Shall we do as he says? If not, speak up."

<sup>7</sup>So Hushai said to Absalom: "The advice that Ahithophel has given is not good at this time.

<sup>8</sup>For," said Hushai, "you know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are enraged in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field; and your father is a man of war, and will not camp with the people.

<sup>9</sup>Surely by now he is hidden in some pit, or in some other place. And it will be, when some of them are overthrown at the first, that whoever hears it will say, "There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom."

<sup>10</sup>And even he who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will melt completely. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore I advise that all Israel be fully gathered to you, from Dan to Beersheba, like the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person.

<sup>12</sup>So we will come upon him in some place where he may be found, and we will fall on him as the dew falls on the ground. And of him and all the men who are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

<sup>13</sup>Moreover, if he has withdrawn into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city; and we will pull it into the river, until there is not one small stone found there."

<sup>14</sup>So Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than the advice of Ahithophel." For the LORD had purposed to defeat the good advice of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring disaster on Absalom.

<sup>15</sup>Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Thus and so Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and so I have advised.

<sup>17</sup>Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed at En Rogel, for they dared not be seen coming into the city; so a female servant would come and tell them, and they would go and tell King David.

<sup>18</sup>Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom. But both of them went away quickly and came to a man's house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down into it.

<sup>19</sup>Then the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground grain on it; and the thing was not known.

<sup>20</sup>And when Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house, they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" So the woman said to them, "They have gone over the water brook." And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>Now it came to pass, after they had departed, that they came up out of the well and went and told King David, and said to David, "Arise and cross over the water quickly. For thus has Ahithophel advised against you."

<sup>23</sup>Now when Ahithophel saw that his advice was not followed, he saddled a donkey, and arose and went home to his house, to his city. Then he put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died; and he was buried in his father's tomb.

<sup>24</sup>Then David went to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

was the son of a man whose name was Jithra, an Israelite, who had gone in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

<sup>27</sup>Now it happened, when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the people of Ammon, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

<sup>28</sup>brought beds and basins, earthen vessels and wheat, barley and flour, parched grain and beans, lentils and parched seeds,

<sup>29</sup>honey and curds, sheep and cheese of the herd, for David and the people who were with him to eat. For they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

18 And David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

<sup>2</sup>Then David sent out one third of the people under the hand of Joab, one third under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, "I also will surely go out with you myself."

<sup>3</sup>But the people answered, "You shall not go out! For if we flee away, they will not care about us; nor if half of us die, will they care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us now. For you are now more help to us in the city."

<sup>4</sup>Then the king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.

<sup>5</sup>Now the king had commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains orders concerning Absalom.

<sup>6</sup>So the people went out into the field of battle against Israel. And the battle was in the woods of Ephraim.

<sup>7</sup>The people of Israel were overthrown there before the servants of David, and a great slaughter of twenty thousand took place there that day.

<sup>8</sup>For the battle there was scattered over the face of the whole countryside, and the woods devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

<sup>10</sup>Now a certain man saw it and told Joab, and said, "I just saw Absalom hanging in a terebinth tree!"

<sup>11</sup> So Joab said to the man who told him, "You just saw him! And why did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten shekels of silver and a belt."

<sup>12</sup> But the man said to Joab, "Though I were to receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, I would not raise my hand against the king's son. For in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 'Beware lest anyone touch the young man Absalom!'"

<sup>13</sup> Otherwise I would have dealt falsely against my own life. For there is nothing hidden from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me."

<sup>14</sup> Then Joab said, "I cannot linger with you." And he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through Absalom's heart, while he was still alive in the midst of the terebinth tree.

<sup>15</sup> And ten young men who bore Joab's armor surrounded Absalom, and struck and killed him.

<sup>16</sup> So Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel. For Joab held back the people.

<sup>17</sup> And they took Absalom and cast him into a large pit in the woods, and laid a very large heap of stones over him. Then all Israel fled, everyone to his tent.

<sup>18</sup> Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up a pillar for himself, which is in the King's Valley. For he said, "I have no son to keep my name in remembrance." He called the pillar after his own name.

And to this day it is called Absalom's Monument.

<sup>19</sup> Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Let me run now and take the news to the king, how the LORD has avenged him of his enemies."

<sup>20</sup> And Joab said to him, "You shall not take the news this day, for you shall take the news another day. But today you shall take no news, because the king's son is dead."

<sup>21</sup> Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." So the Cushite bowed himself to Joab and ran.

<sup>22</sup> And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said again to Joab, "But whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite." So Joab said, "Why will you run, my son, since you have no news ready?"

<sup>23</sup> "But whatever happens," he said, "let me run." So he said to him, "Run." Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain, and outran the Cushite.

<sup>24</sup> Now David was sitting between the two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof over the gate, to the wall, lifted his eyes and looked, and there was a man, running alone.

<sup>25</sup> Then the watchman cried out and told the king. And the king said, "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." And he came rapidly and drew near.

<sup>26</sup>Then the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, "There is another man, running alone!" And the king said, "He also brings news."

<sup>27</sup>So the watchman said, "I think the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." And the king said, "He is a good man, and comes with good news."

<sup>28</sup>So Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, "All is well!" Then he bowed down with his face to the earth before the king, and said, "Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king!"

<sup>29</sup>The king said, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent the king's servant and me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I did not know what it was about."

<sup>30</sup>And the king said, "Turn aside and stand here." So he turned aside and stood still.

<sup>31</sup>Just then the Cushite came, and the Cushite said, "There is good news, my lord the king! For the LORD has avenged you this day of all those who rose against you."

<sup>32</sup>And the king said to the Cushite, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" So the Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise against you to do harm, be like that young man!"

<sup>33</sup>Then the king was deeply moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept. And as he went, he said thus: "O my son Absalom--my son, my son Absalom--if only I had died in your place! O Absalom my son, my son!"

19 And Joab was told, "Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom."

<sup>2</sup>So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people. For the people heard it said that day, "The king is grieved for his son."

<sup>5</sup>Then Joab came into the house to the king, and said, "Today you have disgraced all your servants who today have saved your life, the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives and the lives of your concubines, <sup>6</sup>in that you love your enemies and hate your friends. For you have declared today that you regard neither princes nor servants; for today I perceive that if Absalom had lived and all of us had died today, then it would have pleased you well.

<sup>7</sup>Now therefore, arise, go out and speak comfort to your servants. For I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, not one will stay with you this night. And that will be worse for you than all the evil that has befallen you from your youth until now."

<sup>8</sup>Then the king arose and sat in the gate. And they told all the people, saying, "There is the king, sitting in the gate." So all the people came before the king. For everyone of Israel had fled to his tent.

<sup>9</sup>Now all the people were in a dispute throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king saved us from the hand of our enemies, he delivered us from the hand of the Philistines, and now he has fled from the land because of Absalom.

<sup>10</sup>But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now therefore, why do you say nothing about bringing back the king?"

<sup>11</sup>So King David sent to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, "Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the words of all Israel have come to the king, to his very house?"

<sup>12</sup>You are my brethren, you are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?"

<sup>13</sup>And say to Amasa, "Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you are not commander of the army before me continually in place of Joab."

<sup>14</sup>So he swayed the hearts of all the men of Judah, just as the heart of one man, so that they sent this word to the king: "Return, you and all your servants!"

<sup>15</sup>Then the king returned and came to the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to escort the king across the Jordan.

<sup>16</sup>And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

<sup>17</sup>There were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over the Jordan before the king.

<sup>18</sup>Then a ferryboat went across to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. Now Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king when he had crossed the Jordan.

<sup>19</sup>Then he said to the king, "Do not let my lord impute iniquity to me, or remember what wrong your servant did on the day that my lord the king left Jerusalem, that the king should take it to heart.

<sup>20</sup>For I, your servant, know that I have sinned. Therefore here I am, the first to come today of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."

<sup>21</sup>But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?"

<sup>22</sup>And David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be adversaries to me today? Shall any man be put to death today in Israel? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?"

<sup>23</sup>Therefore the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king swore to him.

<sup>24</sup>Now Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. And he had not cared for his feet, nor trimmed his mustache, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he returned in peace.

<sup>25</sup>So it was, when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"

<sup>26</sup>And he answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself, that I may ride on it and go to the king,' because your servant is lame.

<sup>27</sup>And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king, but my lord the king is like the angel of God. Therefore do what is good in your eyes.

<sup>28</sup>For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king. Yet you set your servant among those who eat at your own table. Therefore what right have I still to cry out anymore to the king?"

<sup>29</sup>So the king said to him, "Why do you speak anymore of your matters? I have said, 'You and Ziba divide the land.'"

<sup>30</sup>Then Mephibosheth said to the king, "Rather, let him take it all, inasmuch as my lord the king has come back in peace to his own house."

<sup>31</sup>And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim and went across the Jordan with the king, to escort him across the Jordan.

<sup>32</sup>Now Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old. And he had provided the king with supplies while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very rich man.

<sup>33</sup>And the king said to Barzillai, "Come across with me, and I will provide for you while you are with me in Jerusalem."

<sup>34</sup>But Barzillai said to the king, "How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?"

<sup>35</sup>I am today eighty years old. Can I discern between the good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any longer the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be a further burden to my lord the king?

<sup>36</sup>Your servant will go a little way across the Jordan with the king. And why should the king repay me with such a reward?

<sup>37</sup>Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, near the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what seems good to you."

<sup>38</sup>And the king answered, "Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you. Now whatever you request of me, I will do for you."

<sup>39</sup>Then all the people went over the Jordan. And when the king had crossed over, the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own place.

<sup>40</sup>Now the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him. And all the people of Judah escorted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

<sup>41</sup>Just then all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, "Why have our brethren, the men of Judah, stolen you away and brought the king, his household, and all David's men with him across the Jordan?"

<sup>42</sup>So all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is a close relative of ours. Why then are you angry over this matter? Have we ever eaten at the king's expense? Or has he given us any gift?"

<sup>43</sup>And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, "We have ten shares in the king; therefore we also have more right to David than you. Why then do you despise us--were we not the first to advise bringing back our king?" Yet the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20 And there happened to be there a rebel, whose name was Sheba the son of Bichri, a Benjamite. And he blew a trumpet, and said: "We have no share in David, Nor do we have inheritance in the son of Jesse; Every man to his tents, O Israel!"

<sup>2</sup>So every man of Israel deserted David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah, from the Jordan as far as Jerusalem, remained loyal to their king.

<sup>3</sup>Now David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, his concubines whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in seclusion and supported them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.

<sup>4</sup>And the king said to Amasa, "Assemble the men of Judah for me within three days, and be present here yourself."

<sup>5</sup>So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah. But he delayed longer than the set time which David had appointed him.

<sup>6</sup>And David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom. Take your lord's servants and pursue him, lest he find for himself fortified cities, and escape us."

<sup>7</sup>So Joab's men, with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the mighty men, went out after him. And they went out of Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

<sup>8</sup>When they were at the large stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came before them. Now Joab was dressed in battle armor; on it was a belt with a sword fastened in its sheath at his hips; and as he was going forward, it fell out.

<sup>9</sup>Then Joab said to Amasa, "Are you in health, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

<sup>10</sup>But Amasa did not notice the sword that was in Joab's hand. And he struck him with it in the stomach, and his entrails poured out on the ground; and he did not strike him again. Thus he died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.

<sup>12</sup>But Amasa wallowed in his blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he moved Amasa from the highway to the field and threw a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came upon him halted.

<sup>13</sup>When he was removed from the highway, all the people went on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

<sup>14</sup>And he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel and Beth Maachah and all the Berites. So they were gathered together and also went after Sheba.

<sup>15</sup>Then they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth Maachah; and they cast up a siege mound against the city, and it stood by the rampart. And all the people who were with Joab battered the wall to throw it down.

<sup>16</sup>Then a wise woman cried out from the city, "Hear, hear! Please say to Joab, 'Come nearby, that I may speak with you.'"

<sup>17</sup>When he had come near to her, the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Hear the words of your maidservant." And he answered, "I am listening."

<sup>18</sup>So she spoke, saying, "They used to talk in former times, saying, 'They shall surely seek guidance at Abel,' and so they would end disputes.

<sup>19</sup>I am among the peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?"

<sup>20</sup>And Joab answered and said, "Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy!

<sup>21</sup>That is not so. But a man from the mountains of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has raised his hand against the king, against David. Deliver him only, and I will depart from the city."

So the woman said to Joab, "Watch, his head will be thrown to you over the wall."

<sup>22</sup>Then the woman in her wisdom went to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. Then he blew a trumpet, and they withdrew from the city, every man to his tent. So Joab returned to the king at Jerusalem.

Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, "It is because of Saul and his bloodthirsty house, because he killed the Gibeonites."

<sup>2</sup>So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them. Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; the children of Israel had sworn protection to them, but Saul had sought to kill them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?"

<sup>4</sup>And the Gibeonites said to him, "We will have no silver or gold from Saul or from his house, nor shall you kill any man in Israel for us." So he said, "Whatever you say, I will do for you."

<sup>5</sup>Then they answered the king, "As for the man who consumed us and plotted against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the territories of Israel, <sup>6</sup>let seven men of his descendants be delivered to us, and we will hang them before the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD chose." And the king said, "I will give them."

<sup>7</sup>But the king spared Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

<sup>8</sup>So the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite;

<sup>9</sup>and he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill before the LORD. So they fell, all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

<sup>10</sup>Now Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until the late rains poured on them from heaven. And she did not allow the birds of the air to rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night.

<sup>12</sup>Then David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, from the men of Jabesh Gilead who had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hung them up, after the Philistines had struck down Saul in Gilboa.

<sup>13</sup>So he brought up the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from there; and they gathered the bones of those who had been hanged.

<sup>14</sup>They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the tomb of Kish his father. So they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God heeded the prayer for the land.

<sup>15</sup>When the Philistines were at war again with Israel, David and his servants with him went down and fought against the Philistines; and David grew faint.

<sup>16</sup>Then Ishbi-Benob, who was one of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose bronze spear was three hundred shekels, who was bearing a new sword, thought he could kill David.

<sup>17</sup>But Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to his aid, and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, "You shall go out no more with us to battle, lest you quench the lamp of Israel."

<sup>18</sup>Now it happened afterward that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was one of the sons of the giant.

<sup>19</sup>Again there was war at Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-Oregim the Bethlehemite killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

<sup>20</sup>Yet again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also was born to the giant.

<sup>22</sup>These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

22 Then David spoke to the LORD the words of this song, on the day when the LORD had delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.

<sup>2</sup>And he said: "The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;

<sup>3</sup>The God of my strength, in whom I will trust; My shield and the horn of my salvation, My stronghold and my refuge; My Savior, You save me from violence.

<sup>4</sup>I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised; So shall I be saved from my enemies.

<sup>7</sup>In my distress I called upon the LORD, And cried out to my God; He heard my voice from His temple, And my cry entered His ears.

<sup>8</sup>"Then the earth shook and trembled; The foundations of heaven quaked and were shaken, Because He was angry.

<sup>18</sup>He delivered me from my strong enemy, From those who hated me; For they were too strong for me.

<sup>19</sup>They confronted me in the day of my calamity, But the LORD was my support.

<sup>20</sup>He also brought me out into a broad place; He delivered me because He delighted in me.

<sup>21</sup>"The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands He has recompensed me.

<sup>22</sup>For I have kept the ways of the LORD, And have not wickedly departed from my God.

<sup>23</sup>For all His judgments were before me; And as for His statutes, I did not depart from them.

<sup>24</sup>I was also blameless before Him, And I kept myself from my iniquity.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, According to my cleanness in His eyes.

<sup>26</sup>"With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful; With a blameless man You will show Yourself blameless;

<sup>27</sup>With the pure You will show Yourself pure; And with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd.

<sup>28</sup>You will save the humble people; But Your eyes are on the haughty, that You may bring them down.

<sup>29</sup>"For You are my lamp, O LORD; The LORD shall enlighten my darkness.

<sup>30</sup>For by You I can run against a troop; By my God I can leap over a wall.

<sup>31</sup>As for God, His way is perfect; The word of the LORD is proven; He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

<sup>32</sup>"For who is God, except the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God?

<sup>33</sup>God is my strength and power, And He makes my way perfect.

<sup>34</sup>He makes my feet like the feet of deer, And sets me on my high places.

<sup>35</sup>He teaches my hands to make war, So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

<sup>36</sup>"You have also given me the shield of Your salvation; Your gentleness has made me great.

<sup>37</sup>You enlarged my path under me; So my feet did not slip.

<sup>38</sup>"I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them; Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed.

<sup>39</sup>And I have destroyed them and wounded them, So that they could not rise; They have fallen under my feet.

<sup>40</sup>For You have armed me with strength for the battle; You have subdued under me those who rose against me.

<sup>41</sup>You have also given me the necks of my enemies, So that I destroyed those who hated me.

<sup>42</sup>They looked, but there was none to save; Even to the LORD, but He did not answer them.

<sup>43</sup>Then I beat them as fine as the dust of the earth; I trod them like dirt in the streets, And I spread them out.

<sup>44</sup>"You have also delivered me from the strivings of my people; You have kept me as the head of the nations. A people I have not known shall serve me.

<sup>50</sup>Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the Gentiles, And sing praises to Your name.

23 Now these are the last words of David. Thus says David the son of Jesse; Thus says the man raised up on high, The anointed of the God of Jacob, And the sweet psalmist of Israel:

<sup>2</sup>"The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me, And His word was on my tongue.

<sup>3</sup>The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spoke to me: "He who rules over men must be just, Ruling in the fear of God.

<sup>4</sup>And he shall be like the light of the morning when the sun rises, A morning without clouds, Like the tender grass springing out of the earth, By clear shining after rain.'

<sup>5</sup>"Although my house is not so with God, Yet He has made with me an everlasting covenant, Ordered in all things and secure. For this is all my salvation and all my desire; Will He not make it increase?

<sup>6</sup>But the sons of rebellion shall all be as thorns thrust away, Because they cannot be taken with hands.

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-Basshebeth the Tachmonite, chief among the captains. He was called Adino the Eznite, because he had killed eight hundred men at one time.

<sup>9</sup>And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel had retreated.

<sup>10</sup>He arose and attacked the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand stuck to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to plunder.

<sup>11</sup>And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines had gathered together into a troop where there was a piece of ground full of lentils. So the people fled from the Philistines.

<sup>12</sup>But he stationed himself in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.

<sup>13</sup>Then three of the thirty chief men went down at harvest time and came to David at the cave of Adullam. And the troop of Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>14</sup>David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

<sup>15</sup>And David said with longing, "Oh, that someone would give me a drink of the water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

<sup>16</sup>So the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>And he said, "Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this! Is this not the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?" Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

<sup>18</sup>Now Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of another three. He lifted his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name among these three.

<sup>19</sup>Was he not the most honored of three? Therefore he became their captain. However, he did not attain to the first three.

<sup>20</sup>Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

<sup>21</sup>And he killed an Egyptian, a spectacular man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand; so he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

24 Again the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel, and He moved David against them to say, "Go, number Israel and Judah."

<sup>2</sup>So the king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, "Now go throughout all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and count the people, that I may know the number of the people."

<sup>3</sup>And Joab said to the king, "Now may the LORD your God add to the people a hundred times more than there are, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king desire this thing?"

<sup>6</sup>Then they came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi; they came to Dan Jaan and around to Sidon;

<sup>7</sup>and they came to the stronghold of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites. Then they went out to South Judah as far as Beersheba.

<sup>8</sup>So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

<sup>9</sup>Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to the king. And there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

<sup>10</sup>And David's heart condemned him after he had numbered the people. So David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done; but now, I pray, O LORD, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly."

<sup>11</sup>Now when David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying,

<sup>12</sup>"Go and tell David, "Thus says the LORD: "I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you.""

<sup>13</sup>So Gad came to David and told him; and he said to him, "Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or shall you flee three months before your enemies, while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' plague in your land? Now consider and see what answer I should take back to Him who sent me."

<sup>14</sup>And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Please let us fall into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are great; but do not let me fall into the hand of man."

<sup>15</sup>So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel from the morning till the appointed time. From Dan to Beersheba seventy thousand men of the people died.

<sup>16</sup>And when the angel stretched out His hand over Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented from the destruction, and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "It is enough; now restrain your hand." And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

<sup>17</sup>Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was striking the people, and said, "Surely I have sinned, and I have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, be against me and against my father's house."

<sup>18</sup>And Gad came that day to David and said to him, "Go up, erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."

<sup>19</sup>So David, according to the word of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.

<sup>20</sup>Now Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming toward him. So Araunah went out and bowed before the king with his face to the ground.

<sup>21</sup>Then Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" And David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you, to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people."

<sup>22</sup>Now Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up whatever seems good to him. Look, here are oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing implements and the yokes of the oxen for wood."

<sup>23</sup>All these, O king, Araunah has given to the king." And Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD your God accept you."

<sup>24</sup>Then the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will surely buy it from you for a price; nor will I offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God with that which costs me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

<sup>25</sup>And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD heeded the prayers for the land, and the plague was withdrawn from Israel.

1st Kings

1 Now King David was old, advanced in years; and they put covers on him, but he could not get warm.

2 Therefore his servants said to him, "Let a young woman, a virgin, be sought for our lord the king, and let her stand before the king, and let her care for him; and let her lie in your bosom, that our lord the king may be warm."

3 So they sought for a lovely young woman throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 The young woman was very lovely; and she cared for the king, and served him; but the king did not know her.

5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king"; and he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 (And his father had not rebuked him at any time by saying, "Why have you done so?" He was also very good-looking. His mother had borne him after Absalom.)

7 Then he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest, and they followed and helped Adonijah.

8 But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fattened cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by En Rogel; he also invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants.

10 But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, or Solomon his brother.

11 So Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king, and David our lord does not know it?"

12 Come, please, let me now give you advice, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

13 Go immediately to King David and say to him, "Did you not, my lord, O king, swear to your maidservant, saying, 'Assuredly your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne'? Why then has Adonijah become king?"

14 Then, while you are still talking there with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words."

15 So Bathsheba went into the chamber to the king. (Now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king.)

<sup>16</sup>And Bathsheba bowed and did homage to the king. Then the king said, "What is your wish?"

<sup>17</sup>Then she said to him, "My lord, you swore by the LORD your God to your maidservant, saying, "Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.'

<sup>18</sup>So now, look! Adonijah has become king; and now, my lord the king, you do not know about it.

<sup>19</sup>He has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army; but Solomon your servant he has not invited.

<sup>20</sup>And as for you, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

<sup>21</sup>Otherwise it will happen, when my lord the king rests with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted as offenders."

<sup>22</sup>And just then, while she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

<sup>23</sup>So they told the king, saying, "Here is Nathan the prophet." And when he came in before the king, he bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.

<sup>24</sup>And Nathan said, "My lord, O king, have you said, "Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne'?"

<sup>25</sup>For he has gone down today, and has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, and the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest; and look! They are eating and drinking before him; and they say, "Long live King Adonijah!"

<sup>26</sup>But he has not invited me--me your servant--nor Zadok the priest, nor Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, nor your servant Solomon.

<sup>27</sup>Has this thing been done by my lord the king, and you have not told your servant who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

<sup>28</sup>Then King David answered and said, "Call Bathsheba to me." So she came into the king's presence and stood before the king.

<sup>29</sup>And the king took an oath and said, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from every distress,

<sup>30</sup>just as I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel, saying, "Assuredly Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,' so I certainly will do this day."

<sup>31</sup>Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and paid homage to the king, and said, "Let my lord King David live forever!"

<sup>32</sup>And King David said, "Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." So they came before the king.

<sup>33</sup>The king also said to them, "Take with you the servants of your lord, and have Solomon my son ride on my own mule, and take him down to Gihon.

<sup>34</sup>There let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel; and blow the horn, and say, "Long live King Solomon!"

<sup>35</sup>Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne, and he shall be king in my place. For I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah."

<sup>36</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, "Amen! May the LORD God of my lord the king say so too.

<sup>37</sup>As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may He be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David."

<sup>38</sup>So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and took him to Gihon.

<sup>39</sup>Then Zadok the priest took a horn of oil from the tabernacle and anointed Solomon. And they blew the horn, and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!"

<sup>40</sup>And all the people went up after him; and the people played the flutes and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth seemed to split with their sound.

<sup>41</sup>Now Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the horn, he said, "Why is the city in such a noisy uproar?"

<sup>42</sup>While he was still speaking, there came Jonathan, the son of Abiathar the priest. And Adonijah said to him, "Come in, for you are a prominent man, and bring good news."

<sup>43</sup>Then Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, "No! Our lord King David has made Solomon king.

<sup>44</sup>The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and they have made him ride on the king's mule.

<sup>45</sup>So Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon; and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you have heard.

<sup>47</sup>And moreover the king's servants have gone to bless our lord King David, saying, "May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and may He make his throne greater than your throne.' Then the king bowed himself on the bed.

<sup>48</sup>Also the king said thus, "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne this day, while my eyes see it!"

<sup>49</sup>So all the guests who were with Adonijah were afraid, and arose, and each one went his way.

<sup>50</sup>Now Adonijah was afraid of Solomon; so he arose, and went and took hold of the horns of the altar.

<sup>51</sup>And it was told Solomon, saying, "Indeed Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; for look, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, "Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.'"

<sup>52</sup>Then Solomon said, "If he proves himself a worthy man, not one hair of him shall fall to the earth; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die."

<sup>53</sup>So King Solomon sent them to bring him down from the altar. And he came and fell down before King Solomon; and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

2 Now the days of David drew near that he should die, and he charged Solomon his son, saying:

<sup>2</sup>"I go the way of all the earth; be strong, therefore, and prove yourself a man.

<sup>3</sup>And keep the charge of the LORD your God: to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn;

<sup>4</sup>that the LORD may fulfill His word which He spoke concerning me, saying, "If your sons take heed to their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul,' He said, "you shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.'

<sup>5</sup>"Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner and Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed. And he shed the blood of war in peacetime, and put the blood of war on his belt that was around his waist, and on his sandals that were on his feet.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore do according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray hair go down to the grave in peace.

<sup>7</sup>"But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

<sup>8</sup>"And see, you have with you Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a malicious curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim. But he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, "I will not put you to death with the sword.'

<sup>11</sup>The period that David reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established.

<sup>13</sup>Now Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. So she said, "Do you come peaceably?" And he said, "Peaceably."

<sup>14</sup>Moreover he said, "I have something to say to you." And she said, "Say it."

<sup>15</sup>Then he said, "You know that the kingdom was mine, and all Israel had set their expectations on me, that I should reign. However, the kingdom has been turned over, and has become my brother's; for it was his from the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>Now I ask one petition of you; do not deny me." And she said to him, "Say it."

<sup>17</sup>Then he said, "Please speak to King Solomon, for he will not refuse you, that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife."

<sup>18</sup>So Bathsheba said, "Very well, I will speak for you to the king."

<sup>19</sup>Bathsheba therefore went to King Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her and bowed down to her, and sat down on his throne and had a throne set for the king's mother; so she sat at his right hand.

<sup>20</sup>Then she said, "I desire one small petition of you; do not refuse me." And the king said to her, "Ask it, my mother, for I will not refuse you."

<sup>21</sup>So she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife."

<sup>22</sup>And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, "Now why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also--for he is my older brother--for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah."

<sup>23</sup>Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "May God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life!

<sup>24</sup>Now therefore, as the LORD lives, who has confirmed me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has established a house for me, as He promised, Adonijah shall be put to death today!"

<sup>25</sup>So King Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he struck him down, and he died.

<sup>26</sup>And to Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth, to your own fields, for you are deserving of death; but I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before my father David, and because you were afflicted every time my father was afflicted."

<sup>27</sup> So Solomon removed Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, that he might fulfill the word of the LORD which He spoke concerning the house of Eli at Shiloh.

<sup>28</sup> Then news came to Joab, for Joab had defected to Adonijah, though he had not defected to Absalom. So Joab fled to the tabernacle of the LORD, and took hold of the horns of the altar.

<sup>29</sup> And King Solomon was told, "Joab has fled to the tabernacle of the LORD; there he is, by the altar." Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, strike him down."

<sup>30</sup> So Benaiah went to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said to him, "Thus says the king, 'Come out!'" And he said, "No, but I will die here." And Benaiah brought back word to the king, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."

<sup>31</sup> Then the king said to him, "Do as he has said, and strike him down and bury him, that you may take away from me and from the house of my father the innocent blood which Joab shed.

<sup>32</sup> So the LORD will return his blood on his head, because he struck down two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword--Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, the commander of the army of Judah--though my father David did not know it.

<sup>33</sup> Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab and upon the head of his descendants forever. But upon David and his descendants, upon his house and his throne, there shall be peace forever from the LORD."

<sup>34</sup> So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

<sup>35</sup> The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army, and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.

<sup>36</sup> Then the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and dwell there, and do not go out from there anywhere.

<sup>37</sup> For it shall be, on the day you go out and cross the Brook Kidron, know for certain you shall surely die; your blood shall be on your own head."

<sup>38</sup> And Shimei said to the king, "The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so your servant will do." So Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

<sup>39</sup> Now it happened at the end of three years, that two slaves of Shimei ran away to Achish the son of Maachah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, "Look, your slaves are in Gath!"

<sup>41</sup> And Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had come back.

<sup>42</sup> Then the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and warn you, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day you go out and travel anywhere, you shall surely die'? And you said to me, 'The word I have heard is good.'"

<sup>43</sup> Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD and the commandment that I gave you?"

<sup>44</sup> The king said moreover to Shimei, "You know, as your heart acknowledges, all the wickedness that you did to my father David; therefore the LORD will return your wickedness on your own head.

<sup>46</sup> So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out and struck him down, and he died. Thus the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3 Now Solomon made a treaty with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and married Pharaoh's daughter; then he brought her to the City of David until he had finished building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall all around Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> Now the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place: Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

<sup>5</sup> At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

<sup>6</sup> And Solomon said: "You have shown great mercy to Your servant David my father, because he walked before You in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You; You have continued this great kindness for him, and You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

<sup>7</sup> Now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king instead of my father David, but I am a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

<sup>8</sup> And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a great people, too numerous to be numbered or counted.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore give to Your servant an understanding heart to judge Your people, that I may discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of Yours?"

<sup>10</sup>The speech pleased the LORD, that Solomon had asked this thing.

<sup>11</sup>Then God said to him: "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked long life for yourself, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice, <sup>12</sup>behold, I have done according to your words; see, I have given you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has not been anyone like you before you, nor shall any like you arise after you.

<sup>13</sup>And I have also given you what you have not asked: both riches and honor, so that there shall not be anyone like you among the kings all your days.

<sup>14</sup>So if you walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."

<sup>15</sup>Then Solomon awoke; and indeed it had been a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

<sup>16</sup>Now two women who were harlots came to the king, and stood before him.

<sup>17</sup>And one woman said, "O my lord, this woman and I dwell in the same house; and I gave birth while she was in the house.

<sup>18</sup>Then it happened, the third day after I had given birth, that this woman also gave birth. And we were together; no one was with us in the house, except the two of us in the house.

<sup>19</sup>And this woman's son died in the night, because she lay on him.

<sup>20</sup>So she arose in the middle of the night and took my son from my side, while your maidservant slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

<sup>21</sup>And when I rose in the morning to nurse my son, there he was, dead. But when I had examined him in the morning, indeed, he was not my son whom I had borne."

<sup>22</sup>Then the other woman said, "No! But the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son." And the first woman said, "No! But the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son." Thus they spoke before the king.

<sup>23</sup>And the king said, "The one says, 'This is my son, who lives, and your son is the dead one'; and the other says, 'No! But your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.'

<sup>24</sup>Then the king said, "Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword before the king.

<sup>25</sup>And the king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to one, and half to the other."

<sup>26</sup>Then the woman whose son was living spoke to the king, for she yearned with compassion for her son; and she said, "O my lord, give her the living child, and by no means kill him!" But the other said, "Let him be neither mine nor yours, but divide him."

<sup>27</sup>So the king answered and said, "Give the first woman the living child, and by no means kill him; she is his mother."

<sup>28</sup>And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had rendered; and they feared the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

4 So King Solomon was king over all Israel.

<sup>12</sup>Baana the son of Ahilud, in Taanach, Megiddo, and all Beth Shean, which is beside Zaretan below Jezreel, from Beth Shean to Abel Meholah, as far as the other side of Jokneam;

<sup>13</sup>Ben-Geber, in Ramoth Gilead; to him belonged the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, in Gilead; to him also belonged the region of Argob in Bashan—sixty large cities with walls and bronze gate-bars;

<sup>19</sup> Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan. He was the only governor who was in the land.

<sup>20</sup> Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and rejoicing.

<sup>24</sup> For he had dominion over all the region on this side of the River from Tiphseh even to Gaza, namely over all the kings on this side of the River; and he had peace on every side all around him.

<sup>31</sup> For he was wiser than all men--than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was in all the surrounding nations.

<sup>32</sup> He spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs were one thousand and five.

<sup>33</sup> Also he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree of Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; he spoke also of animals, of birds, of creeping things, and of fish.

<sup>34</sup> And men of all nations, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom, came to hear the wisdom of Solomon.

5 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, because he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, for Hiram had always loved David.

<sup>3</sup> You know how my father David could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which were fought against him on every side, until the LORD put his foes under the soles of his feet.

<sup>4</sup> But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor evil occurrence.

<sup>5</sup> And behold, I propose to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to my father David, saying, "Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he shall build the house for My name."

<sup>6</sup> Now therefore, command that they cut down cedars for me from Lebanon; and my servants will be with your servants, and I will pay you wages for your servants according to whatever you say. For you know there is none among us who has skill to cut timber like the Sidonians.

<sup>7</sup> So it was, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly and said, 4 Blessed be the LORD this day, for He has given David a wise son over this great people!

<sup>8</sup> Then Hiram sent to Solomon, saying: 4 I have considered the message which you sent me, and I will do all you desire concerning the cedar and cypress logs.

<sup>9</sup> My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; I will float them in rafts by sea to the place you indicate to me, and will have them broken apart there; then you can take them away. And you shall fulfill my desire by giving food for my household.

<sup>12</sup> So the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as He had promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty together.

<sup>13</sup> Then King Solomon raised up a labor force out of all Israel; and the labor force was thirty thousand men.

<sup>14</sup> And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts: they were one month in Lebanon and two months at home; Adoniram was in charge of the labor force.

<sup>18</sup>So Solomon's builders, Hiram's builders, and the Gebalites quarried them; and they prepared timber and stones to build the temple.

6And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

and the inner sanctuary. Thus he made side chambers all around it.

<sup>6</sup>The lowest chamber was five cubits wide, the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for he made narrow ledges around the outside of the temple, so that the support beams would not be fastened into the walls of the temple.

<sup>7</sup>And the temple, when it was being built, was built with stone finished at the quarry, so that no hammer or chisel or any iron tool was heard in the temple while it was being built.

<sup>8</sup>The doorway for the middle story was on the right side of the temple. They went up by stairs to the middle story, and from the middle to the third.

<sup>9</sup>So he built the temple and finished it, and he paneled the temple with beams and boards of cedar.

<sup>11</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying:

<sup>12</sup>"Concerning this temple which you are building, if you walk in My statutes, execute My judgments, keep all My commandments, and walk in them, then I will perform My word with you, which I spoke to your father David.

<sup>13</sup>And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel."

<sup>19</sup>And he prepared the inner sanctuary inside the temple, to set the ark of the covenant of the LORD there.

<sup>22</sup>The whole temple he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the temple; also he overlaid with gold the entire altar that was by the inner sanctuary.

<sup>23</sup>Inside the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.

<sup>24</sup>One wing of the cherub was five cubits, and the other wing of the cherub five cubits: ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.

<sup>25</sup>And the other cherub was ten cubits; both cherubim were of the same size and shape.

<sup>26</sup>The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub.

<sup>27</sup>Then he set the cherubim inside the inner room; and they stretched out the wings of the cherubim so that the wing of the one touched one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall. And their wings touched each other in the middle of the room.

<sup>29</sup>Then he carved all the walls of the temple all around, both the inner and outer sanctuaries, with carved figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers.

<sup>30</sup>And the floor of the temple he overlaid with gold, both the inner and outer sanctuaries.

<sup>31</sup>For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood; the lintel and doorposts were one-fifth of the wall.

<sup>32</sup>The two doors were of olive wood; and he carved on them figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees.

<sup>33</sup>So for the door of the sanctuary he also made doorposts of olive wood, one-fourth of the wall.

<sup>37</sup>In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.

<sup>38</sup>And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its details and according to all its plans. So he was seven years in building it.

7 But Solomon took thirteen years to build his own house; so he finished all his house.

<sup>2</sup>He also built the House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length was one hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, with four rows of cedar pillars, and cedar beams on the pillars.

<sup>4</sup>There were windows with beveled frames in three rows, and window was opposite window in three tiers.

<sup>5</sup>And all the doorways and doorposts had rectangular frames; and window was opposite window in three tiers.

<sup>6</sup>He also made the Hall of Pillars: its length was fifty cubits, and its width thirty cubits; and in front of them was a portico with pillars, and a canopy was in front of them.

<sup>7</sup>Then he made a hall for the throne, the Hall of Judgment, where he might judge; and it was paneled with cedar from floor to ceiling.

<sup>8</sup>And the house where he dwelt had another court inside the hall, of like workmanship. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken as wife.

<sup>14</sup>He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a bronze worker; he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill in working with all kinds of bronze work. So he came to King Solomon and did all his work.

<sup>15</sup>And he cast two pillars of bronze, each one eighteen cubits high, and a line of twelve cubits measured the circumference of each.

<sup>16</sup>Then he made two capitals of cast bronze, to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

<sup>17</sup>He made a lattice network, with wreaths of chainwork, for the capitals which were on top of the pillars: seven chains for one capital and seven for the other capital.

<sup>18</sup>So he made the pillars, and two rows of pomegranates above the network all around to cover the capitals that were on top; and thus he did for the other capital.

<sup>19</sup>The capitals which were on top of the pillars in the hall were in the shape of lilies, four cubits.

<sup>20</sup>The capitals on the two pillars also had pomegranates above, by the convex surface which was next to the network; and there were two hundred such pomegranates in rows on each of the capitals all around.

<sup>22</sup>The tops of the pillars were in the shape of lilies. So the work of the pillars was finished.

<sup>23</sup>And he made the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.

<sup>24</sup>Below its brim were ornamental buds encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The ornamental buds were cast in two rows when it was cast.

<sup>25</sup>It stood on twelve oxen: three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward.

<sup>26</sup>It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained two thousand baths.

<sup>27</sup>He also made ten carts of bronze; four cubits was the length of each cart, four cubits its width, and three cubits its height.

<sup>28</sup>And this was the design of the carts: They had panels, and the panels were between frames;

<sup>30</sup>Every cart had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze, and its four feet had supports. Under the laver were supports of cast bronze beside each wreath.

<sup>31</sup>Its opening inside the crown at the top was one cubit in diameter; and the opening was round, shaped like a pedestal, one and a half cubits in outside diameter; and also on the opening were engravings, but the panels were square, not round.

<sup>32</sup>Under the panels were the four wheels, and the axles of the wheels were joined to the cart. The height of a wheel was one and a half cubits.

<sup>34</sup>And there were four supports at the four corners of each cart; its supports were part of the cart itself.

<sup>36</sup>On the plates of its flanges and on its panels he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, wherever there was a clear space on each, with wreaths all around.

<sup>37</sup>Thus he made the ten carts. All of them were of the same mold, one measure, and one shape.

<sup>38</sup>Then he made ten lavers of bronze; each laver contained forty baths, and each laver was four cubits. On each of the ten carts was a laver.

<sup>40</sup>Huram made the lavers and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing all the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the house of the LORD:

<sup>41</sup>the two pillars, the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars; pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the pillars);

<sup>48</sup>Thus Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of the LORD: the altar of gold, and the table of gold on which was the showbread;

<sup>50</sup>the basins, the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner room (the Most Holy Place) and for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

<sup>51</sup>So all the work that King Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in the things which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and the furnishings. He put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

8 Now Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the City of David, which is Zion.

<sup>4</sup>Then they brought up the ark of the LORD, the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up.

<sup>5</sup>Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.

<sup>6</sup>Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

<sup>7</sup>For the cherubim spread their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.

<sup>8</sup>The poles extended so that the ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. And they are there to this day.

<sup>9</sup>Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>And it came to pass, when the priests came out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the LORD,

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon spoke: "The LORD said He would dwell in the dark cloud.

<sup>14</sup>Then the king turned around and blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.

<sup>15</sup>And he said: "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David, and with His hand has fulfilled it, saying,

<sup>16</sup>"Since the day that I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that My name might be there; but I chose David to be over My people Israel.'

<sup>17</sup>Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>But the LORD said to my father David, "Whereas it was in your heart to build a temple for My name, you did well that it was in your heart.

<sup>19</sup>Nevertheless you shall not build the temple, but your son who will come from your body, he shall build the temple for My name.'

<sup>20</sup>So the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; and I have filled the position of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised; and I have built a temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>21</sup>And there I have made a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with our fathers, when He brought them out of the land of Egypt."

<sup>23</sup>and he said: "LORD God of Israel, there is no God in heaven above or on earth below like You, who keep Your covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts.

<sup>24</sup>You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father; You have both spoken with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what You promised Your servant David my father, saying, "You shall not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne of Israel, only if your sons take heed to their way, that they walk before Me as you have walked before Me."

<sup>26</sup>And now I pray, O God of Israel, let Your word come true, which You have spoken to Your servant David my father.

<sup>27</sup>"But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You. How much less this temple which I have built!

<sup>28</sup>Yet regard the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, and listen to the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You today:

<sup>29</sup>that Your eyes may be open toward this temple night and day, toward the place of which You said, "My name shall be there," that You may hear the prayer which Your servant makes toward this place.

<sup>30</sup>And may You hear the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Hear in heaven Your dwelling place; and when You hear, forgive.

<sup>31</sup>"When anyone sins against his neighbor, and is forced to take an oath, and comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this temple, <sup>32</sup>then hear in heaven, and act, and judge Your servants, condemning the wicked, bringing his way on his head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

<sup>33</sup>"When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and when they turn back to You and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication to You in this temple, <sup>34</sup>then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to their fathers.

<sup>35</sup>"When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them,

<sup>36</sup>then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, that You may teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

<sup>37</sup>"When there is famine in the land, pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemy besieges them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is;

<sup>38</sup>whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, when each one knows the plague of his own heart, and spreads out his hands toward this temple:

<sup>39</sup>then hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and act, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You alone know the hearts of all the sons of men), <sup>40</sup>that they may fear You all the days that they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

<sup>41</sup>"Moreover, concerning a foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for Your name's sake

<sup>42</sup>(for they will hear of Your great name and Your strong hand and Your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this temple,

<sup>43</sup>hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, that all peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this temple which I have built is called by Your name.

<sup>44</sup>"When Your people go out to battle against their enemy, wherever You send them, and when they pray to the LORD toward the city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name, <sup>45</sup>then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

<sup>46</sup>"When they sin against You (for there is no one who does not sin), and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive to the land of the enemy, far or near;

<sup>47</sup>yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of those who took them captive, saying, "We have sinned and done wrong, we have committed wickedness";

<sup>48</sup>and when they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and pray to You toward their land which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name:

<sup>49</sup>then hear in heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause,

<sup>50</sup>and forgive Your people who have sinned against You, and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You; and grant them compassion before those who took them captive, that they may have compassion on them

<sup>51</sup>(for they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out of Egypt, out of the iron furnace), <sup>52</sup>that Your eyes may be open to the supplication of Your servant and the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they call to You.

<sup>53</sup>For You separated them from among all the peoples of the earth to be Your inheritance, as You spoke by Your servant Moses, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD."

<sup>54</sup>And so it was, when Solomon had finished praying all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, that he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

<sup>55</sup>Then he stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying:

<sup>56</sup>"Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. There has not failed one word of all His good promise, which He promised through His servant Moses.

<sup>57</sup>May the LORD our God be with us, as He was with our fathers. May He not leave us nor forsake us, <sup>58</sup>that He may incline our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, which He commanded our fathers.

<sup>59</sup>And may these words of mine, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be near the LORD our God day and night, that He may maintain the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Israel, as each day may require,

<sup>60</sup>that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other.

<sup>61</sup>Let your heart therefore be loyal to the LORD our God, to walk in His statutes and keep His commandments, as at this day."

<sup>63</sup>And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

<sup>64</sup>On the same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

<sup>66</sup>On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the good that the LORD had done for His servant David, and for Israel His people.

9 And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he wanted to do, <sup>2</sup> that the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon.

<sup>3</sup> And the LORD said to him: "I have heard your prayer and your supplication that you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built to put My name there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

<sup>4</sup> Now if you walk before Me as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments,

<sup>5</sup> then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I promised David your father, saying, "You shall not fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.'

<sup>6</sup> But if you or your sons at all turn from following Me, and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them,

<sup>7</sup> then I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them; and this house which I have consecrated for My name I will cast out of My sight. Israel will be a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

<sup>8</sup> And as for this house, which is exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and will hiss, and say, "Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?"

<sup>9</sup> Then they will answer, "Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore the LORD has brought all this calamity on them."

<sup>10</sup> Now it happened at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house

<sup>11</sup> (Hiram the king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress and gold, as much as he desired), that King Solomon then gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

<sup>12</sup> Then Hiram went from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, but they did not please him.

<sup>13</sup> So he said, "What kind of cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" And he called them the land of Cabul, as they are to this day.

and fifty, who ruled over the people who did the work.

<sup>24</sup>But Pharaoh's daughter came up from the City of David to her house which Solomon had built for her. Then he built the Millo.

<sup>25</sup>Now three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built for the LORD, and he burned incense with them on the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the temple.

<sup>27</sup>Then Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, seamen who knew the sea, to work with the servants of Solomon.

<sup>28</sup>And they went to Ophir, and acquired four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

10 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions.

<sup>2</sup>She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels that bore spices, very much gold, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

<sup>3</sup>So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for the king that he could not explain it to her.

<sup>4</sup>And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

<sup>5</sup>the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his cupbearers, and his entryway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

<sup>6</sup>Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

<sup>7</sup>However I did not believe the words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed the half was not told me. Your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame of which I heard.

<sup>8</sup>Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

<sup>9</sup>Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on the throne of Israel! Because the LORD has loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king, to do justice and righteousness."

<sup>10</sup>Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great quantity, and precious stones. There never again came such abundance of spices as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

<sup>11</sup>Also, the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought great quantities of almug wood and precious stones from Ophir.

<sup>12</sup>And the king made steps of the almug wood for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers. There never again came such almug wood, nor has the like been seen to this day.

<sup>13</sup>Now King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, besides what Solomon had given her according to the royal generosity. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

<sup>14</sup>The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, <sup>15</sup>besides that from the traveling merchants, from the income of traders, from all the kings of Arabia, and from the governors of the country.

<sup>16</sup>And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into each shield.

<sup>17</sup>He also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; three minas of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

<sup>19</sup>The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round at the back; there were armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests.

<sup>20</sup>Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.

<sup>21</sup>All King Solomon's drinking vessels were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Not one was silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon.

<sup>24</sup>Now all the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup>Now a chariot that was imported from Egypt cost six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse one hundred and fifty; and thus, through their agents, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

11 But King Solomon loved many foreign women, as well as the daughter of Pharaoh: women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites--

<sup>2</sup>from the nations of whom the LORD had said to the children of Israel, "You shall not intermarry with them, nor they with you. Surely they will turn away your hearts after their gods." Solomon clung to these in love.

<sup>3</sup>And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart.

<sup>4</sup>For it was so, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned his heart after other gods; and his heart was not loyal to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David.

<sup>8</sup>And he did likewise for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

<sup>9</sup>So the LORD became angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned from the LORD God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, <sup>10</sup>and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he did not keep what the LORD had commanded.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Because you have done this, and have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant.

<sup>12</sup>Nevertheless I will not do it in your days, for the sake of your father David; I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

<sup>13</sup>However I will not tear away the whole kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."

<sup>14</sup>Now the LORD raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was a descendant of the king in Edom.

<sup>15</sup>For it happened, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, after he had killed every male in Edom

<sup>16</sup>(because for six months Joab remained there with all Israel, until he had cut down every male in Edom), <sup>17</sup>that Hadad fled to go to Egypt, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him. Hadad was still a little child.

<sup>18</sup>Then they arose from Midian and came to Paran; and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, apportioned food for him, and gave him land.

<sup>20</sup>Then the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. And Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

<sup>21</sup>So when Hadad heard in Egypt that David rested with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

<sup>22</sup>Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that suddenly you seek to go to your own country?" So he answered, "Nothing, but do let me go anyway."

<sup>23</sup>And God raised up another adversary against him, Rezon the son of Eliadah, who had fled from his lord, Hadadezer king of Zobah.

<sup>24</sup>So he gathered men to him and became captain over a band of raiders, when David killed those of Zobah. And they went to Damascus and dwelt there, and reigned in Damascus.

<sup>26</sup>Then Solomon's servant, Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zereda, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also rebelled against the king.

<sup>28</sup>The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor; and Solomon, seeing that the young man was industrious, made him the officer over all the labor force of the house of Joseph.

<sup>29</sup>Now it happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met him on the way; and he had clothed himself with a new garment, and the two were alone in the field.

<sup>30</sup>Then Ahijah took hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it into twelve pieces.

<sup>31</sup>And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces, for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and will give ten tribes to you

<sup>32</sup>(but he shall have one tribe for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel),

<sup>33</sup>because they have forsaken Me, and worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the people of Ammon, and have not walked in My ways to do what is right in My eyes and keep My statutes and My judgments, as did his father David.

<sup>34</sup>However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, because I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of My servant David, whom I chose because he kept My commandments and My statutes.

<sup>35</sup>But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand and give it to you--ten tribes.

<sup>36</sup>And to his son I will give one tribe, that My servant David may always have a lamp before Me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for Myself, to put My name there.

<sup>37</sup>So I will take you, and you shall reign over all your heart desires, and you shall be king over Israel.

<sup>38</sup>Then it shall be, if you heed all that I command you, walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as My servant David did, then I will be with you and build for you an enduring house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you.

<sup>39</sup>And I will afflict the descendants of David because of this, but not forever."

<sup>40</sup>Solomon therefore sought to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

12

And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.

<sup>2</sup>So it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was still in Egypt, for he had fled from the presence of King Solomon and had been dwelling in Egypt),

<sup>3</sup>that they sent and called him. Then Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

<sup>4</sup>"Your father made our yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

<sup>5</sup>So he said to them, "Depart for three days, then come back to me." And the people departed.

<sup>6</sup>Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, and he said, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"

<sup>7</sup>And they spoke to him, saying, "If you will be a servant to these people today, and serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

<sup>8</sup>But he rejected the advice which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.

<sup>9</sup>And he said to them, "What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, "Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

<sup>10</sup>Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you should speak to this people who have spoken to you, saying, "Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us"--thus you shall say to them: "My little finger shall be thicker than my father's waist!"

<sup>11</sup>And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!"

<sup>12</sup>So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had directed, saying, "Come back to me the third day."

<sup>13</sup>Then the king answered the people roughly, and rejected the advice which the elders had given him;

<sup>14</sup>and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!"

<sup>15</sup>So the king did not listen to the people; for the turn of events was from the LORD, that He might fulfill His word, which the LORD had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

<sup>16</sup>Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying: "What share have we in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel! Now, see to your own house, O David!" So Israel departed to their tents.

<sup>18</sup>Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of the revenue; but all Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

<sup>20</sup>Now it came to pass when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back, they sent for him and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel. There was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

<sup>21</sup>And when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah with the tribe of Benjamin, one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

<sup>22</sup>But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

<sup>23</sup>"Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying, <sup>24</sup>"Thus says the LORD: "You shall not go up nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel. Let every man return to his house, for this thing is from Me."" Therefore they obeyed the word of the LORD, and turned back, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and dwelt there. Also he went out from there and built Penuel.

<sup>26</sup>And Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom may return to the house of David:

<sup>27</sup>If these people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn back to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me and go back to Rehoboam king of Judah."

<sup>28</sup>Therefore the king asked advice, made two calves of gold, and said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, which brought you up from the land of Egypt!"

<sup>29</sup>And he set up one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.

<sup>30</sup>Now this thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one as far as Dan.

<sup>31</sup>He made shrines on the high places, and made priests from every class of people, who were not of the sons of Levi.

<sup>32</sup>Jeroboam ordained a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the feast that was in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. So he did at Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. And at Bethel he installed the priests of the high places which he had made.

<sup>33</sup>So he made offerings on the altar which he had made at Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had devised in his own heart. And he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and offered sacrifices on the altar and burned incense.

13 And behold, a man of God went from Judah to Bethel by the word of the LORD, and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense.

<sup>2</sup>Then he cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, "O altar, altar! Thus says the LORD: "Behold, a child, Josiah by name, shall be born to the house of David; and on you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and men's bones shall be burned on you."

<sup>3</sup>And he gave a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: Surely the altar shall split apart, and the ashes on it shall be poured out."

<sup>4</sup>So it came to pass when King Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, who cried out against the altar in Bethel, that he stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Arrest him!" Then his hand, which he stretched out toward him, withered, so that he could not pull it back to himself.

<sup>5</sup>The altar also was split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Then the king answered and said to the man of God, "Please entreat the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me." So the man of God entreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him, and became as before.

<sup>7</sup>Then the king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward."

<sup>8</sup>But the man of God said to the king, "If you were to give me half your house, I would not go in with you; nor would I eat bread nor drink water in this place.

<sup>9</sup>For so it was commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, "You shall not eat bread, nor drink water, nor return by the same way you came."

<sup>10</sup>So he went another way and did not return by the way he came to Bethel.

<sup>11</sup>Now an old prophet dwelt in Bethel, and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; they also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king.

<sup>12</sup>And their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" For his sons had seen which way the man of God went who came from Judah.

<sup>13</sup>Then he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it,

<sup>14</sup>and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. Then he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" And he said, "I am."

<sup>15</sup>Then he said to him, "Come home with me and eat bread."

<sup>16</sup>And he said, "I cannot return with you nor go in with you; neither can I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place.

<sup>17</sup>For I have been told by the word of the LORD, "You shall not eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by going the way you came."

<sup>18</sup>He said to him, "I too am a prophet as you are, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, "Bring him back with you to your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.'" (He was lying to him.)

<sup>19</sup>So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.

<sup>20</sup>Now it happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back;

<sup>21</sup>and he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, "Thus says the LORD: "Because you have disobeyed the word of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you,

<sup>22</sup>but you came back, ate bread, and drank water in the place of which the LORD said to you, "Eat no bread and drink no water," your corpse shall not come to the tomb of your fathers."

<sup>23</sup>So it was, after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, the prophet whom he had brought back.

<sup>24</sup>When he was gone, a lion met him on the road and killed him. And his corpse was thrown on the road, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the corpse.

<sup>25</sup>And there, men passed by and saw the corpse thrown on the road, and the lion standing by the corpse. Then they went and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

<sup>26</sup>Now when the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard it, he said, "It is the man of God who was disobedient to the word of the LORD. Therefore the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to him."

<sup>27</sup>And he spoke to his sons, saying, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled it.

<sup>28</sup>Then he went and found his corpse thrown on the road, and the donkey and the lion standing by the corpse. The lion had not eaten the corpse nor torn the donkey.

<sup>29</sup>And the prophet took up the corpse of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. So the old prophet came to the city to mourn, and to bury him.

<sup>30</sup>Then he laid the corpse in his own tomb; and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother!"

<sup>31</sup>So it was, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.

<sup>32</sup>For the saying which he cried out by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the shrines on the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, will surely come to pass."

<sup>33</sup>After this event Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but again he made priests from every class of people for the high places; whoever wished, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

<sup>34</sup>And this thing was the sin of the house of Jeroboam, so as to exterminate and destroy it from the face of the earth.

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick.

<sup>2</sup> And Jeroboam said to his wife, "Please arise, and disguise yourself, that they may not recognize you as the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Indeed, Ahijah the prophet is there, who told me that I would be king over this people.

<sup>3</sup> Also take with you ten loaves, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what will become of the child."

<sup>4</sup> And Jeroboam's wife did so; she arose and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were glazed by reason of his age.

<sup>5</sup> Now the LORD had said to Ahijah, "Here is the wife of Jeroboam, coming to ask you something about her son, for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall say to her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman."

<sup>6</sup> And so it was, when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps as she came through the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you pretend to be another person? For I have been sent to you with bad news.

<sup>7</sup> Go, tell Jeroboam, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you ruler over My people Israel,

<sup>8</sup> and tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to you; and yet you have not been as My servant David, who kept My commandments and who followed Me with all his heart, to do only what was right in My eyes;

<sup>9</sup> but you have done more evil than all who were before you, for you have gone and made for yourself other gods and molded images to provoke Me to anger, and have cast Me behind your back--

<sup>10</sup> therefore behold! I will bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male in Israel, bond and free; I will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as one takes away refuse until it is all gone.

<sup>12</sup> Arise therefore, go to your own house. When your feet enter the city, the child shall die.

<sup>13</sup> And all Israel shall mourn for him and bury him, for he is the only one of Jeroboam who shall come to the grave, because in him there is found something good toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

<sup>14</sup> "Moreover the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam; this is the day. What? Even now!

<sup>15</sup> For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water. He will uproot Israel from this good land which He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their wooden images, provoking the LORD to anger.

<sup>16</sup>And He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who sinned and who made Israel sin."

<sup>17</sup>Then Jeroboam's wife arose and departed, and came to Tirzah. When she came to the threshold of the house, the child died.

<sup>18</sup>And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

<sup>19</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he made war and how he reigned, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>The period that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years. So he rested with his fathers. Then Nadab his son reigned in his place.

<sup>21</sup>And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king. He reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

<sup>22</sup>Now Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked Him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, more than all that their fathers had done.

<sup>23</sup>For they also built for themselves high places, sacred pillars, and wooden images on every high hill and under every green tree.

<sup>24</sup>And there were also perverted persons in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

<sup>25</sup>It happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup>And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took away everything. He also took away all the gold shields which Solomon had made.

<sup>28</sup>And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards carried them, then brought them back into the guardroom.

<sup>29</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

15 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah.

<sup>3</sup>And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; his heart was not loyal to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David.

<sup>5</sup>because David did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and had not turned aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

<sup>6</sup>And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

<sup>7</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

<sup>12</sup>And he banished the perverted persons from the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

<sup>13</sup>Also he removed Maachah his grandmother from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of Asherah. And Asa cut down her obscene image and burned it by the Brook Kidron.

<sup>14</sup>But the high places were not removed. Nevertheless Asa's heart was loyal to the LORD all his days.

<sup>15</sup>He also brought into the house of the LORD the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils.

<sup>16</sup>Now there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

<sup>17</sup>And Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>Then Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the treasuries of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants. And King Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

<sup>19</sup>"Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you a present of silver and gold. Come and break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

<sup>21</sup>Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah, and remained in Tirzah.

<sup>22</sup>Then King Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted. And they took away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them King Asa built Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

<sup>23</sup>The rest of all the acts of Asa, all his might, all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

David his father. Then Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

<sup>25</sup>Now Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.

<sup>26</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin.

<sup>27</sup>Then Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him. And Baasha killed him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.

<sup>28</sup>Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

<sup>29</sup>And it was so, when he became king, that he killed all the house of Jeroboam. He did not leave to Jeroboam anyone that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite, <sup>30</sup>because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he had sinned and by which he had made Israel sin, because of his provocation with which he had provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

<sup>31</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>32</sup>And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

<sup>33</sup>In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years.

<sup>34</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin.

16 Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani, against Baasha, saying:

<sup>2</sup>"Inasmuch as I lifted you out of the dust and made you ruler over My people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made My people Israel sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins, <sup>3</sup>surely I will take away the posterity of Baasha and the posterity of his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

<sup>4</sup>The dogs shall eat whoever belongs to Baasha and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the fields."

<sup>6</sup>So Baasha rested with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah. Then Elah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>7</sup>And also the word of the LORD came by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha and his house, because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he killed them.

<sup>8</sup>In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel, and reigned two years in Tirzah.

<sup>9</sup>Now his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him as he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Tirzah.

<sup>10</sup>And Zimri went in and struck him and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

<sup>11</sup>Then it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he was seated on his throne, that he killed all the household of Baasha; he did not leave him one male, neither of his relatives nor of his friends.

<sup>12</sup>Thus Zimri destroyed all the household of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, <sup>13</sup>for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, by which they had sinned and by which they had made Israel sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

<sup>14</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>15</sup>In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri had reigned in Tirzah seven days. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

<sup>16</sup>Now the people who were encamped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired and also has killed the king." So all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.

<sup>17</sup>Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon, and they besieged Tirzah.

<sup>18</sup>And it happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the citadel of the king's house and burned the king's house down upon himself with fire, and died, <sup>19</sup>because of the sins which he had committed in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he had committed to make Israel sin.

<sup>20</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the treason he committed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>21</sup>Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri.

<sup>22</sup>But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri reigned.

<sup>23</sup>In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel, and reigned twelve years. Six years he reigned in Tirzah.

<sup>24</sup>And he bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; then he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, Samaria, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill.

<sup>25</sup>Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all who were before him.

<sup>26</sup>For he walked in all the ways of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

<sup>27</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and the might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>29</sup>In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

<sup>30</sup>Now Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, more than all who were before him.

<sup>31</sup>And it came to pass, as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Sidonians; and he went and served Baal and worshiped him.

<sup>32</sup>Then he set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

<sup>33</sup>And Ahab made a wooden image. Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

<sup>34</sup>In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho. He laid its foundation with Abiram his firstborn, and with his youngest son Segub he set up its gates, according to the word of the LORD, which He had spoken through Joshua the son of Nun.

17 And Elijah the Tishbite, of the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except at my word."

<sup>4</sup>And it will be that you shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there."

<sup>5</sup>So he went and did according to the word of the LORD, for he went and stayed by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan.

<sup>6</sup>The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

<sup>8</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

<sup>9</sup>"Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. See, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you."

<sup>10</sup>So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, indeed a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, "Please bring me a little water in a cup, that I may drink."

<sup>11</sup>And as she was going to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

<sup>12</sup>So she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I do not have bread, only a handful of flour in a bin, and a little oil in a jar; and see, I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die."

<sup>13</sup>And Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go and do as you have said, but make me a small cake from it first, and bring it to me; and afterward make some for yourself and your son.

<sup>14</sup>For thus says the LORD God of Israel: "The bin of flour shall not be used up, nor shall the jar of oil run dry, until the day the LORD sends rain on the earth."

<sup>15</sup>So she went away and did according to the word of Elijah; and she and he and her household ate for many days.

<sup>16</sup>The bin of flour was not used up, nor did the jar of oil run dry, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by Elijah.

<sup>17</sup>Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. And his sickness was so serious that there was no breath left in him.

<sup>18</sup>So she said to Elijah, "What have I to do with you, O man of God? Have you come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to kill my son?"

<sup>19</sup>And he said to her, "Give me your son." So he took him out of her arms and carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed.

<sup>20</sup>Then he cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, have You also brought tragedy on the widow with whom I lodge, by killing her son?"

<sup>21</sup>And he stretched himself out on the child three times, and cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, I pray, let this child's soul come back to him."

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came back to him, and he revived.

<sup>23</sup>And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, "See, your son lives!"

<sup>24</sup>Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now by this I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is the truth."

18 And it came to pass after many days that the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, "Go, present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the earth."

<sup>2</sup>So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab; and there was a severe famine in Samaria.

<sup>3</sup>And Ahab had called Obadiah, who was in charge of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly.

<sup>4</sup>For so it was, while Jezebel massacred the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah had taken one hundred prophets and hidden them, fifty to a cave, and had fed them with bread and water.)

<sup>5</sup>And Ahab had said to Obadiah, "Go into the land to all the springs of water and to all the brooks; perhaps we may find grass to keep the horses and mules alive, so that we will not have to kill any livestock."

<sup>6</sup>So they divided the land between them to explore it; Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

<sup>7</sup>Now as Obadiah was on his way, suddenly Elijah met him; and he recognized him, and fell on his face, and said, "Is that you, my lord Elijah?"

<sup>8</sup>And he answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your master, "Elijah is here."

<sup>9</sup>So he said, "How have I sinned, that you are delivering your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?"

<sup>10</sup>As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to hunt for you; and when they said, "He is not here," he took an oath from the kingdom or nation that they could not find you.

<sup>12</sup>And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of the LORD will carry you to a place I do not know; so when I go and tell Ahab, and he cannot find you, he will kill me. But I your servant have feared the LORD from my youth.

<sup>13</sup>Was it not reported to my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid one hundred men of the LORD's prophets, fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

<sup>14</sup>And now you say, "Go, tell your master, "Elijah is here." He will kill me!"

<sup>15</sup>Then Elijah said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely present myself to him today."

<sup>16</sup>So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

<sup>17</sup>Then it happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, "Is that you, O troubler of Israel?"

<sup>18</sup>And he answered, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house have, in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and have followed the Baals.

<sup>21</sup>And Elijah came to all the people, and said, "How long will you falter between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if Baal, follow him." But the people answered him not a word.

<sup>22</sup>Then Elijah said to the people, "I alone am left a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

<sup>23</sup>Therefore let them give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it; and I will prepare the other bull, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it.

<sup>24</sup>Then you call on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the God who answers by fire, He is God." So all the people answered and said, "It is well spoken."

<sup>25</sup>Now Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first, for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it."

<sup>26</sup>So they took the bull which was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even till noon, saying, "O Baal, hear us!" But there was no voice; no one answered. Then they leaped about the altar which they had made.

<sup>27</sup>And so it was, at noon, that Elijah mocked them and said, "Cry aloud, for he is a god; either he is meditating, or he is busy, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is sleeping and must be awakened."

<sup>28</sup>So they cried aloud, and cut themselves, as was their custom, with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them.

<sup>29</sup>And when midday was past, they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice. But there was no voice; no one answered, no one paid attention.

<sup>30</sup>Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." So all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

<sup>31</sup>And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, "Israel shall be your name."

<sup>32</sup>Then with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD; and he made a trench around the altar large enough to hold two seahs of seed.

<sup>33</sup>And he put the wood in order, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood, and said, "Fill four waterpots with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice and on the wood."

<sup>34</sup>Then he said, "Do it a second time," and they did it a second time; and he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time.

<sup>35</sup>So the water ran all around the altar; and he also filled the trench with water.

<sup>36</sup>And it came to pass, at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, "LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that You are God in Israel and I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word.

<sup>37</sup>Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that You are the LORD God, and that You have turned their hearts back to You again."

<sup>38</sup>Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood and the stones and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench.

<sup>39</sup>Now when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, "The LORD, He is God! The LORD, He is God!"

<sup>40</sup>And Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal! Do not let one of them escape!" So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the Brook Kishon and executed them there.

<sup>41</sup>Then Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain."

<sup>42</sup>So Ahab went up to eat and drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; then he bowed down on the ground, and put his face between his knees,

<sup>43</sup>and said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." So he went up and looked, and said, "There is nothing." And seven times he said, "Go again."

<sup>44</sup>Then it came to pass the seventh time, that he said, "There is a cloud, as small as a man's hand, rising out of the sea!" So he said, "Go up, say to Ahab,

"Prepare your chariot, and go down before the rain stops you."

<sup>45</sup>Now it happened in the meantime that the sky became black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy rain. So Ahab rode away and went to Jezreel.

<sup>46</sup>Then the hand of the LORD came upon Elijah; and he girded up his loins and ran ahead of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

19

And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, also how he had executed all the prophets with the sword.

<sup>2</sup>Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time."

<sup>3</sup>And when he saw that, he arose and ran for his life, and went to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

<sup>4</sup>But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree. And he prayed that he might die, and said, "It is enough! Now, LORD, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers!"

<sup>5</sup>Then as he lay and slept under a broom tree, suddenly an angel touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat."

<sup>6</sup>Then he looked, and there by his head was a cake baked on coals, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank, and lay down again.

<sup>7</sup>And the angel of the LORD came back the second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you."

<sup>8</sup>So he arose, and ate and drank; and he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights as far as Horeb, the mountain of God.

<sup>9</sup>And there he went into a cave, and spent the night in that place; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

<sup>10</sup>So he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life."

<sup>11</sup>Then He said, "Go out, and stand on the mountain before the LORD." And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake;

<sup>12</sup>and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice.

<sup>13</sup>So it was, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. Suddenly a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

<sup>14</sup>And he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts; because the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life."

<sup>15</sup>Then the LORD said to him: "Go, return on your way to the Wilderness of Damascus; and when you arrive, anoint Hazael as king over Syria.

<sup>16</sup>Also you shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi as king over Israel. And Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah you shall anoint as prophet in your place.

<sup>17</sup>It shall be that whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and whoever escapes the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill.

<sup>18</sup>Yet I have reserved seven thousand in Israel, all whose knees have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

<sup>19</sup>So he departed from there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. Then Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle on him.

<sup>20</sup>And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, "Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." And he said to him, "Go back again, for what have I done to you?"

<sup>21</sup>So Elisha turned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them and boiled their flesh, using the oxen's equipment, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

20 Now Ben-Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his forces together; thirty-two kings were with him, with horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria, and made war against it.

<sup>2</sup>Then he sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, and said to him, "Thus says Ben-Hadad:

<sup>3</sup>"Your silver and your gold are mine; your loveliest wives and children are mine."

<sup>4</sup>And the king of Israel answered and said, "My lord, O king, just as you say, I and all that I have are yours."

<sup>5</sup>Then the messengers came back and said, "Thus speaks Ben-Hadad, saying, 'Indeed I have sent to you, saying, 'You shall deliver to me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children';

<sup>6</sup>but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants. And it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they will put it in their hands and take it.'"

<sup>7</sup>So the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Notice, please, and see how this man seeks trouble, for he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold; and I did not deny him."

<sup>8</sup>And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen or consent."

<sup>9</sup>Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that you sent for to your servant the first time I will do, but this thing I cannot do.'" And the messengers departed and brought back word to him.

<sup>10</sup>Then Ben-Hadad sent to him and said, "The gods do so to me, and more also, if enough dust is left of Samaria for a handful for each of the people who follow me."

<sup>11</sup>So the king of Israel answered and said, "Tell him, 'Let not the one who puts on his armor boast like the one who takes it off.'"

<sup>12</sup>And it happened when Ben-Hadad heard this message, as he and the kings were drinking at the command post, that he said to his servants, "Get ready." And they got ready to attack the city.

<sup>13</sup>Suddenly a prophet approached Ahab king of Israel, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

<sup>14</sup>So Ahab said, "By whom?" And he said, "Thus says the LORD: "By the young leaders of the provinces.'" Then he said, "Who will set the battle in order?" And he answered, "You."

<sup>15</sup>Then he mustered the young leaders of the provinces, and there were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he mustered all the people, all the children of Israel--seven thousand.

<sup>16</sup>So they went out at noon. Meanwhile Ben-Hadad and the thirty-two kings helping him were getting drunk at the command post.

<sup>17</sup>The young leaders of the provinces went out first. And Ben-Hadad sent out a patrol, and they told him, saying, "Men are coming out of Samaria!"

<sup>18</sup>So he said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; and if they have come out for war, take them alive."

<sup>19</sup>Then these young leaders of the provinces went out of the city with the army which followed them.

<sup>21</sup>Then the king of Israel went out and attacked the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.

<sup>22</sup>And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself; take note, and see what you should do, for in the spring of the year the king of Syria will come up against you."

<sup>23</sup>Then the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hills. Therefore they were stronger than we; but if we fight against them in the plain, surely we will be stronger than they.

<sup>24</sup>So do this thing: Dismiss the kings, each from his position, and put captains in their places;

<sup>25</sup>and you shall muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain; surely we will be stronger than they." And he listened to their voice and did so.

<sup>26</sup>So it was, in the spring of the year, that Ben-Hadad mustered the Syrians and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

<sup>27</sup>And the children of Israel were mustered and given provisions, and they went against them. Now the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, while the Syrians filled the countryside.

<sup>28</sup>Then a man of God came and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, "Thus says the LORD: "Because the Syrians have said, "The LORD is God of the hills, but He is not God of the valleys," therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

<sup>29</sup>And they encamped opposite each other for seven days. So it was that on the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed one hundred thousand foot soldiers of the Syrians in one day.

<sup>30</sup>But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; then a wall fell on twenty-seven thousand of the men who were left. And Ben-Hadad fled and went into the city, into an inner chamber.

<sup>31</sup>Then his servants said to him, "Look now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please, let us put sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life."

<sup>32</sup>So they wore sackcloth around their waists and put ropes around their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says, "Please let me live.'" And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

<sup>33</sup>Now the men were watching closely to see whether any sign of mercy would come from him; and they quickly grasped at this word and said, "Your brother Ben-Hadad." So he said, "Go, bring him." Then Ben-Hadad came out to him; and he had him come up into the chariot.

<sup>34</sup>So Ben-Hadad said to him, "The cities which my father took from your father I will restore; and you may set up marketplaces for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria." Then Ahab said, "I will send you away with this treaty." So he made a treaty with him and sent him away.

<sup>35</sup>Now a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor by the word of the LORD, "Strike me, please." And the man refused to strike him.

<sup>36</sup>Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, surely, as soon as you depart from me, a lion shall kill you." And as soon as he left him, a lion found him and killed him.

<sup>37</sup>And he found another man, and said, "Strike me, please." So the man struck him, inflicting a wound.

<sup>38</sup>Then the prophet departed and waited for the king by the road, and disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.

<sup>39</sup>Now as the king passed by, he cried out to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and there, a man came over and brought a man to me, and said, "Guard this man; if by any means he is missing, your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.'

<sup>40</sup>While your servant was busy here and there, he was gone." Then the king of Israel said to him, "So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it."

<sup>41</sup>And he hastened to take the bandage away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.

<sup>42</sup>Then he said to him, "Thus says the LORD: "Because you have let slip out of your hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people."

<sup>43</sup>So the king of Israel went to his house sullen and displeased, and came to Samaria.

21 And it came to pass after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which was in Jezreel, next to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

<sup>2</sup>So Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near, next to my house; and for it I will give you a vineyard better than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money."

<sup>3</sup>But Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you!"

<sup>4</sup>So Ahab went into his house sullen and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no food.

<sup>5</sup>But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so sullen that you eat no food?"

<sup>6</sup>He said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him,

"Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it.' And he answered, "I will not give you my vineyard."

<sup>7</sup>Then Jezebel his wife said to him, "You now exercise authority over Israel! Arise, eat food, and let your heart be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

<sup>9</sup>She wrote in the letters, saying, 4 Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth with high honor among the people;

<sup>10</sup>and seat two men, scoundrels, before him to bear witness against him, saying, You have blasphemed God and the king. Then take him out, and stone him, that he may die.

<sup>11</sup>So the men of his city, the elders and nobles who were inhabitants of his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.

<sup>13</sup>And two men, scoundrels, came in and sat before him; and the scoundrels witnessed against him, against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth has blasphemed God and the king!" Then they took him outside the city and stoned him with stones, so that he died.

<sup>14</sup>Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is dead."

<sup>15</sup>And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

<sup>16</sup>So it was, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab got up and went down to take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

<sup>17</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, <sup>18</sup>"Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who lives in Samaria. There he is, in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it.

<sup>19</sup>You shall speak to him, saying, "Thus says the LORD: "Have you murdered and also taken possession?" And you shall speak to him, saying, "Thus says the LORD: "In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs shall lick your blood, even yours.""

<sup>20</sup>So Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, O my enemy?" And he answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do evil in the sight of the LORD:

<sup>21</sup>"Behold, I will bring calamity on you. I will take away your posterity, and will cut off from Ahab every male in Israel, both bond and free.

<sup>22</sup>I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, because of the provocation with which you have provoked Me to anger, and made Israel sin.'

<sup>24</sup>The dogs shall eat whoever belongs to Ahab and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the field."

<sup>26</sup>And he behaved very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites had done, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

<sup>27</sup>So it was, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes and put sackcloth on his body, and fasted and lay in sackcloth, and went about mourning.

<sup>28</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

<sup>29</sup>"See how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring the calamity in his days. In the days of his son I will bring the calamity on his house."

22 Now three years passed without war between Syria and Israel.

<sup>2</sup> Then it came to pass, in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went down to visit the king of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> And the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, but we hesitate to take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?"

<sup>4</sup> So he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to fight at Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

<sup>5</sup> Also Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire for the word of the LORD today."

<sup>6</sup> Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to fight, or shall I refrain?" So they said, "Go up, for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>7</sup> And Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of Him?"

<sup>8</sup> So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!"

<sup>9</sup> Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imlah quickly!"

<sup>11</sup> Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the LORD: "With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed."

<sup>12</sup> And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."

<sup>13</sup> Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Please, let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement."

<sup>14</sup> And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, whatever the LORD says to me, that I will speak."

<sup>15</sup> Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall we refrain?" And he answered him, "Go and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king!"

<sup>16</sup>So the king said to him, "How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

<sup>17</sup>Then he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, "These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace."

<sup>18</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD said, "Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?" So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.

<sup>21</sup>Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, "I will persuade him."

<sup>22</sup>The LORD said to him, "In what way?" So he said, "I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets." And the LORD said, "You shall persuade him, and also prevail. Go out and do so."

<sup>23</sup>Therefore look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

<sup>24</sup>Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

<sup>25</sup>And Micaiah said, "Indeed, you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!"

<sup>26</sup>So the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;

<sup>27</sup>and say, "Thus says the king: "Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction, until I come in peace."""

<sup>28</sup>But Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

<sup>29</sup>So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>30</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

<sup>31</sup>Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."

<sup>32</sup>So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "Surely it is the king of Israel!"

Therefore they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.

<sup>33</sup>And it happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

<sup>34</sup>Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

<sup>35</sup>The battle increased that day; and the king was propped up in his chariot, facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out from the wound onto the floor of the chariot.

<sup>36</sup>Then, as the sun was going down, a shout went throughout the army, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his own country!"

<sup>37</sup>So the king died, and was brought to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria.

<sup>38</sup>Then someone washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood while the harlots bathed, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken.

<sup>39</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, the ivory house which he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>41</sup>Jehoshaphat the son of Asa had become king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

<sup>42</sup>Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

<sup>43</sup>And he walked in all the ways of his father Asa. He did not turn aside from them, doing what was right in the eyes of the LORD. Nevertheless the high places were not taken away, for the people offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places.

<sup>44</sup>Also Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

<sup>45</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the might that he showed, and how he made war, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>46</sup>And the rest of the perverted persons, who remained in the days of his father Asa, he banished from the land.

<sup>47</sup>There was then no king in Edom, only a deputy of the king.

<sup>48</sup>Jehoshaphat made merchant ships to go to Ophir for gold; but they never sailed, for the ships were wrecked at Ezion Geber.

<sup>49</sup>Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat would not.

<sup>51</sup>Ahaziah the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.

<sup>52</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin;

<sup>53</sup>for he served Baal and worshiped him, and provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

2nd Kings

1 Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

2 Now Ahaziah fell through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria, and was injured; so he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this injury."

3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?'"

4 Now therefore, thus says the LORD: "You shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.'" So Elijah departed.

5 And when the messengers returned to him, he said to them, "Why have you come back?"

6 So they said to him, "A man came up to meet us, and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.''"

7 Then he said to them, "What kind of man was it who came up to meet you and told you these words?"

8 So they answered him, "A hairy man wearing a leather belt around his waist." And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

9 Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. So he went up to him; and there he was, sitting on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him: "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down!'"

10 So Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." And fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

11 Then he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty men. And he answered and said to him: "Man of God, thus has the king said, 'Come down quickly!'"

12 So Elijah answered and said to them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." And the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

13 Again, he sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty men. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and pleaded with him, and said to him: "Man of God, please let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight.

<sup>14</sup>Look, fire has come down from heaven and burned up the first two captains of fifties with their fifties. But let my life now be precious in your sight."

<sup>15</sup>And the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he arose and went down with him to the king.

<sup>16</sup>Then he said to him, "Thus says the LORD: "Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die."

<sup>17</sup>So Ahaziah died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. Because he had no son, Jehoram became king in his place, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

2 And it came to pass, when the LORD was about to take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.

<sup>2</sup>Then Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So they went down to Bethel.

<sup>3</sup>Now the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?" And he said, "Yes, I know; keep silent!"

<sup>4</sup>Then Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to Jericho." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So they came to Jericho.

<sup>5</sup>Now the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?" So he answered, "Yes, I know; keep silent!"

<sup>6</sup>Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to the Jordan." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So the two of them went on.

<sup>7</sup>And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood facing them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan.

<sup>8</sup>Now Elijah took his mantle, rolled it up, and struck the water; and it was divided this way and that, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

<sup>9</sup>And so it was, when they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask! What may I do for you, before I am taken away from you?" Elisha said,

"Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me."

<sup>10</sup>So he said, "You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so."

<sup>11</sup>Then it happened, as they continued on and talked, that suddenly a chariot of fire appeared with horses of fire, and separated the two of them; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

<sup>12</sup>And Elisha saw it, and he cried out, "My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!" So he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces.

<sup>13</sup>He also took up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan.

<sup>14</sup>Then he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, and said, "Where is the LORD God of Elijah?" And when he also had struck the water, it was divided this way and that; and Elisha crossed over.

<sup>15</sup>Now when the sons of the prophets who were from Jericho saw him, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." And they came to meet him, and bowed to the ground before him.

<sup>16</sup>Then they said to him, "Look now, there are fifty strong men with your servants. Please let them go and search for your master, lest perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley." And he said, "You shall not send anyone."

<sup>17</sup>But when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, "Send them!" Therefore they sent fifty men, and they searched for three days but did not find him.

<sup>18</sup>And when they came back to him, for he had stayed in Jericho, he said to them, "Did I not say to you, "Do not go'?"

<sup>19</sup>Then the men of the city said to Elisha, "Please notice, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the ground barren."

<sup>20</sup>And he said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it." So they brought it to him.

<sup>21</sup>Then he went out to the source of the water, and cast in the salt there, and said, "Thus says the LORD: "I have healed this water; from it there shall be no more death or barrenness."

<sup>22</sup>So the water remains healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

<sup>23</sup>Then he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up the road, some youths came from the city and mocked him, and said to him, "Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!"

<sup>24</sup>So he turned around and looked at them, and pronounced a curse on them in the name of the LORD. And two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the youths.

<sup>25</sup>Then he went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

3Now Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

<sup>2</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father and mother; for he put away the sacred pillar of Baal that his father had made.

<sup>3</sup>Nevertheless he persisted in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin; he did not depart from them.

<sup>5</sup>But it happened, when Ahab died, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>So King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel.

<sup>7</sup>Then he went and sent to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?" And he said, "I will go up; I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

<sup>8</sup>Then he said, "Which way shall we go up?" And he answered, "By way of the Wilderness of Edom."

<sup>9</sup>So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom, and they marched on that roundabout route seven days; and there was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them.

<sup>10</sup>And the king of Israel said, "Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

<sup>11</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?" So one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah."

<sup>12</sup>And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

<sup>13</sup>Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother." But the king of Israel said to him, "No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

<sup>14</sup>And Elisha said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you, nor see you."

<sup>15</sup>But now bring me a musician." Then it happened, when the musician played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.

<sup>16</sup>And he said, "Thus says the LORD: "Make this valley full of ditches.'

<sup>17</sup>For thus says the LORD: "You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you, your cattle, and your animals may drink.'

<sup>18</sup>And this is a simple matter in the sight of the LORD; He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand.

<sup>19</sup>Also you shall attack every fortified city and every choice city, and shall cut down every good tree, and stop up every spring of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones."

<sup>20</sup>Now it happened in the morning, when the grain offering was offered, that suddenly water came by way of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

<sup>21</sup>And when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to bear arms and older were gathered; and they stood at the border.

<sup>22</sup>Then they rose up early in the morning, and the sun was shining on the water; and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood.

<sup>23</sup>And they said, "This is blood; the kings have surely struck swords and have killed one another; now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!"

<sup>24</sup>So when they came to the camp of Israel, Israel rose up and attacked the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they entered their land, killing the Moabites.

<sup>25</sup>Then they destroyed the cities, and each man threw a stone on every good piece of land and filled it; and they stopped up all the springs of water and cut down all the good trees. But they left the stones of Kir Haraseth intact. However the slingers surrounded and attacked it.

<sup>26</sup>And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not.

<sup>27</sup>Then he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering upon the wall; and there was great indignation against Israel. So they departed from him and returned to their own land.

4A certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD. And the creditor is coming to take my two sons to be his slaves."

<sup>2</sup>So Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house but a jar of oil."

<sup>3</sup>Then he said, "Go, borrow vessels from everywhere, from all your neighbors--empty vessels; do not gather just a few.

<sup>4</sup>And when you have come in, you shall shut the door behind you and your sons; then pour it into all those vessels, and set aside the full ones."

<sup>5</sup>So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured it out.

<sup>6</sup>Now it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not another vessel." So the oil ceased.

<sup>7</sup>Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest."

<sup>8</sup>Now it happened one day that Elisha went to Shunem, where there was a notable woman, and she persuaded him to eat some food. So it was, as often as he passed by, he would turn in there to eat some food.

<sup>9</sup>And she said to her husband, "Look now, I know that this is a holy man of God, who passes by us regularly.

<sup>10</sup>Please, let us make a small upper room on the wall; and let us put a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand; so it will be, whenever he comes to us, he can turn in there."

<sup>11</sup>And it happened one day that he came there, and he turned in to the upper room and lay down there.

<sup>12</sup>Then he said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite woman." When he had called her, she stood before him.

<sup>13</sup>And he said to him, "Say now to her, "Look, you have been concerned for us with all this care. What can I do for you? Do you want me to speak on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?"" She answered, "I dwell among my own people."

<sup>14</sup>So he said, "What then is to be done for her?" And Gehazi answered, "Actually, she has no son, and her husband is old."

<sup>15</sup>So he said, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood in the doorway.

<sup>16</sup>Then he said, "About this time next year you shall embrace a son." And she said, "No, my lord. Man of God, do not lie to your maidservant!"

<sup>17</sup>But the woman conceived, and bore a son when the appointed time had come, of which Elisha had told her.

<sup>18</sup>And the child grew. Now it happened one day that he went out to his father, to the reapers.

<sup>19</sup>And he said to his father, "My head, my head!" So he said to a servant, "Carry him to his mother."

<sup>20</sup>When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

<sup>21</sup>And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door upon him, and went out.

<sup>22</sup>Then she called to her husband, and said, "Please send me one of the young men and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and come back."

<sup>23</sup>So he said, "Why are you going to him today? It is neither the New Moon nor the Sabbath." And she said, "It is well."

<sup>24</sup>Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, "Drive, and go forward; do not slacken the pace for me unless I tell you."

<sup>25</sup>And so she departed, and went to the man of God at Mount Carmel. So it was, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to his servant Gehazi, "Look, the Shunammite woman!

<sup>26</sup>Please run now to meet her, and say to her, "Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?" And she answered, "It is well."

<sup>27</sup>Now when she came to the man of God at the hill, she caught him by the feet, but Gehazi came near to push her away. But the man of God said, "Let her alone; for her soul is in deep distress, and the LORD has hidden it from me, and has not told me."

<sup>28</sup>So she said, "Did I ask a son of my lord? Did I not say, "Do not deceive me'?"

<sup>29</sup>Then he said to Gehazi, "Get yourself ready, and take my staff in your hand, and be on your way. If you meet anyone, do not greet him; and if anyone greets you, do not answer him; but lay my staff on the face of the child."

<sup>30</sup>And the mother of the child said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." So he arose and followed her.

<sup>31</sup>Now Gehazi went on ahead of them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor hearing. Therefore he went back to meet him, and told him, saying, "The child has not awakened."

<sup>32</sup>When Elisha came into the house, there was the child, lying dead on his bed.

<sup>33</sup>He went in therefore, shut the door behind the two of them, and prayed to the LORD.

<sup>34</sup>And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands; and he stretched himself out on the child, and the flesh of the child became warm.

<sup>35</sup>He returned and walked back and forth in the house, and again went up and stretched himself out on him; then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

<sup>36</sup>And he called Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite woman." So he called her. And when she came in to him, he said, "Pick up your son."

<sup>37</sup>So she went in, fell at his feet, and bowed to the ground; then she picked up her son and went out.

<sup>38</sup>And Elisha returned to Gilgal, and there was a famine in the land. Now the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."

<sup>39</sup>So one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered from it a lapful of wild gourds, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, though they did not know what they were.

<sup>40</sup>Then they served it to the men to eat. Now it happened, as they were eating the stew, that they cried out and said, "Man of God, there is death in the pot!" And they could not eat it.

<sup>41</sup>So he said, "Then bring some flour." And he put it into the pot, and said, "Serve it to the people, that they may eat." And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

<sup>42</sup>Then a man came from Baal Shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley bread, and newly ripened grain in his knapsack. And he said, "Give it to the people, that they may eat."

<sup>43</sup>But his servant said, "What? Shall I set this before one hundred men?" He said again, "Give it to the people, that they may eat; for thus says the LORD: "They shall eat and have some left over."

<sup>44</sup>So he set it before them; and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

5Now Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Syria, was a great and honorable man in the eyes of his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria. He was also a mighty man of valor, but a leper.

<sup>2</sup>And the Syrians had gone out on raids, and had brought back captive a young girl from the land of Israel. She waited on Naaman's wife.

<sup>3</sup>Then she said to her mistress, "If only my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! For he would heal him of his leprosy."

<sup>4</sup>And Naaman went in and told his master, saying, "Thus and thus said the girl who is from the land of Israel."

<sup>5</sup>Then the king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he departed and took with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothing.

<sup>6</sup>Then he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which said, <sup>4</sup> Now be advised, when this letter comes to you, that I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened, when the king of Israel read the letter, that he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and make alive, that this man sends a man to me to heal him of his leprosy? Therefore please consider, and see how he seeks a quarrel with me."

<sup>8</sup>So it was, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Please let him come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

<sup>9</sup>Then Naaman went with his horses and chariot, and he stood at the door of Elisha's house.

<sup>10</sup>And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored to you, and you shall be clean."

<sup>11</sup>But Naaman became furious, and went away and said, "Indeed, I said to myself, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leprosy.'

<sup>12</sup>Are not the Abanah and the Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

<sup>13</sup>And his servants came near and spoke to him, and said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do something great, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean'?"

<sup>14</sup>So he went down and dipped seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

<sup>15</sup>And he returned to the man of God, he and all his aides, and came and stood before him; and he said, "Indeed, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel; now therefore, please take a gift from your servant."

<sup>16</sup>But he said, "As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will receive nothing." And he urged him to take it, but he refused.

<sup>17</sup>So Naaman said, "Then, if not, please let your servant be given two mule-loads of earth; for your servant will no longer offer either burnt offering or sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>Yet in this thing may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the temple of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow down in the temple of Rimmon--when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD please pardon your servant in this thing."

<sup>19</sup>Then he said to him, "Go in peace." So he departed from him a short distance.

<sup>20</sup>But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, "Look, my master has spared Naaman this Syrian, while not receiving from his hands what he brought; but as the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him."

<sup>21</sup>So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw him running after him, he got down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"

<sup>22</sup>And he said, "All is well. My master has sent me, saying, "Indeed, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the mountains of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of garments."

<sup>23</sup>So Naaman said, "Please, take two talents." And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and handed them to two of his servants; and they carried them on ahead of him.

<sup>24</sup>When he came to the citadel, he took them from their hand, and stored them away in the house; then he let the men go, and they departed.

<sup>25</sup>Now he went in and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, "Where did you go, Gehazi?" And he said, "Your servant did not go anywhere."

<sup>26</sup>Then he said to him, "Did not my heart go with you when the man turned back from his chariot to meet you? Is it time to receive money and to receive clothing, olive groves and vineyards, sheep and oxen, male and female servants?

<sup>27</sup>Therefore the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and your descendants forever." And he went out from his presence leprous, as white as snow.

6 And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "See now, the place where we dwell with you is too small for us.

<sup>2</sup>Please, let us go to the Jordan, and let every man take a beam from there, and let us make there a place where we may dwell." So he answered, "Go."

<sup>3</sup>Then one said, "Please consent to go with your servants." And he answered, "I will go."

<sup>4</sup>So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees.

<sup>5</sup>But as one was cutting down a tree, the iron ax head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, "Alas, master! For it was borrowed."

<sup>6</sup>So the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" And he showed him the place. So he cut off a stick, and threw it in there; and he made the iron float.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore he said, "Pick it up for yourself." So he reached out his hand and took it.

<sup>8</sup>Now the king of Syria was making war against Israel; and he consulted with his servants, saying, "My camp will be in such and such a place."

<sup>9</sup>And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down there."

<sup>10</sup>Then the king of Israel sent someone to the place of which the man of God had told him. Thus he warned him, and he was watchful there, not just once or twice.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was greatly troubled by this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel?"

<sup>12</sup>And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."

<sup>13</sup>So he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him." And it was told him, saying, "Surely he is in Dothan."

<sup>14</sup>Therefore he sent horses and chariots and a great army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

<sup>15</sup>And when the servant of the man of God arose early and went out, there was an army, surrounding the city with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?"

<sup>16</sup>So he answered, "Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them."

<sup>17</sup>And Elisha prayed, and said, "LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see." Then the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

<sup>18</sup>So when the Syrians came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Strike this people, I pray, with blindness." And He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

<sup>19</sup>Now Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." But he led them to Samaria.

<sup>20</sup>So it was, when they had come to Samaria, that Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and there they were, inside Samaria!

<sup>21</sup>Now when the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, "My father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?"

<sup>22</sup>But he answered, "You shall not kill them. Would you kill those whom you have taken captive with your sword and your bow? Set food and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master."

<sup>23</sup>Then he prepared a great feast for them; and after they ate and drank, he sent them away and they went to their master. So the bands of Syrian raiders came no more into the land of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>And it happened after this that Ben-Hadad king of Syria gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria.

<sup>25</sup>And there was a great famine in Samaria; and indeed they besieged it until a donkey's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and one-fourth of a kab of dove droppings for five shekels of silver.

<sup>26</sup>Then, as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king!"

<sup>27</sup>And he said, "If the LORD does not help you, where can I find help for you? From the threshing floor or from the winepress?"

<sup>28</sup>Then the king said to her, "What is troubling you?" And she answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'"

<sup>29</sup>So we boiled my son, and ate him. And I said to her on the next day, "Give your son, that we may eat him"; but she has hidden her son."

<sup>30</sup>Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he tore his clothes; and as he passed by on the wall, the people looked, and there underneath he had sackcloth on his body.

<sup>31</sup>Then he said, "God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today!"

<sup>32</sup>But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent someone to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

<sup>33</sup>And while he was still talking with them, there was the messenger, coming down to him; and then the king said, "Surely this calamity is from the LORD; why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

7 Then Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the LORD: 'Tomorrow about this time a seah of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.'"

<sup>2</sup>So an officer on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God and said, "Look, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, could this thing be?" And he said, "In fact, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

<sup>3</sup>Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, "Why are we sitting here until we die?"

<sup>4</sup>If we say, "We will enter the city,' the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. And if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore, come, let us surrender to the army of the Syrians. If they keep us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall only die."

<sup>5</sup>And they rose at twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians; and when they had come to the outskirts of the Syrian camp, to their surprise no one was there.

<sup>6</sup>For the LORD had caused the army of the Syrians to hear the noise of chariots and the noise of horses--the noise of a great army; so they said to one another, "Look, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to attack us!"

<sup>8</sup>And when these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they went into one tent and ate and drank, and carried from it silver and gold and clothing, and went and hid them; then they came back and entered another tent, and carried some from there also, and went and hid it.

<sup>9</sup>Then they said to one another, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we remain silent. If we wait until morning light, some punishment will come upon us. Now therefore, come, let us go and tell the king's household."

<sup>10</sup>So they went and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and told them, saying, "We went to the Syrian camp, and surprisingly no one was there, not a human sound--only horses and donkeys tied, and the tents intact."

<sup>11</sup>And the gatekeepers called out, and they told it to the king's household inside.

<sup>12</sup>So the king arose in the night and said to his servants, "Let me now tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, "When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.""

<sup>14</sup>Therefore they took two chariots with horses; and the king sent them in the direction of the Syrian army, saying, "Go and see."

<sup>15</sup>And they went after them to the Jordan; and indeed all the road was full of garments and weapons which the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. So the messengers returned and told the king.

<sup>16</sup>Then the people went out and plundered the tents of the Syrians. So a seah of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>Now the king had appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate. But the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, just as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him.

<sup>18</sup>So it happened just as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Two seahs of barley for a shekel, and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, shall be sold tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria."

<sup>19</sup>Then that officer had answered the man of God, and said, "Now look, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?" And he had said, "In fact, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

<sup>20</sup>And so it happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

8 Then Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise and go, you and your household, and stay wherever you can; for the LORD has called for a famine, and furthermore, it will come upon the land for seven years."

<sup>2</sup>So the woman arose and did according to the saying of the man of God, and she went with her household and dwelt in the land of the Philistines seven years.

<sup>3</sup>It came to pass, at the end of seven years, that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went to make an appeal to the king for her house and for her land.

<sup>4</sup>Then the king talked with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me, please, all the great things Elisha has done."

<sup>5</sup>Now it happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored the dead to life, that there was the woman whose son he had restored to life, appealing to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life."

<sup>6</sup>And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed a certain officer for her, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the proceeds of the field from the day that she left the land until now."

<sup>7</sup>Then Elisha went to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, "The man of God has come here."

<sup>8</sup>And the king said to Hazael, "Take a present in your hand, and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, 'Shall I recover from this disease?'"

<sup>9</sup>So Hazael went to meet him and took a present with him, of every good thing of Damascus, forty camel-loads; and he came and stood before him, and said, "Your son Ben-Hadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, 'Shall I recover from this disease?'"

<sup>10</sup>And Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You shall certainly recover.' However the LORD has shown me that he will really die."

<sup>11</sup>Then he set his countenance in a stare until he was ashamed; and the man of God wept.

<sup>12</sup>And Hazael said, "Why is my lord weeping?" He answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel: Their strongholds you will set on fire, and their young men you will kill with the sword; and you will dash their children, and rip open their women with child."

<sup>13</sup>So Hazael said, "But what is your servant--a dog, that he should do this gross thing?" And Elisha answered, "The LORD has shown me that you will become king over Syria."

<sup>14</sup>Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he answered, "He told me you would surely recover."

<sup>15</sup>But it happened on the next day that he took a thick cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it over his face so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his place.

<sup>16</sup>Now in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoshaphat having been king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat began to reign as king of Judah.

<sup>17</sup>He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup>And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>So Joram went to Zair, and all his chariots with him. Then he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots; and the troops fled to their tents.

<sup>22</sup>Thus Edom has been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. And Libnah revolted at that time.

<sup>26</sup>Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri, king of Israel.

<sup>27</sup>And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab, for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

<sup>28</sup>Now he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

<sup>29</sup>Then King Joram went back to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

9 And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, "Get yourself ready, take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>2</sup>Now when you arrive at that place, look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, and go in and make him rise up from among his associates, and take him to an inner room.

<sup>3</sup>Then take the flask of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, "Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you king over Israel.'" Then open the door and flee, and do not delay."

<sup>4</sup>So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>5</sup>And when he arrived, there were the captains of the army sitting; and he said, "I have a message for you, Commander." Jehu said, "For which one of us?" And he said, "For you, Commander."

<sup>6</sup>Then he arose and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.

<sup>7</sup>You shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.

<sup>8</sup>For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab all the males in Israel, both bond and free.

<sup>9</sup>So I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

<sup>10</sup>The dogs shall eat Jezebel on the plot of ground at Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.'" And he opened the door and fled.

<sup>11</sup>Then Jehu came out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did this madman come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the man and his babble."

<sup>12</sup>And they said, "A lie! Tell us now." So he said, "Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, "Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you king over Israel.'"

<sup>13</sup>Then each man hastened to take his garment and put it under him on the top of the steps; and they blew trumpets, saying, "Jehu is king!"

<sup>14</sup>So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had been defending Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, against Hazael king of Syria.

<sup>15</sup>But King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, "If you are so minded, let no one leave or escape from the city to go and tell it in Jezreel."

<sup>16</sup>So Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was laid up there; and Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

<sup>17</sup>Now a watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company of men." And Joram said, "Get a horseman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

<sup>18</sup>So the horseman went to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me." So the watchman reported, saying, "The messenger went to them, but is not coming back."

<sup>19</sup>Then he sent out a second horseman who came to them, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu answered, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me."

<sup>20</sup>So the watchman reported, saying, "He went up to them and is not coming back; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously!"

<sup>21</sup>Then Joram said, "Make ready." And his chariot was made ready. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot; and they went out to meet Jehu, and met him on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

<sup>22</sup>Now it happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" So he answered, "What peace, as long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft are so many?"

<sup>23</sup>Then Joram turned around and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "Treachery, Ahaziah!"

<sup>24</sup>Now Jehu drew his bow with full strength and shot Jehoram between his arms; and the arrow came out at his heart, and he sank down in his chariot.

<sup>25</sup>Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, "Pick him up, and throw him into the tract of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember, when you and I were riding together behind Ahab his father, that the LORD laid this burden upon him:

<sup>26</sup>"Surely I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,' says the LORD, 'and I will repay you in this plot,' says the LORD. Now therefore, take and throw him on the plot of ground, according to the word of the LORD."

<sup>27</sup>But when Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, he fled by the road to Beth Haggan. So Jehu pursued him, and said, "Shoot him also in the chariot." And they shot him at the Ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. Then he fled to Megiddo, and died there.

<sup>28</sup>And his servants carried him in the chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David.

<sup>29</sup>In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king over Judah.

<sup>30</sup>Now when Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she put paint on her eyes and adorned her head, and looked through a window.

<sup>31</sup>Then, as Jehu entered at the gate, she said, "Is it peace, Zimri, murderer of your master?"

<sup>32</sup>And he looked up at the window, and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" So two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

<sup>33</sup>Then he said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses; and he trampled her underfoot.

<sup>34</sup>And when he had gone in, he ate and drank. Then he said, "Go now, see to this accursed woman, and bury her, for she was a king's daughter."

<sup>35</sup>So they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.

<sup>36</sup>Therefore they came back and told him. And he said, "This is the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, "On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;

<sup>37</sup>and the corpse of Jezebel shall be as refuse on the surface of the field, in the plot at Jezreel, so that they shall not say, "Here lies Jezebel."""

10 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote and sent letters to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to those who reared Ahab's sons, saying:

<sup>2</sup>Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and weapons,

<sup>3</sup>choose the best qualified of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

<sup>4</sup>But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Look, two kings could not stand up to him; how then can we stand?"

<sup>5</sup>And he who was in charge of the house, and he who was in charge of the city, the elders also, and those who reared the sons, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, we will do all you tell us; but we will not make anyone king. Do what is good in your sight."

<sup>6</sup>Then he wrote a second letter to them, saying: <sup>4</sup>If you are for me and will obey my voice, take the heads of the men, your master's sons, and come to me at Jezreel by this time tomorrow. Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were rearing them.

<sup>7</sup>So it was, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons and slaughtered seventy persons, put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.

<sup>8</sup>Then a messenger came and told him, saying, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons." And he said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."

<sup>9</sup>So it was, in the morning, that he went out and stood, and said to all the people, "You are righteous. Indeed I conspired against my master and killed him; but who killed all these?"

<sup>10</sup>Know now that nothing shall fall to the earth of the word of the LORD which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab; for the LORD has done what He spoke by His servant Elijah."

<sup>11</sup>So Jehu killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men and his close acquaintances and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

<sup>12</sup>And he arose and departed and went to Samaria. On the way, at Beth Eked of the Shepherds, <sup>13</sup>Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, "Who are you?" So they answered, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah; we have come down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."

<sup>14</sup>And he said, "Take them alive!" So they took them alive, and killed them at the well of Beth Eked, forty-two men; and he left none of them.

<sup>15</sup>Now when he departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab, coming to meet him; and he greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is toward your heart?" And Jehonadab answered, "It is." Jehu said, "If it is, give me your hand." So he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot.

<sup>16</sup>Then he said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So they had him ride in his chariot.

<sup>17</sup>And when he came to Samaria, he killed all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to Elijah.

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little, Jehu will serve him much.

<sup>19</sup>Now therefore, call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests. Let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal. Whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu acted deceptively, with the intent of destroying the worshipers of Baal.

<sup>20</sup>And Jehu said, "Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal." So they proclaimed it.

<sup>21</sup>Then Jehu sent throughout all Israel; and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. So they came into the temple of Baal, and the temple of Baal was full from one end to the other.

<sup>22</sup>And he said to the one in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out vestments for all the worshipers of Baal." So he brought out vestments for them.

<sup>23</sup>Then Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab went into the temple of Baal, and said to the worshipers of Baal, "Search and see that no servants of the LORD are here with you, but only the worshipers of Baal."

<sup>24</sup>So they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed for himself eighty men on the outside, and had said, "If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escapes, whoever lets him escape, it shall be his life for the life of the other."

<sup>25</sup>Now it happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in and kill them; let no one come out!" And they killed them with the edge of the sword; then the guards and the officers threw them out, and went into the inner room of the temple of Baal.

<sup>27</sup>Then they broke down the sacred pillar of Baal, and tore down the temple of Baal and made it a refuse dump to this day.

<sup>29</sup>However Jehu did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin, that is, from the golden calves that were at Bethel and Dan.

<sup>30</sup>And the LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in doing what is right in My sight, and have done to the house of Ahab all that was in My heart, your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."

<sup>31</sup>But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart; for he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam, who had made Israel sin.

<sup>34</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>35</sup>So Jehu rested with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Then Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place.

<sup>36</sup>And the period that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

11 When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs.

<sup>2</sup>But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered; and they hid him and his nurse in the bedroom, from Athaliah, so that he was not killed.

<sup>3</sup>So he was hidden with her in the house of the LORD for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

<sup>4</sup>In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of hundreds--of the bodyguards and the escorts--and brought them into the house of the LORD to him. And he made a covenant with them and took an oath from them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son.

<sup>5</sup>Then he commanded them, saying, "This is what you shall do: One-third of you who come on duty on the Sabbath shall be keeping watch over the king's house, <sup>6</sup>one-third shall be at the gate of Sur, and one-third at the gate behind the escorts. You shall keep the watch of the house, lest it be broken down.

<sup>7</sup>The two contingents of you who go off duty on the Sabbath shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD for the king.

<sup>8</sup>But you shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes within range, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king as he goes out and as he comes in."

<sup>9</sup>So the captains of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each of them took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

<sup>10</sup>And the priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears and shields which had belonged to King David, that were in the temple of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>And he brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, and gave him the Testimony; they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, "Long live the king!"

<sup>13</sup>Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the escorts and the people, she came to the people in the temple of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>When she looked, there was the king standing by a pillar according to custom; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. So Athaliah tore her clothes and cried out, "Treason! Treason!"

<sup>15</sup>And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the army, and said to them, "Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the priest had said, "Do not let her be killed in the house of the LORD."

<sup>16</sup>So they seized her; and she went by way of the horses' entrance into the king's house, and there she was killed.

<sup>17</sup>Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people, that they should be the LORD's people, and also between the king and the people.

<sup>18</sup>And all the people of the land went to the temple of Baal, and tore it down. They thoroughly broke in pieces its altars and images, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>Then he took the captains of hundreds, the bodyguards, the escorts, and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and went by way of the gate of the escorts to the king's house. Then he sat on the throne of the kings.

<sup>20</sup>So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword in the king's house.

<sup>21</sup>Jehoash was seven years old when he became king.

12In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

<sup>3</sup>But the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

<sup>4</sup>And Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the dedicated gifts that are brought into the house of the LORD--each man's census money, each man's assessment money --and all the money that a man purposes in his heart to bring into the house of the LORD, <sup>5</sup>let the priests take it themselves, each from his constituency; and let them repair the damages of the temple, wherever any dilapidation is found."

<sup>6</sup>Now it was so, by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, that the priests had not repaired the damages of the temple.

<sup>7</sup>So King Jehoash called Jehoiada the priest and the other priests, and said to them, "Why have you not repaired the damages of the temple? Now therefore, do not take more money from your constituency, but deliver it for repairing the damages of the temple."

<sup>8</sup>And the priests agreed that they would neither receive more money from the people, nor repair the damages of the temple.

<sup>9</sup>Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who kept the door put there all the money brought into the house of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>So it was, whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up and put it in bags, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>Then they gave the money, which had been apportioned, into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on the house of the LORD,

<sup>12</sup>and to masons and stonecutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone, to repair the damage of the house of the LORD, and for all that was paid out to repair the temple.

<sup>13</sup>However there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, trimmers, sprinkling-bowls, trumpets, any articles of gold or articles of silver, from the money brought into the house of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>But they gave that to the workmen, and they repaired the house of the LORD with it.

<sup>15</sup>Moreover they did not require an account from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to be paid to workmen, for they dealt faithfully.

<sup>17</sup>Hazael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and took it; then Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup>And Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred things that his fathers, Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own sacred things, and all the gold found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and in the king's house, and sent them to Hazael king of Syria. Then he went away from Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>20</sup>And his servants arose and formed a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of the Millo, which goes down to Silla.

<sup>21</sup>For Jozachar the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him. So he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.

<sup>2</sup> And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. He did not depart from them.

<sup>3</sup> Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael, all their days.

<sup>4</sup> So Jehoahaz pleaded with the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for He saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as before.

<sup>6</sup> Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who had made Israel sin, but walked in them; and the wooden image also remained in Samaria.

<sup>8</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>9</sup> So Jehoahaz rested with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Then Joash his son reigned in his place.

<sup>10</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

<sup>11</sup> And he did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, but walked in them.

<sup>12</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Joash, all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>13</sup> So Joash rested with his fathers. Then Jeroboam sat on his throne. And Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

<sup>14</sup> Elisha had become sick with the illness of which he would die. Then Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over his face, and said, "O my father, my father, the chariots of Israel and their horsemen!"

<sup>15</sup> And Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and some arrows." So he took himself a bow and some arrows.

<sup>16</sup> Then he said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow." So he put his hand on it, and Elisha put his hands on the king's hands.

<sup>17</sup>And he said, "Open the east window"; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot"; and he shot. And he said, "The arrow of the LORD's deliverance and the arrow of deliverance from Syria; for you must strike the Syrians at Aphek till you have destroyed them."

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, "Take the arrows"; so he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground"; so he struck three times, and stopped.

<sup>19</sup>And the man of God was angry with him, and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck Syria till you had destroyed it! But now you will strike Syria only three times."

<sup>20</sup>Then Elisha died, and they buried him. And the raiding bands from Moab invaded the land in the spring of the year.

<sup>21</sup>So it was, as they were burying a man, that suddenly they spied a band of raiders; and they put the man in the tomb of Elisha; and when the man was let down and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and stood on his feet.

<sup>25</sup>And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz recaptured from the hand of Ben-Hadad, the son of Hazael, the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times Joash defeated him and recaptured the cities of Israel.

14In the second year of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, became king.

<sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like his father David; he did everything as his father Joash had done.

<sup>4</sup>However the high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

<sup>5</sup>Now it happened, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king.

<sup>6</sup>But the children of the murderers he did not execute, according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, in which the LORD commanded, saying, "Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall children be put to death for their fathers; but a person shall be put to death for his own sin."

<sup>7</sup>He killed ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt, and took Sela by war, and called its name Joktheel to this day.

<sup>8</sup>Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one another in battle."

<sup>9</sup>And Jehoash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife'; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.

<sup>10</sup>You have indeed defeated Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Glory in that, and stay at home; for why should you meddle with trouble so that you fall--you and Judah with you?"

<sup>11</sup>But Amaziah would not heed. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went out; so he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

<sup>12</sup>And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent.

<sup>13</sup>Then Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh; and he went to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate--four hundred cubits.

<sup>14</sup>And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

<sup>15</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did--his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah--are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>16</sup>So Jehoash rested with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. Then Jeroboam his son reigned in his place.

<sup>17</sup>Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>19</sup>And they formed a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

<sup>20</sup>Then they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the City of David.

<sup>23</sup>In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, became king in Samaria, and reigned forty-one years.

<sup>24</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

<sup>25</sup>He restored the territory of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which He had spoken through His servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet who was from Gath Hepher.

<sup>26</sup>For the LORD saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter; and whether bond or free, there was no helper for Israel.

<sup>27</sup>And the LORD did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven; but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

<sup>28</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did--his might, how he made war, and how he recaptured for Israel, from Damascus and Hamath, what had belonged to Judah--are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>29</sup>So Jeroboam rested with his fathers, the kings of Israel. Then Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

15In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah the son of Amaziah, king of Judah, became king.

<sup>2</sup>He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done, <sup>4</sup>except that the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD struck the king, so that he was a leper until the day of his death; so he dwelt in an isolated house. And Jotham the king's son was over the royal house, judging the people of the land.

<sup>6</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>8</sup>In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months.

<sup>9</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

<sup>10</sup>Then Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck and killed him in front of the people; and he reigned in his place.

<sup>11</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

<sup>12</sup>This was the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation." And so it was.

<sup>13</sup>Shallum the son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria.

<sup>14</sup>For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria and killed him; and he reigned in his place.

<sup>15</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he led, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

<sup>16</sup>Then from Tirzah, Menahem attacked Tiphsah, all who were there, and its territory. Because they did not surrender, therefore he attacked it. All the women there who were with child he ripped open.

<sup>17</sup>In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi became king over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

<sup>18</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

<sup>19</sup>Pul king of Assyria came against the land; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to strengthen the kingdom under his control.

<sup>20</sup>And Menahem exacted the money from Israel, from all the very wealthy, from each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and did not stay there in the land.

<sup>21</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>23</sup>In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.

<sup>24</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

<sup>25</sup>Then Pekah the son of Remaliah, an officer of his, conspired against him and killed him in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's house, along with Argob and Arieah; and with him were fifty men of Gilead. He killed him and reigned in his place.

<sup>26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

<sup>27</sup>In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

<sup>28</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.

<sup>29</sup>In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maachah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria.

<sup>30</sup>Then Hoshea the son of Elah led a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck and killed him; so he reigned in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

<sup>31</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, began to reign.

<sup>33</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.

<sup>34</sup>And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

<sup>35</sup>However the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>37</sup>In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah.

<sup>38</sup>So Jotham rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, began to reign.

<sup>2</sup>Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father David had done.

<sup>3</sup>But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel; indeed he made his son pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

<sup>5</sup>Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to make war; and they besieged Ahaz but could not overcome him.

<sup>6</sup>At that time Rezin king of Syria captured Elath for Syria, and drove the men of Judah from Elath. Then the Edomites went to Elath, and dwell there to this day.

<sup>7</sup>So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me."

<sup>8</sup>And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king's house, and sent it as a present to the king of Assyria.

<sup>9</sup>So the king of Assyria heeded him; for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus and took it, carried its people captive to Kir, and killed Rezin.

<sup>10</sup>Now King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the design of the altar and its pattern, according to all its workmanship.

<sup>11</sup>Then Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus. So Urijah the priest made it before King Ahaz came back from Damascus.

<sup>12</sup>And when the king came back from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and the king approached the altar and made offerings on it.

<sup>13</sup>So he burned his burnt offering and his grain offering; and he poured his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.

<sup>14</sup>He also brought the bronze altar which was before the LORD, from the front of the temple--from between the new altar and the house of the LORD--and put it on the north side of the new altar.

<sup>15</sup>Then King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "On the great new altar burn the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, the king's burnt sacrifice, and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. And the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by."

<sup>17</sup>And King Ahaz cut off the panels of the carts, and removed the lavers from them; and he took down the Sea from the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stones.

<sup>18</sup>Also he removed the Sabbath pavilion which they had built in the temple, and he removed the king's outer entrance from the house of the LORD, on account of the king of Assyria.

17

In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years.

<sup>2</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel who were before him.

<sup>3</sup>Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him; and Hoshea became his vassal, and paid him tribute money.

<sup>4</sup>And the king of Assyria uncovered a conspiracy by Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and brought no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

<sup>5</sup>Now the king of Assyria went throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years.

<sup>6</sup>In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah and by the Habor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

<sup>7</sup>For so it was that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and they had feared other gods, <sup>8</sup>and had walked in the statutes of the nations whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

<sup>10</sup>They set up for themselves sacred pillars and wooden images on every high hill and under every green tree.

<sup>11</sup>There they burned incense on all the high places, like the nations whom the LORD had carried away before them; and they did wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger,

<sup>12</sup>for they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, "You shall not do this thing."

<sup>13</sup>Yet the LORD testified against Israel and against Judah, by all of His prophets, every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways, and keep My commandments and My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants the prophets."

<sup>14</sup>Nevertheless they would not hear, but stiffened their necks, like the necks of their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God.

<sup>15</sup>And they rejected His statutes and His covenant that He had made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He had testified against them; they followed idols, became idolaters, and went after the nations who were all around them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them that they should not do like them.

<sup>17</sup>And they caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire, practiced witchcraft and soothsaying, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them from His sight; there was none left but the tribe of Judah alone.

<sup>19</sup>Also Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until He had cast them from His sight.

<sup>21</sup>For He tore Israel from the house of David, and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them commit a great sin.

<sup>22</sup>For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them, <sup>23</sup>until the LORD removed Israel out of His sight, as He had said by all His servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away from their own land to Assyria, as it is to this day.

<sup>24</sup>Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Ava, Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they took possession of Samaria and dwelt in its cities.

<sup>25</sup>And it was so, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

<sup>26</sup>So they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations whom you have removed and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the rituals of the God of the land; therefore He has sent lions among them, and indeed, they are killing them because they do not know the rituals of the God of the land."

<sup>27</sup>Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Send there one of the priests whom you brought from there; let him go and dwell there, and let him teach them the rituals of the God of the land."

<sup>28</sup>Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>However every nation continued to make gods of its own, and put them in the shrines on the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in the cities where they dwelt.

<sup>31</sup>and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burned their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

<sup>32</sup>So they feared the LORD, and from every class they appointed for themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the shrines of the high places.

<sup>33</sup>They feared the LORD, yet served their own gods--according to the rituals of the nations from among whom they were carried away.

<sup>34</sup>To this day they continue practicing the former rituals; they do not fear the LORD, nor do they follow their statutes or their ordinances, or the law and commandment which the LORD had commanded the children of Jacob, whom He named Israel,

<sup>35</sup>with whom the LORD had made a covenant and charged them, saying: "You shall not fear other gods, nor bow down to them nor serve them nor sacrifice to them;

<sup>36</sup>but the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm, Him you shall fear, Him you shall worship, and to Him you shall offer sacrifice.

<sup>37</sup>And the statutes, the ordinances, the law, and the commandment which He wrote for you, you shall be careful to observe forever; you shall not fear other gods.

<sup>38</sup>And the covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget, nor shall you fear other gods.

<sup>39</sup>But the LORD your God you shall fear; and He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies."

<sup>40</sup>However they did not obey, but they followed their former rituals.

18 Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, began to reign.

<sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>3</sup>And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

<sup>4</sup>He removed the high places and broke the sacred pillars, cut down the wooden image and broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made; for until those days the children of Israel burned incense to it, and called it Nehushtan.

<sup>5</sup>He trusted in the LORD God of Israel, so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor who were before him.

<sup>6</sup>For he held fast to the LORD; he did not depart from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD was with him; he prospered wherever he went. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.

<sup>8</sup>He subdued the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.

<sup>9</sup>Now it came to pass in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it.

<sup>10</sup>And at the end of three years they took it. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is, the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken.

<sup>11</sup>Then the king of Assyria carried Israel away captive to Assyria, and put them in Halah and by the Habor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, <sup>12</sup>because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed His covenant and all that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded; and they would neither hear nor do them.

<sup>13</sup>And in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them.

<sup>14</sup>Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have done wrong; turn away from me; whatever you impose on me I will pay." And the king of Assyria assessed Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

<sup>15</sup>So Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house.

<sup>16</sup>At that time Hezekiah stripped the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

<sup>17</sup>Then the king of Assyria sent the Tartan, the Rabсарis, and the Rabshakeh from Lachish, with a great army against Jerusalem, to King Hezekiah. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. When they had come up, they went and stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool, which was on the highway to the Fuller's Field.

<sup>18</sup>And when they had called to the king, Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.

<sup>19</sup>Then the Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, "Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: "What confidence is this in which you trust?"

<sup>20</sup>You speak of having plans and power for war; but they are mere words. And in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me?

<sup>21</sup>Now look! You are trusting in the staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.

<sup>22</sup>But if you say to me, "We trust in the LORD our God," is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, "You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem'?"

<sup>23</sup>Now therefore, I urge you, give a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses--if you are able on your part to put riders on them!

<sup>24</sup>How then will you repel one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

<sup>25</sup>Have I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, "Go up against this land, and destroy it."

<sup>26</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

<sup>27</sup>But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat and drink their own waste with you?"

<sup>28</sup>Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Hebrew, and spoke, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

<sup>29</sup>Thus says the king: "Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he shall not be able to deliver you from his hand;

<sup>30</sup>nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us; this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."

<sup>31</sup>Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: "Make peace with me by a present and come out to me; and every one of you eat from his own vine and every one from his own fig tree, and every one of you drink the waters of his own cistern;

<sup>32</sup>until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive groves and honey, that you may live and not die. But do not listen to Hezekiah, lest he persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us."

<sup>33</sup>Has any of the gods of the nations at all delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

<sup>34</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim and Hena and Ivah? Indeed, have they delivered Samaria from my hand?

<sup>35</sup>Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their countries from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"

<sup>36</sup>But the people held their peace and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."

<sup>37</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

19 And so it was, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

<sup>3</sup>And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: "This day is a day of trouble, and rebuke, and blasphemy; for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth.

<sup>4</sup>It may be that the LORD your God will hear all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left."

<sup>6</sup>And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, "Thus says the LORD: "Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.

<sup>7</sup>Surely I will send a spirit upon him, and he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."'''

<sup>8</sup>Then the Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he heard that he had departed from Lachish.

<sup>9</sup>And the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Look, he has come out to make war with you." So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

<sup>10</sup>"Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: "Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."

<sup>11</sup>Look! You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered?

<sup>12</sup>Have the gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

<sup>13</sup>Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?"

<sup>14</sup>And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Then Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said: "O LORD God of Israel, the One who dwells between the cherubim, You are God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup>Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God.

<sup>17</sup>Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, <sup>18</sup>and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were not gods, but the work of men's hands--wood and stone. Therefore they destroyed them.

<sup>19</sup>Now therefore, O LORD our God, I pray, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD God, You alone."

<sup>20</sup>Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard.'

<sup>21</sup>This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him: "The virgin, the daughter of Zion, Has despised you, laughed you to scorn; The daughter of Jerusalem Has shaken her head behind your back!

<sup>22</sup>"Whom have you reproached and blasphemed? Against whom have you raised your voice, And lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>By your messengers you have reproached the Lord, And said: "By the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, To the limits of Lebanon; I will cut down its tall cedars And its choice cypress trees; I will enter the extremity of its borders, To its fruitful forest.

<sup>24</sup>I have dug and drunk strange water,
And with the soles of my feet I have dried up All the brooks of defense."

<sup>25</sup>"Did you not hear long ago How I made it, From ancient times that I formed it? Now I have brought it to pass,
That you should be For crushing fortified cities into heaps of ruins.

<sup>26</sup>Therefore their inhabitants had little power; They were dismayed and confounded; They were as the grass of the field And the green herb, As the grass on the housetops And grain blighted before it is grown.

<sup>27</sup>"But I know your dwelling place, Your going out and your coming in, And your rage against Me.

<sup>28</sup>Because your rage against Me and your tumult Have come up to My ears, Therefore I will put My hook in your nose And My bridle in your lips, And I will turn you back By the way which you came.

<sup>29</sup>"This shall be a sign to you: You shall eat this year such as grows of itself, And in the second year what springs from the same; Also in the third year sow and reap, Plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them.

<sup>30</sup>And the remnant who have escaped of the house of Judah Shall again take root downward, And bear fruit upward.

<sup>31</sup>For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant, And those who escape from Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.'

<sup>32</sup>"Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: "He shall not come into this city, Nor shoot an arrow there, Nor come before it with shield, Nor build a siege mound against it.

<sup>33</sup>By the way that he came, By the same shall he return; And he shall not come into this city,' Says the LORD.

<sup>34</sup>"For I will defend this city, to save it
For My own sake and for My servant
David's sake."

<sup>35</sup>And it came to pass on a certain night that the angel of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people arose early in the morning, there were the corpses--all dead.

<sup>36</sup>So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home, and remained at Nineveh.

<sup>37</sup>Now it came to pass, as he was worshiping in the temple of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

20 In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: "Set your house in order, for you shall die, and not live."

<sup>2</sup>Then he turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying, <sup>3</sup>"Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before You in truth and with a loyal heart, and have done what was good in Your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

<sup>4</sup>And it happened, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying, <sup>5</sup>"Return and tell Hezekiah the leader of My people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: "I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; surely I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>And I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for My own sake, and for the sake of My servant David.""

<sup>7</sup>Then Isaiah said, "Take a lump of figs." So they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

<sup>8</sup>And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What is the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?"

<sup>9</sup>Then Isaiah said, "This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing which He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees or go backward ten degrees?"

<sup>10</sup>And Hezekiah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees; no, but let the shadow go backward ten degrees."

<sup>11</sup>So Isaiah the prophet cried out to the LORD, and He brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz.

<sup>12</sup>At that time Berodach-Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

<sup>13</sup>And Hezekiah was attentive to them, and showed them all the house of his treasures--the silver and gold, the spices and precious ointment, and all his armory--all that was found among his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

<sup>14</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" So Hezekiah said, "They came from a far country, from Babylon."

<sup>15</sup>And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" So Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

<sup>16</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD:

<sup>17</sup>"Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and what your fathers have accumulated until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,' says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>"And they shall take away some of your sons who will descend from you, whom you will beget; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

<sup>19</sup>So Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good!" For he said, "Will there not be peace and truth at least in my days?"

<sup>20</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah--all his might, and how he made a pool and a tunnel and brought water into the city--are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah.

<sup>2</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; he raised up altars for Baal, and made a wooden image, as Ahab king of Israel had done; and he worshiped all the host of heaven and served them.

<sup>4</sup>He also built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put My name."

<sup>5</sup>And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Also he made his son pass through the fire, practiced soothsaying, used witchcraft, and consulted spiritists and mediums. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

<sup>7</sup>He even set a carved image of Asherah that he had made, in the house of which the LORD had said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

<sup>8</sup>and I will not make the feet of Israel wander anymore from the land which I gave their fathers--only if they are careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them."

<sup>9</sup>But they paid no attention, and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD spoke by His servants the prophets, saying, <sup>11</sup>"Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations (he has acted more wickedly than all the Amorites who were before him, and has also made Judah sin with his idols), <sup>12</sup>therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Behold, I am bringing such calamity upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle.

<sup>13</sup>And I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab; I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

<sup>14</sup>So I will forsake the remnant of My inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become victims of plunder to all their enemies,

<sup>15</sup>because they have done evil in My sight, and have provoked Me to anger since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day."

<sup>16</sup>Moreover Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides his sin by which he made Judah sin, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh--all that he did, and the sin that he committed--are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>19</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

<sup>20</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done.

<sup>21</sup>So he walked in all the ways that his father had walked; and he served the idols that his father had served, and worshiped them.

<sup>22</sup>He forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>Then the servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the king in his own house.

<sup>24</sup>But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

<sup>26</sup>And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. Then Josiah his son reigned in his place.

22 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.

<sup>3</sup>Now it came to pass, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the scribe, the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the house of the LORD, saying:

<sup>4</sup>"Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may count the money which has been brought into the house of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have gathered from the people.

<sup>5</sup>And let them deliver it into the hand of those doing the work, who are the overseers in the house of the LORD; let them give it to those who are in the house of the LORD doing the work, to repair the damages of the house--

<sup>6</sup>to carpenters and builders and masons--and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

<sup>7</sup>However there need be no accounting made with them of the money delivered into their hand, because they deal faithfully."

<sup>8</sup>Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

<sup>9</sup>So Shaphan the scribe went to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "Your servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of those who do the work, who oversee the house of the LORD."

<sup>10</sup>Then Shaphan the scribe showed the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

<sup>11</sup>Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, that he tore his clothes.

<sup>12</sup>Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Achbor the son of Michaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,

<sup>13</sup>"Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is aroused against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us."

<sup>14</sup>So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke with her.

<sup>15</sup>Then she said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, "Tell the man who sent you to Me,

<sup>16</sup>"Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants--all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read--

<sup>17</sup>because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath shall be aroused against this place and shall not be quenched.'"

<sup>18</sup>But as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard--

<sup>19</sup>because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become a desolation and a curse, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you," says the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>Surely, therefore, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the calamity which I will bring on this place.'"" So they brought back word to the king.

23 Now the king sent them to gather all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to him.

<sup>2</sup>The king went up to the house of the LORD with all the men of Judah, and with him all the inhabitants of Jerusalem--the priests and the prophets and all the people, both small and great.

And he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king stood by a pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people took a stand for the covenant.

<sup>4</sup>And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers, to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the articles that were made for Baal, for Asherah, and for all the host of heaven; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel.

<sup>5</sup>Then he removed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense on the high places in the cities of Judah and in the places all around Jerusalem, and those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the constellations, and to all the host of heaven.

<sup>7</sup>Then he tore down the ritual booths of the perverted persons that were in the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the wooden image.

<sup>8</sup>And he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; also he broke down the high places at the gates which were at the entrance of the Gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were to the left of the city gate.

<sup>9</sup>Nevertheless the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brethren.

<sup>10</sup>And he defiled Topheth, which is in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter pass through the fire to Molech.

<sup>11</sup>Then he removed the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun, at the entrance to the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-Melech, the officer who was in the court; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

<sup>12</sup>The altars that were on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king broke down and pulverized there, and threw their dust into the Brook Kidron.

<sup>13</sup>Then the king defiled the high places that were east of Jerusalem, which were on the south of the Mount of Corruption, which Solomon king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the people of Ammon.

<sup>14</sup>And he broke in pieces the sacred pillars and cut down the wooden images, and filled their places with the bones of men.

<sup>15</sup>Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and crushed it to powder, and burned the wooden image.

<sup>16</sup>As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs that were there on the mountain. And he sent and took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar, and defiled it according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.

<sup>17</sup>Then he said, "What gravestone is this that I see?" So the men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel."

<sup>18</sup>And he said, "Let him alone; let no one move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

<sup>19</sup>Now Josiah also took away all the shrines of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger; and he did to them according to all the deeds he had done in Bethel.

<sup>20</sup>He executed all the priests of the high places who were there, on the altars, and burned men's bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>Then the king commanded all the people, saying, "Keep the Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this Book of the Covenant."

<sup>22</sup>Such a Passover surely had never been held since the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.

<sup>23</sup>But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this Passover was held before the LORD in Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup>Moreover Josiah put away those who consulted mediums and spiritists, the household gods and idols, all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>Now before him there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses; nor after him did any arise like him.

against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him.

<sup>27</sup>And the LORD said, "I will also remove Judah from My sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, "My name shall be there."

<sup>28</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>29</sup>In his days Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went to the aid of the king of Assyria, to the River Euphrates; and King Josiah went against him. And Pharaoh Necho killed him at Megiddo when he confronted him.

<sup>30</sup>Then his servants moved his body in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in his father's place.

<sup>31</sup>Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

<sup>32</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

<sup>33</sup>Now Pharaoh Necho put him in prison at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

<sup>34</sup>Then Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Pharaoh took Jehoahaz and went to Egypt, and he died there.

<sup>35</sup>So Jehoiakim gave the silver and gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give money according to the command of Pharaoh; he exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, from every one according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Necho.

<sup>36</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

<sup>37</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

24In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. Then he turned and rebelled against him.

<sup>2</sup>And the LORD sent against him raiding bands of Chaldeans, bands of Syrians, bands of Moabites, and bands of the people of Ammon; He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken by His servants the prophets.

<sup>3</sup>Surely at the commandment of the LORD this came upon Judah, to remove them from His sight because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done, <sup>4</sup>and also because of the innocent blood that he had shed; for he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, which the LORD would not pardon.

<sup>5</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>7</sup>And the king of Egypt did not come out of his land anymore, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the Brook of Egypt to the River Euphrates.

<sup>8</sup>Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

<sup>10</sup>At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

<sup>11</sup>And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, as his servants were besieging it.

<sup>13</sup>And he carried out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and he cut in pieces all the articles of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said.

<sup>14</sup>Also he carried into captivity all Jerusalem: all the captains and all the mighty men of valor, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths. None remained except the poorest people of the land.

<sup>15</sup>And he carried Jehoiachin captive to Babylon. The king's mother, the king's wives, his officers, and the mighty of the land he carried into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

<sup>17</sup>Then the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

<sup>18</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

<sup>19</sup>He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

<sup>20</sup>For because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, that He finally cast them out from His presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

25 Now it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around.

<sup>2</sup>So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

<sup>3</sup>By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

<sup>4</sup>Then the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled at night by way of the gate between two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were still encamped all around against the city. And the king went by way of the plain.

<sup>5</sup>But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him.

<sup>6</sup>So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and they pronounced judgment on him.

<sup>7</sup>Then they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, put out the eyes of Zedekiah, bound him with bronze fetters, and took him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month (which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>He burned the house of the LORD and the king's house; all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great, he burned with fire.

<sup>10</sup>And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down the walls of Jerusalem all around.

<sup>11</sup>Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive the rest of the people who remained in the city and the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, with the rest of the multitude.

<sup>13</sup>The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and the carts and the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried their bronze to Babylon.

<sup>14</sup>They also took away the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests ministered.

<sup>15</sup>The firepans and the basins, the things of solid gold and solid silver, the captain of the guard took away.

<sup>16</sup>The two pillars, one Sea, and the carts, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure.

<sup>17</sup>The height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the capital on it was of bronze. The height of the capital was three cubits, and the network and pomegranates all around the capital were all of bronze. The second pillar was the same, with a network.

<sup>18</sup>And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.

<sup>19</sup>He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war, five men of the king's close associates who were found in the city, the chief recruiting officer of the army, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

<sup>20</sup>So Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

<sup>21</sup>Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.

<sup>22</sup>Then he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left.

<sup>23</sup>Now when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah--Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan the son of Careah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

<sup>24</sup>And Gedaliah took an oath before them and their men, and said to them, "Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you."

<sup>25</sup>But it happened in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men and struck and killed Gedaliah, the Jews, as well as the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

<sup>26</sup>And all the people, small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

<sup>27</sup>Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison.

<sup>28</sup>He spoke kindly to him, and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

<sup>29</sup>So Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, and he ate bread regularly before the king all the days of his life.

<sup>30</sup>And as for his provisions, there was a regular ration given him by the king, a portion for each day, all the days of his life.

1st Chronicles

1

Adam, Seth, Enosh,

<sup>19</sup>To Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

<sup>32</sup>Now the sons born to Keturah, Abraham's concubine, were Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. The sons of Jokshan were Sheba and Dedan.

<sup>40</sup>The sons of Shobal were Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi, and Onam. The sons of Zibeon were Ajah and Anah.

<sup>41</sup>The son of Anah was Dishon. The sons of Dishon were Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

<sup>42</sup>The sons of Ezer were Bilhan, Zaavan, and Jaakan. The sons of Dishan were Uz and Aran.

<sup>43</sup>Now these were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before a king reigned over the children of Israel: Bela the son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

<sup>44</sup>And when Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place.

<sup>50</sup>And when Baal-Hanan died, Hadad reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Pai. His wife's name was Mehetabel the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

2 These were the sons of Israel: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun,

<sup>3</sup>The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, and Shelah. These three were born to him by the daughter of Shua, the Canaanitess. Er, the firstborn of Judah, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; so He killed him.

<sup>4</sup>And Tamar, his daughter-in-law, bore him Perez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five.

<sup>7</sup>The son of Carmi was Achar, the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the accursed thing.

<sup>16</sup>Now their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. And the sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, Joab, and Asahel--three.

<sup>21</sup>Now afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Segub.

<sup>23</sup>(Geshur and Syria took from them the towns of Jair, with Kenath and its towns--sixty towns.) All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.

<sup>26</sup>Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

<sup>29</sup>And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.

<sup>31</sup>The son of Appaim was Ishi, the son of Ishi was Sheshan, and Sheshan's son was Ahlai.

<sup>42</sup>The descendants of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha, his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron.

<sup>49</sup>She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah and the father of Gibeon. And the daughter of Caleb was Achsah.

<sup>50</sup>These were the descendants of Caleb: The sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, were Shobal the father of Kirjath Jearim,

<sup>52</sup>And Shobal the father of Kirjath Jearim had descendants: Haroeh, and half of the families of Manuhoth.

<sup>53</sup>The families of Kirjath Jearim were the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraites. From these came the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites.

<sup>54</sup>The sons of Salma were Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, half of the Manahethites, and the Zorites.

<sup>55</sup>And the families of the scribes who dwelt at Jabez were the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Suchathites. These were the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

3 Now these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: The firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second, Daniel, Called by Abigail the Carmelitess;

<sup>4</sup>These six were born to him in Hebron. There he reigned seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Hananiah were Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, and the sons of Shechaniah.

<sup>22</sup>The son of Shechaniah was Shemaiah. The sons of Shemaiah were Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat--six in all.

<sup>23</sup>The sons of Neariah were Elioenai, Hezekiah, and Azrikam--three in all.

4The sons of Judah were Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

<sup>2</sup>And Reaiah the son of Shobal begot Jahath, and Jahath begot Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites.

<sup>3</sup>These were the sons of the father of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash; and the name of their sister was Hazelelponi;

<sup>4</sup>and Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer was the father of Hushah. These were the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah the father of Bethlehem.

<sup>5</sup>And Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

<sup>8</sup>and Koz begot Anub, Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

<sup>9</sup>Now Jabez was more honorable than his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, "Because I bore him in pain."

<sup>10</sup>And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, "Oh, that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my territory, that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!" So God granted him what he requested.

<sup>12</sup>And Eshton begot Beth-Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-Nahash. These were the men of Rechah.

<sup>13</sup>The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel were Hathath, <sup>14</sup>and Meonothai who begot Ophrah. Seraiah begot Joab the father of Ge Harashim, for they were craftsmen.

<sup>15</sup>The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam. The son of Elah was Kenaz.

bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

<sup>18</sup>(His wife Jehudijah bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Sochoh, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) And these were the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took.

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Hodiah's wife, the sister of Naham, were the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and of Eshtemoa the Maachathite.

<sup>20</sup>And the sons of Shimon were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the linen workers of the house of Ashbea;

<sup>22</sup>also Jokim, the men of Chozeba, and Joash; Saraph, who ruled in Moab, and Jashubi-Lehem. Now the records are ancient.

<sup>23</sup>These were the potters and those who dwell at Netaim and Gederah; there they dwelt with the king for his work.

<sup>26</sup>And the sons of Mishma were Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, and Shimei his son.

<sup>27</sup>Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers did not have many children, nor did any of their families multiply as much as the children of Judah.

<sup>32</sup>And their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan--five cities--

<sup>33</sup>and all the villages that were around these cities as far as Baal. These were their dwelling places, and they maintained their genealogy:

<sup>37</sup>Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah--

<sup>38</sup>these mentioned by name were leaders in their families, and their father's house increased greatly.

<sup>39</sup>So they went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

<sup>40</sup>And they found rich, good pasture, and the land was broad, quiet, and peaceful; for some Hamites formerly lived there.

<sup>41</sup>These recorded by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and they attacked their tents and the Meunites who were found there, and utterly destroyed them, as it is to this day. So they dwelt in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks there.

<sup>42</sup>Now some of them, five hundred men of the sons of Simeon, went to Mount Seir, having as their captains Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.

<sup>43</sup>And they defeated the rest of the Amalekites who had escaped. They have dwelt there to this day.

5Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel--he was indeed the firstborn, but because he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel, so that the genealogy is not listed according to the birthright;

<sup>7</sup>And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was registered: the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, <sup>8</sup>and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, as far as Nebo and Baal Meon.

<sup>9</sup>Eastward they settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness this side of the River Euphrates, because their cattle had multiplied in the land of Gilead.

<sup>10</sup>Now in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents throughout the entire area east of Gilead.

<sup>11</sup>And the children of Gad dwelt next to them in the land of Bashan as far as Salcah:

<sup>12</sup>Joel was the chief, Shapham the next, then Jaanai and Shaphat in Bashan, <sup>13</sup>and their brethren of their father's house: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jachan, Zia, and Eber--seven in all.

<sup>14</sup>These were the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

<sup>15</sup>Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief of their father's house.

<sup>16</sup>And the Gadites dwelt in Gilead, in Bashan and in its villages, and in all the common-lands of Sharon within their borders.

<sup>17</sup>All these were registered by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>The sons of Reuben, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh had forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty valiant men, men able to bear shield and sword, to shoot with the bow, and skillful in war, who went to war.

<sup>20</sup>And they were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them, for they cried out to God in the battle. He heeded their prayer, because they put their trust in Him.

hundred and fifty thousand of their sheep, and two thousand of their donkeys--also one hundred thousand of their men;

<sup>22</sup>for many fell dead, because the war was God's. And they dwelt in their place until the captivity.

<sup>25</sup>And they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers, and played the harlot after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

<sup>26</sup>So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, that is, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. He carried the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh into captivity. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river of Gozan to this day.

6 The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

<sup>10</sup>Johanan begot Azariah (it was he who ministered as priest in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem);

<sup>29</sup>The sons of Merari were Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son,

<sup>31</sup>Now these are the men whom David appointed over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the ark came to rest.

<sup>32</sup>They were ministering with music before the dwelling place of the tabernacle of meeting, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they served in their office according to their order.

<sup>33</sup>And these are the ones who ministered with their sons: Of the sons of the Kohathites were Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,

<sup>34</sup>the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah,

<sup>35</sup>the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai,

<sup>36</sup>the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah,

<sup>37</sup>the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, <sup>38</sup>the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

<sup>40</sup>the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah,

<sup>41</sup>the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,

<sup>44</sup>Their brethren, the sons of Merari, on the left hand, were Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,

<sup>46</sup>the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer, <sup>47</sup>the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

<sup>48</sup>And their brethren, the Levites, were appointed to every kind of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

<sup>49</sup>But Aaron and his sons offered sacrifices on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Most Holy Place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

<sup>55</sup>They gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, with its surrounding common-lands.

<sup>56</sup>But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

<sup>60</sup>And from the tribe of Benjamin: Geba with its common-lands, Alemeth with its common-lands, and Anathoth with its common-lands. All their cities among their families were thirteen.

<sup>61</sup>To the rest of the family of the tribe of the Kohathites they gave by lot ten cities from half the tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>62</sup>And to the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, they gave thirteen cities from the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

<sup>63</sup>To the sons of Merari, throughout their families, they gave twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun.

<sup>77</sup>From the tribe of Zebulun the rest of the children of Merari were given Rimmon with its common-lands and Tabor with its common-lands.

<sup>78</sup>And on the other side of the Jordan, across from Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, they were given from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness with its common-lands, Jahzah with its common-lands,

7 The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron--four in all.

<sup>2</sup> The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their father's house. The sons of Tola were mighty men of valor in their generations; their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred.

<sup>3</sup> The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah, and the sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishiah. All five of them were chief men.

<sup>4</sup> And with them, by their generations, according to their fathers' houses, were thirty-six thousand troops ready for war; for they had many wives and sons.

<sup>5</sup> Now their brethren among all the families of Issachar were mighty men of valor, listed by their genealogies, eighty-seven thousand in all.

<sup>6</sup> The sons of Benjamin were Bela, Becher, and Jediahel--three in all.

<sup>7</sup> The sons of Bela were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri--five in all. They were heads of their fathers' houses, and they were listed by their genealogies, twenty-two thousand and thirty-four mighty men of valor.

<sup>8</sup> The sons of Becher were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jerimoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these are the sons of Becher.

<sup>9</sup> And they were recorded by genealogy according to their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, twenty thousand two hundred mighty men of valor.

<sup>10</sup> The son of Jediahel was Bilhan, and the sons of Bilhan were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tharshish, and Ahishahar.

<sup>12</sup> Shuppim and Huppim were the sons of Ir, and Hushim was the son of Aher.

<sup>16</sup> (Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. The name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

<sup>17</sup>The son of Ulam was Bedan.) These were the descendants of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

<sup>20</sup>The sons of Ephraim were Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eladah his son, Tahath his son, <sup>21</sup>Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and Elead. The men of Gath who were born in that land killed them because they came down to take away their cattle.

<sup>22</sup>Then Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him.

<sup>23</sup>And when he went in to his wife, she conceived and bore a son; and he called his name Beriah, because tragedy had come upon his house.

<sup>25</sup>and Rephah was his son, as well as Resheph, and Telah his son, Tahan his son,

<sup>28</sup>Now their possessions and dwelling places were Bethel and its towns: to the east Naaran, to the west Gezer and its towns, and Shechem and its towns, as far as Ayyah and its towns;

<sup>29</sup>and by the borders of the children of Manasseh were Beth Shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these dwelt the children of Joseph, the son of Israel.

8Now Benjamin begot Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, Aharah the third,

<sup>6</sup>These are the sons of Ehud, who were the heads of the fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Geba, and who forced them to move to Manahath:

<sup>7</sup>Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera who forced them to move. He begot Uzza and Ahihud.

<sup>8</sup>Also Shazaraim had children in the country of Moab, after he had sent away Hushim and Baara his wives.

<sup>38</sup>Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

<sup>39</sup>And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

<sup>40</sup>The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor--archers. They had many sons and grandsons, one hundred and fifty in all. These were all sons of Benjamin.

9 So all Israel was recorded by genealogies, and indeed, they were inscribed in the book of the kings of Israel. But Judah was carried away captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

<sup>2</sup>And the first inhabitants who dwelt in their possessions in their cities were Israelites, priests, Levites, and the Nethinim.

<sup>7</sup>Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah;

<sup>8</sup>Ibneiah the son of Jeroham; Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri; Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

<sup>9</sup>and their brethren, according to their generations--nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of a father's house in their fathers' houses.

<sup>11</sup>Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the officer over the house of God;

<sup>12</sup>Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah; Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

<sup>13</sup>and their brethren, heads of their fathers' houses--one thousand seven hundred and sixty. They were very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

<sup>14</sup>Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

<sup>15</sup>Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

<sup>16</sup>Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

<sup>17</sup>And the gatekeepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brethren. Shallum was the chief.

<sup>19</sup>Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, from his father's house, the Korahites, were in charge of the work of the service, gatekeepers of the tabernacle. Their fathers had been keepers of the entrance to the camp of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>And Phinehas the son of Eleazar had been the officer over them in time past; the LORD was with him.

<sup>21</sup>Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was keeper of the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

<sup>22</sup>All those chosen as gatekeepers were two hundred and twelve. They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their trusted office.

<sup>24</sup>The gatekeepers were assigned to the four directions: the east, west, north, and south.

<sup>25</sup>And their brethren in their villages had to come with them from time to time for seven days.

<sup>26</sup>For in this trusted office were four chief gatekeepers; they were Levites. And they had charge over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

<sup>27</sup>And they lodged all around the house of God because they had the responsibility, and they were in charge of opening it every morning.

<sup>28</sup>Now some of them were in charge of the serving vessels, for they brought them in and took them out by count.

<sup>29</sup>Some of them were appointed over the furnishings and over all the implements of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the incense and the spices.

<sup>30</sup>And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

<sup>32</sup>And some of their brethren of the sons of the Kohathites were in charge of preparing the showbread for every Sabbath.

<sup>33</sup>These are the singers, heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites, who lodged in the chambers, and were free from other duties; for they were employed in that work day and night.

<sup>44</sup>And Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

10 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

<sup>2</sup>Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

<sup>3</sup>The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers.

<sup>4</sup>Then Saul said to his armorbearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and abuse me." But his armorbearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it.

<sup>5</sup>And when his armorbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died.

<sup>6</sup>So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.

<sup>7</sup>And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; then the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

<sup>8</sup>So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

<sup>9</sup>And they stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temple of their idols and among the people.

<sup>10</sup>Then they put his armor in the temple of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

<sup>11</sup>And when all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>all the valiant men arose and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons; and they brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

<sup>13</sup>So Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he had committed against the LORD, because he did not keep the word of the LORD, and also because he consulted a medium for guidance.

<sup>14</sup>But he did not inquire of the LORD; therefore He killed him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

11 Then all Israel came together to David at Hebron, saying, "Indeed we are your bone and your flesh.

<sup>2</sup>Also, in time past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD your God said to you, "You shall shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over My people Israel."

<sup>3</sup>Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

<sup>4</sup>And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

<sup>5</sup>But the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not come in here!" Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David).

<sup>6</sup>Now David said, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain." And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and became chief.

<sup>7</sup>Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David.

<sup>8</sup>And he built the city around it, from the Millo to the surrounding area. Joab repaired the rest of the city.

<sup>9</sup>So David went on and became great, and the LORD of hosts was with him.

<sup>10</sup>Now these were the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

<sup>11</sup>And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite, chief of the captains; he had lifted up his spear against three hundred, killed by him at one time.

<sup>12</sup>After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

<sup>13</sup>He was with David at Pasdammim. Now there the Philistines were gathered for battle, and there was a piece of ground full of barley. So the people fled from the Philistines.

<sup>14</sup>But they stationed themselves in the middle of that field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.

<sup>15</sup>Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>16</sup>David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

<sup>17</sup>And David said with longing, "Oh, that someone would give me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

<sup>18</sup>So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>And he said, "Far be it from me, O my God, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? For at the risk of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

<sup>20</sup>Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of another three. He had lifted up his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name among these three.

<sup>21</sup>Of the three he was more honored than the other two men. Therefore he became their captain. However he did not attain to the first three.

<sup>22</sup>Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

<sup>23</sup>And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great height, five cubits tall. In the Egyptian's hand there was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

<sup>24</sup>These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and won a name among three mighty men.

<sup>25</sup>Indeed he was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him over his guard.

<sup>26</sup>Also the mighty warriors were Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

<sup>40</sup>Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

12 Now these were the men who came to David at Ziklag while he was still a fugitive from Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, helpers in the war, <sup>2</sup>armed with bows, using both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows with the bow. They were of Benjamin, Saul's brethren.

<sup>3</sup>The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Berachah, and Jehu the Anathothite;

<sup>4</sup>Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite;

<sup>8</sup>Some Gadites joined David at the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for battle, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as gazelles on the mountains:

<sup>14</sup>These were from the sons of Gad, captains of the army; the least was over a hundred, and the greatest was over a thousand.

<sup>15</sup>These are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

<sup>16</sup>Then some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold.

<sup>17</sup>And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, "If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look and bring judgment."

<sup>18</sup>Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the captains, and he said: "We are yours, O David; We are on your side, O son of Jesse! Peace, peace to you, And peace to your helpers! For your God helps you." So David received them, and made them captains of the troop.

<sup>19</sup>And some from Manasseh defected to David when he was going with the Philistines to battle against Saul; but they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent him away by agreement, saying, "He may defect to his master Saul and endanger our heads."

<sup>20</sup>When he went to Ziklag, those of Manasseh who defected to him were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands who were from Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup>And they helped David against the bands of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valor, and they were captains in the army.

<sup>22</sup>For at that time they came to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like the army of God.

<sup>23</sup>Now these were the numbers of the divisions that were equipped for war, and came to David at Hebron to turn over the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD:

<sup>24</sup>of the sons of Judah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred armed for war;

<sup>28</sup>Zadok, a young man, a valiant warrior, and from his father's house twenty-two captains;

<sup>29</sup>of the sons of Benjamin, relatives of Saul, three thousand (until then the greatest part of them had remained loyal to the house of Saul);

<sup>30</sup>of the sons of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men throughout their father's house;

<sup>31</sup>of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king;

<sup>32</sup>of the sons of Issachar who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their command;

<sup>33</sup>of Zebulun there were fifty thousand who went out to battle, expert in war with all weapons of war, stouthearted men who could keep ranks;

<sup>34</sup>of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear;

<sup>35</sup>of the Danites who could keep battle formation, twenty-eight thousand six hundred;

<sup>36</sup>of Asher, those who could go out to war, able to keep battle formation, forty thousand;

<sup>37</sup>of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, from the other side of the Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand armed for battle with every kind of weapon of war.

<sup>38</sup>All these men of war, who could keep ranks, came to Hebron with a loyal heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king.

<sup>39</sup>And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had prepared for them.

<sup>40</sup>Moreover those who were near to them, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys and camels, on mules and oxen--provisions of flour and cakes of figs and cakes of raisins, wine and oil and oxen and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

13 Then David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

<sup>2</sup>And David said to all the assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is of the LORD our God, let us send out to our brethren everywhere who are left in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and their common-lands, that they may gather together to us;

<sup>3</sup>and let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we have not inquired at it since the days of Saul."

<sup>4</sup>Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

<sup>5</sup>So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor in Egypt to as far as the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim.

<sup>6</sup>And David and all Israel went up to Baalah, to Kirjath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who dwells between the cherubim, where His name is proclaimed.

<sup>7</sup>So they carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

<sup>8</sup>Then David and all Israel played music before God with all their might, with singing, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on cymbals, and with trumpets.

<sup>9</sup>And when they came to Chidon's threshing floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled.

<sup>10</sup>Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzza, and He struck him because he put his hand to the ark; and he died there before God.

<sup>11</sup>And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzza; therefore that place is called Perez Uzza to this day.

<sup>12</sup>David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of God to me?"

<sup>13</sup>So David would not move the ark with him into the City of David, but took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

<sup>14</sup>The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that he had.

14Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house.

<sup>8</sup>Now when the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went out against them.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Philistines went and made a raid on the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>10</sup>And David inquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?" The LORD said to him, "Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand."

<sup>11</sup>So they went up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. Then David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a breakthrough of water." Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

<sup>12</sup>And when they left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

<sup>13</sup>Then the Philistines once again made a raid on the valley.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore David inquired again of God, and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; circle around them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

<sup>15</sup>And it shall be, when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God has gone out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines."

<sup>16</sup>So David did as God commanded him, and they drove back the army of the Philistines from Gibeon as far as Gezer.

<sup>17</sup>Then the fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

15 David built houses for himself in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it.

<sup>2</sup>Then David said, "No one may carry the ark of God but the Levites, for the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of God and to minister before Him forever."

<sup>11</sup>And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites: for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.

<sup>12</sup>He said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it.

<sup>13</sup>For because you did not do it the first time, the LORD our God broke out against us, because we did not consult Him about the proper order."

<sup>14</sup>So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>And the children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders, by its poles, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>Then David spoke to the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers accompanied by instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, by raising the voice with resounding joy.

<sup>17</sup>So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of their brethren, the sons of Merari, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

<sup>19</sup>the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to sound the cymbals of bronze;

<sup>24</sup>Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-Edom and Jehiah, doorkeepers for the ark.

<sup>25</sup>So David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom with joy.

<sup>26</sup>And so it was, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bulls and seven rams.

<sup>27</sup>David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the music master with the singers. David also wore a linen ephod.

<sup>29</sup>And it happened, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the City of David, that Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David whirling and playing music; and she despised him in her heart.

16 So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

<sup>2</sup>And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then he distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins.

<sup>4</sup>And he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to commemorate, to thank, and to praise the LORD God of Israel:

<sup>5</sup>Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, and Obed-Edom: Jeiel with stringed instruments and harps, but Asaph made music with cymbals;

<sup>6</sup>Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests regularly blew the trumpets before the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>7</sup>On that day David first delivered this psalm into the hand of Asaph and his brethren, to thank the LORD:

<sup>17</sup>And confirmed it to Jacob for a statute, To Israel for an everlasting covenant,

<sup>18</sup>Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan As the allotment of your inheritance," <sup>19</sup>When you were few in number, Indeed very few, and strangers in it.

<sup>20</sup>When they went from one nation to another, And from one kingdom to another people,

<sup>21</sup>He permitted no man to do them wrong; Yes, He rebuked kings for their sakes,

His wonders among all peoples.

<sup>25</sup>For the LORD is great and greatly to be praised; He is also to be feared above all gods.

<sup>26</sup>For all the gods of the peoples are idols, But the LORD made the heavens.

<sup>27</sup>Honor and majesty are before Him;
Strength and gladness are in His place.

<sup>28</sup>Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples, Give to the LORD glory and strength.

<sup>29</sup>Give to the LORD the glory due His name; Bring an offering, and come before Him. Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness!

<sup>30</sup>Tremble before Him, all the earth. The world also is firmly established, It shall not be moved.

<sup>31</sup>Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; And let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."

<sup>32</sup>Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;
Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.

<sup>33</sup>Then the trees of the woods shall rejoice before the LORD, For He is coming to judge the earth.

<sup>34</sup>Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.

<sup>35</sup>And say, "Save us, O God of our salvation; Gather us together, and deliver us from the Gentiles, To give thanks to Your holy name, To triumph in Your praise."

<sup>36</sup>Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting! And all the people said, "Amen!" and praised the LORD.

<sup>37</sup>So he left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark regularly, as every day's work required;

<sup>38</sup>and Obed-Edom with his sixty-eight brethren, including Obed-Edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be gatekeepers;

<sup>39</sup>and Zadok the priest and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place that was at Gibeon,

<sup>40</sup>to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of the LORD which He commanded Israel;

<sup>41</sup>and with them Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because His mercy endures forever;

<sup>42</sup>and with them Heman and Jeduthun, to sound aloud with trumpets and cymbals and the musical instruments of God. Now the sons of Jeduthun were gatekeepers.

<sup>43</sup>Then all the people departed, every man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

17 Now it came to pass, when David was dwelling in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under tent curtains."

<sup>2</sup>Then Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you."

<sup>3</sup>But it happened that night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Go and tell My servant David, "Thus says the LORD: "You shall not build Me a house to dwell in.

<sup>5</sup>For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up Israel, even to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

<sup>6</sup>Wherever I have moved about with all Israel, have I ever spoken a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, "Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?"

<sup>7</sup>Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, "Thus says the LORD of hosts: "I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people Israel.

<sup>8</sup>And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

<sup>9</sup>Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously, <sup>10</sup>since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. Also I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that the LORD will build you a house.

<sup>11</sup>And it shall be, when your days are fulfilled, when you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

<sup>12</sup>He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.

<sup>13</sup>I will be his Father, and he shall be My son; and I will not take My mercy away from him, as I took it from him who was before you.

<sup>14</sup>And I will establish him in My house and in My kingdom forever; and his throne shall be established forever."

<sup>15</sup>According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

<sup>16</sup>Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: "Who am I, O LORD God? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far?

<sup>17</sup>And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O God; and You have also spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the rank of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

<sup>18</sup>What more can David say to You for the honor of Your servant? For You know Your servant.

<sup>19</sup>O LORD, for Your servant's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

<sup>20</sup>O LORD, there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

<sup>21</sup>And who is like Your people Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people--to make for Yourself a name by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people whom You redeemed from Egypt?

<sup>22</sup>For You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; and You, LORD, have become their God.

<sup>23</sup>"And now, O LORD, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, let it be established forever, and do as You have said.

<sup>24</sup>So let it be established, that Your name may be magnified forever, saying, "The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel's God." And let the house of Your servant David be established before You.

<sup>25</sup>For You, O my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build him a house. Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray before You.

<sup>26</sup>And now, LORD, You are God, and have promised this goodness to Your servant.

<sup>27</sup>Now You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You have blessed it, O LORD, and it shall be blessed forever."

18After this it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines, subdued them, and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines.

<sup>2</sup>Then he defeated Moab, and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought tribute.

<sup>5</sup>When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians.

<sup>6</sup>Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. So the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

<sup>7</sup>And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>Also from Tibhath and from Chun, cities of Hadadezer, David brought a large amount of bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze Sea, the pillars, and the articles of bronze.

<sup>9</sup>Now when Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, <sup>10</sup>he sent Hadoram his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou); and Hadoram brought with him all kinds of articles of gold, silver, and bronze.

<sup>11</sup>King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had brought from all these nations--from Edom, from Moab, from the people of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

<sup>12</sup>Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah killed eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>13</sup>He also put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

<sup>14</sup>So David reigned over all Israel, and administered judgment and justice to all his people.

<sup>15</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

<sup>16</sup>Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Shavsha was the scribe;

<sup>17</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers at the king's side.

19 It happened after this that Nahash the king of the people of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place.

<sup>2</sup>Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came to Hanun in the land of the people of Ammon to comfort him.

<sup>3</sup>And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David really honors your father because he has sent comforters to you? Did his servants not come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"

<sup>5</sup>Then some went and told David about the men; and he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

<sup>6</sup>When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the people of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, from Syrian Maacah, and from Zobah.

<sup>7</sup>So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, with the king of Maacah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. Also the people of Ammon gathered together from their cities, and came to battle.

<sup>8</sup>Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.

<sup>9</sup>Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array before the gate of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

<sup>11</sup>And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in battle array against the people of Ammon.

<sup>12</sup>Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you.

<sup>13</sup>Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight."

<sup>14</sup>So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.

<sup>15</sup>When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai his brother, and entered the city. So Joab went to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup>Now when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought the Syrians who were beyond the River, and Shophach the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them.

<sup>17</sup>When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan and came upon them, and set up in battle array against them. So when David had set up in battle array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

<sup>18</sup>Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers of the Syrians, and killed Shophach the commander of the army.

<sup>19</sup>And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his servants. So the Syrians were not willing to help the people of Ammon anymore.

20 It happened in the spring of the year, at the time kings go out to battle, that Joab led out the armed forces and ravaged the country of the people of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. And Joab defeated Rabbah and overthrew it.

<sup>2</sup>Then David took their king's crown from his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it. And it was set on David's head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance.

<sup>3</sup>And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws, with iron picks, and with axes. So David did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>Now it happened afterward that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines, at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai, who was one of the sons of the giant. And they were subdued.

<sup>5</sup>Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

<sup>6</sup>Yet again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, with twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot; and he also was born to the giant.

<sup>7</sup>So when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

<sup>8</sup>These were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

21 Now Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel.

<sup>2</sup>So David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people, "Go, number Israel from Beersheba to Dan, and bring the number of them to me that I may know it."

<sup>3</sup>And Joab answered, "May the LORD make His people a hundred times more than they are. But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then does my lord require this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt in Israel?"

<sup>4</sup>Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to David. All Israel had one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and Judah had four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew the sword.

<sup>6</sup>But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

<sup>7</sup>And God was displeased with this thing; therefore He struck Israel.

<sup>8</sup>So David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing; but now, I pray, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly."

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,

<sup>10</sup>"Go and tell David, saying, "Thus says the LORD: "I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you.""

<sup>11</sup>So Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: "Choose for yourself,

<sup>12</sup>either three years of famine, or three months to be defeated by your foes with the sword of your enemies overtaking you, or else for three days the sword of the LORD--the plague in the land, with the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.' Now consider what answer I should take back to Him who sent me."

<sup>13</sup>And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are very great; but do not let me fall into the hand of man."

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.

<sup>15</sup>And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was destroying, the LORD looked and relented of the disaster, and said to the angel who was destroying, "It is enough; now restrain your hand." And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

<sup>16</sup>Then David lifted his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, having in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. So David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.

<sup>17</sup>And David said to God, "Was it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed; but these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, O LORD my God, be against me and my father's house, but not against Your people that they should be plagued."

<sup>18</sup>Therefore, the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David that David should go and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

<sup>19</sup>So David went up at the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>Now Ornan turned and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves, but Ornan continued threshing wheat.

<sup>21</sup>So David came to Ornan, and Ornan looked and saw David. And he went out from the threshing floor, and bowed before David with his face to the ground.

<sup>22</sup>Then David said to Ornan, "Grant me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build an altar on it to the LORD. You shall grant it to me at the full price, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people."

<sup>23</sup>But Ornan said to David, "Take it to yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Look, I also give you the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing implements for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering; I give it all."

<sup>24</sup>Then King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will surely buy it for the full price, for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings with that which costs me nothing."

<sup>25</sup>So David gave Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place.

<sup>26</sup>And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD; and He answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering.

<sup>27</sup>So the LORD commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

<sup>28</sup>At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

<sup>29</sup>For the tabernacle of the LORD and the altar of the burnt offering, which Moses had made in the wilderness, were at that time at the high place in Gibeon.

<sup>30</sup>But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

22 Then David said, "This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

<sup>2</sup>So David commanded to gather the aliens who were in the land of Israel; and he appointed masons to cut hewn stones to build the house of God.

<sup>3</sup>And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors of the gates and for the joints, and bronze in abundance beyond measure, <sup>4</sup>and cedar trees in abundance; for the Sidonians and those from Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

<sup>5</sup>Now David said, "Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all countries. I will now make preparation for it." So David made abundant preparations before his death.

<sup>6</sup>Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>And David said to Solomon: "My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of the LORD my God;

<sup>8</sup>but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, "You have shed much blood and have made great wars; you shall not build a house for My name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight.

<sup>9</sup>Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies all around. His name shall be Solomon, for I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days.

<sup>10</sup>He shall build a house for My name, and he shall be My son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'

<sup>11</sup>Now, my son, may the LORD be with you; and may you prosper, and build the house of the LORD your God, as He has said to you.

<sup>12</sup>Only may the LORD give you wisdom and understanding, and give you charge concerning Israel, that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

<sup>13</sup>Then you will prosper, if you take care to fulfill the statutes and judgments with which the LORD charged Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and of good courage; do not fear nor be dismayed.

hundred thousand talents of gold and one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond measure, for it is so abundant. I have prepared timber and stone also, and you may add to them.

<sup>15</sup>Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance: woodsmen and stonecutters, and all types of skillful men for every kind of work.

<sup>16</sup>Of gold and silver and bronze and iron there is no limit. Arise and begin working, and the LORD be with you."

<sup>17</sup>David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

<sup>18</sup>"Is not the LORD your God with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before His people.

<sup>19</sup>Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God. Therefore arise and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy articles of God into the house that is to be built for the name of the LORD."

23 So when David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

<sup>2</sup>And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

<sup>3</sup>Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and above; and the number of individual males was thirty-eight thousand.

<sup>4</sup>Of these, twenty-four thousand were to look after the work of the house of the LORD, six thousand were officers and judges,

<sup>5</sup>four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand praised the LORD with musical instruments, "which I made," said David, "for giving praise."

<sup>9</sup>The sons of Shimei: Shelomith, Haziel, and Haran--three in all. These were the heads of the fathers' houses of Laadan.

<sup>10</sup>And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These were the four sons of Shimei.

<sup>11</sup>Jahath was the first and Zizah the second. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they were assigned as one father's house.

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel--four in all.

<sup>13</sup>The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was set apart, he and his sons forever, that he should sanctify the most holy things, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister to Him, and to give the blessing in His name forever.

<sup>14</sup>Now the sons of Moses the man of God were reckoned to the tribe of Levi.

<sup>17</sup>Of the descendants of Eliezer, Rehabiah was the first. And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.

<sup>22</sup>And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but only daughters; and their brethren, the sons of Kish, took them as wives.

<sup>24</sup>These were the sons of Levi by their fathers' houses--the heads of the fathers' houses as they were counted individually by the number of their names, who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and above.

<sup>25</sup>For David said, "The LORD God of Israel has given rest to His people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever";

<sup>26</sup>and also to the Levites, "They shall no longer carry the tabernacle, or any of the articles for its service."

<sup>27</sup>For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above;

<sup>28</sup>because their duty was to help the sons of Aaron in the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers, in the purifying of all holy things and the work of the service of the house of God,

<sup>29</sup>both with the showbread and the fine flour for the grain offering, with the unleavened cakes and what is baked in the pan, with what is mixed and with all kinds of measures and sizes;

<sup>30</sup>to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening;

<sup>31</sup>and at every presentation of a burnt offering to the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons and on the set feasts, by number according to the ordinance governing them, regularly before the LORD;

<sup>32</sup>and that they should attend to the needs of the tabernacle of meeting, the needs of the holy place, and the needs of the sons of Aaron their brethren in the work of the house of the LORD.

24Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

<sup>2</sup>And Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests.

<sup>3</sup>Then David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to the schedule of their service.

<sup>4</sup>There were more leaders found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar, and thus they were divided. Among the sons of Eleazar were sixteen heads of their fathers' houses, and eight heads of their fathers' houses among the sons of Ithamar.

<sup>5</sup>Thus they were divided by lot, one group as another, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of the house of God, from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar.

<sup>6</sup>And the scribe, Shemaiah the son of Nethanel, one of the Levites, wrote them down before the king, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites, one father's house taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.

<sup>7</sup>Now the first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

<sup>8</sup>the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

<sup>9</sup>the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

<sup>10</sup>the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

<sup>11</sup>the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,

<sup>19</sup>This was the schedule of their service for coming into the house of the LORD according to their ordinance by the hand of Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

<sup>30</sup>Also the sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

<sup>31</sup>These also cast lots just as their brothers the sons of Aaron did, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites. The chief fathers did just as their younger brethren.

25 Moreover David and the captains of the army separated for the service some of the sons of Asaph, of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, stringed instruments, and cymbals. And the number of the skilled men performing their service was:

<sup>2</sup>Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah; the sons of Asaph were under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied according to the order of the king.

<sup>5</sup>All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to exalt his horn. For God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

<sup>6</sup>All these were under the direction of their father for the music in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the authority of the king.

<sup>7</sup>So the number of them, with their brethren who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, all who were skillful, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

<sup>8</sup>And they cast lots for their duty, the small as well as the great, the teacher with the student.

<sup>9</sup>Now the first lot for Asaph came out for Joseph; the second for Gedaliah, him with his brethren and sons, twelve;

26 Concerning the divisions of the gatekeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

<sup>2</sup>And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the firstborn, Jediahel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

<sup>5</sup>Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth; for God blessed him.

<sup>6</sup>Also to Shemaiah his son were sons born who governed their fathers' houses, because they were men of great ability.

<sup>7</sup>The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers Elihu and Semachiah were able men.

<sup>8</sup>All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom, they and their sons and their brethren, able men with strength for the work: sixty-two of Obed-Edom.

<sup>9</sup>And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, eighteen able men.

<sup>10</sup>Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (for though he was not the firstborn, his father made him the first),

<sup>11</sup>Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

<sup>13</sup>And they cast lots for each gate, the small as well as the great, according to their father's house.

<sup>15</sup>to Obed-Edom the South Gate, and to his sons the storehouse.

<sup>16</sup>To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came out for the West Gate, with the Shallecheth Gate on the ascending highway--watchman opposite watchman.

<sup>17</sup>On the east were six Levites, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, and for the storehouse two by two.

<sup>18</sup>As for the Parbar on the west, there were four on the highway and two at the Parbar.

<sup>19</sup>These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Korah and among the sons of Merari.

<sup>24</sup>Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was overseer of the treasuries.

<sup>25</sup>And his brethren by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

<sup>26</sup>This Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasuries of the dedicated things which King David and the heads of fathers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated.

<sup>27</sup>Some of the spoils won in battles they dedicated to maintain the house of the LORD.

<sup>28</sup>And all that Samuel the seer, Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, every dedicated thing, was under the hand of Shelomith and his brethren.

<sup>29</sup>Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons performed duties as officials and judges over Israel outside Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup>Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, one thousand seven hundred able men, had the oversight of Israel on the west side of the Jordan for all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.

<sup>31</sup>Among the Hebronites, Jerijah was head of the Hebronites according to his genealogy of the fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought, and there were found among them capable men at Jazer of Gilead.

<sup>32</sup>And his brethren were two thousand seven hundred able men, heads of fathers' houses, whom King David made officials over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God and the affairs of the king.

27 And the children of Israel, according to their number, the heads of fathers' houses, the captains of thousands and hundreds and their officers, served the king in every matter of the military divisions. These divisions came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, each division having twenty-four thousand.

<sup>2</sup>Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel, and in his division were twenty-four thousand;

<sup>3</sup>he was of the children of Perez, and the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month.

<sup>4</sup>Over the division of the second month was Dodai an Ahohite, and of his division Mikloth also was the leader; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>5</sup>The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, who was chief; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>6</sup>This was the Benaiah who was mighty among the thirty, and was over the thirty; in his division was Ammizabad his son.

<sup>7</sup>The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>8</sup>The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>9</sup>The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikesh the Tekoite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>10</sup>The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>11</sup>The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbechai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>12</sup>The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>13</sup>The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>14</sup>The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>15</sup>The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>16</sup>Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel: the officer over the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; over the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah;

<sup>17</sup>over the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; over the Aaronites, Zadok;

<sup>20</sup>over the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; over the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;

<sup>21</sup>over the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; over Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

<sup>22</sup>over Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>But David did not take the number of those twenty years old and under, because the LORD had said He would multiply Israel like the stars of the heavens.

<sup>24</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah began a census, but he did not finish, for wrath came upon Israel because of this census; nor was the number recorded in the account of the chronicles of King David.

<sup>25</sup>And Azmaveth the son of Adiel was over the king's treasuries; and Jehonathan the son of Uzziah was over the storehouses in the field, in the cities, in the villages, and in the fortresses.

<sup>26</sup>Ezri the son of Chelub was over those who did the work of the field for tilling the ground.

<sup>27</sup>And Shimei the Ramathite was over the vineyards, and Zabdi the Shiphmite was over the produce of the vineyards for the supply of wine.

<sup>28</sup>Baal-Hanan the Gederite was over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowlands, and Joash was over the store of oil.

<sup>29</sup>And Shitrai the Sharonite was over the herds that fed in Sharon, and Shaphat the son of Adlai was over the herds that were in the valleys.

<sup>30</sup>Obil the Ishmaelite was over the camels, Jehdeiah the Meronothite was over the donkeys, <sup>31</sup>and Jaziz the Hagrite was over the flocks. All these were the officials over King David's property.

<sup>32</sup>Also Jehonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a wise man, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons.

<sup>33</sup> Ahithophel was the king's counselor, and Hushai the Archite was the king's companion.

<sup>34</sup> After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, then Abiathar. And the general of the king's army was Joab.

28 Now David assembled at Jerusalem all the leaders of Israel: the officers of the tribes and the captains of the divisions who served the king, the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officials, the valiant men, and all the mighty men of valor.

<sup>2</sup> Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brethren and my people: I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made preparations to build it.

<sup>3</sup> But God said to me, "You shall not build a house for My name, because you have been a man of war and have shed blood."

<sup>4</sup> However the LORD God of Israel chose me above all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever, for He has chosen Judah to be the ruler. And of the house of Judah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, He was pleased with me to make me king over all Israel.

<sup>5</sup> And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

<sup>6</sup> Now He said to me, "It is your son Solomon who shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father.

<sup>7</sup> Moreover I will establish his kingdom forever, if he is steadfast to observe My commandments and My judgments, as it is this day.'

<sup>8</sup> Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, be careful to seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you forever.

<sup>9</sup> "As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a loyal heart and with a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever.

<sup>10</sup> Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong, and do it."

<sup>11</sup> Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the vestibule, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner chambers, and the place of the mercy seat;

<sup>12</sup>and the plans for all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, of all the chambers all around, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries for the dedicated things;

<sup>13</sup>also for the division of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the articles of service in the house of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>He gave gold by weight for things of gold, for all articles used in every kind of service; also silver for all articles of silver by weight, for all articles used in every kind of service;

<sup>15</sup>the weight for the lampstands of gold, and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand.

<sup>16</sup>And by weight he gave gold for the tables of the showbread, for each table, and silver for the tables of silver;

<sup>17</sup>also pure gold for the forks, the basins, the pitchers of pure gold, and the golden bowls--he gave gold by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls, silver by weight for every bowl;

<sup>18</sup>and refined gold by weight for the altar of incense, and for the construction of the chariot, that is, the gold cherubim that spread their wings and overshadowed the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>"All this," said David, "the LORD made me understand in writing, by His hand upon me, all the works of these plans."

<sup>20</sup>And David said to his son Solomon, "Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God--my God--will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship, for every kind of service; also the leaders and all the people will be completely at your command."

29 Furthermore King David said to all the assembly: "My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced; and the work is great, because the temple is not for man but for the LORD God.

<sup>2</sup>Now for the house of my God I have prepared with all my might: gold for things to be made of gold, silver for things of silver, bronze for things of bronze, iron for things of iron, wood for things of wood, onyx stones, stones to be set, glistening stones of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and marble slabs in abundance.

<sup>3</sup>Moreover, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, my own special treasure of gold and silver:

<sup>4</sup>three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses;

<sup>5</sup>the gold for things of gold and the silver for things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be done by the hands of craftsmen. Who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?"

<sup>6</sup>Then the leaders of the fathers' houses, leaders of the tribes of Israel, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the officers over the king's work, offered willingly.

<sup>7</sup>They gave for the work of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

<sup>8</sup>And whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, into the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

<sup>9</sup>Then the people rejoiced, for they had offered willingly, because with a loyal heart they had offered willingly to the LORD; and King David also rejoiced greatly.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the assembly; and David said: "Blessed are You, LORD God of Israel, our Father, forever and ever.

<sup>11</sup>Yours, O LORD, is the greatness, The power and the glory, The victory and the majesty; For all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours; Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, And You are exalted as head over all.

<sup>12</sup>Both riches and honor come from You, And You reign over all. In Your hand is power and might; In Your hand it is to make great And to give strength to all.

<sup>13</sup>"Now therefore, our God, We thank You And praise Your glorious name.

<sup>14</sup>But who am I, and who are my people, That we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from You, And of Your own we have given You.

<sup>15</sup>For we are aliens and pilgrims before You, As were all our fathers; Our days on earth are as a shadow, And without hope.

<sup>16</sup>"O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy name is from Your hand, and is all Your own.

<sup>17</sup>I know also, my God, that You test the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here to offer willingly to You.

<sup>18</sup>O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the intent of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and fix their heart toward You.

<sup>19</sup>And give my son Solomon a loyal heart to keep Your commandments and Your testimonies and Your statutes, to do all these things, and to build the temple for which I have made provision."

<sup>20</sup>Then David said to all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God." So all the assembly blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king.

<sup>21</sup>And they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

<sup>22</sup>So they ate and drank before the LORD with great gladness on that day. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before the LORD to be the leader, and Zadok to be priest.

<sup>23</sup>Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

<sup>24</sup>All the leaders and the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David, submitted themselves to King Solomon.

<sup>25</sup>So the LORD exalted Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

<sup>27</sup>And the period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem.

<sup>28</sup>So he died in a good old age, full of days and riches and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his place.

<sup>29</sup>Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer, <sup>30</sup>with all his reign and his might, and the events that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the lands.

2nd Chronicles

1 Now Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and exalted him exceedingly.

2 And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' houses.

3 Then Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for the tabernacle of meeting with God was there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

4 But David had brought up the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim to the place David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Now the bronze altar that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the LORD; Solomon and the assembly sought Him there.

6 And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

7 On that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

8 And Solomon said to God: "You have shown great mercy to David my father, and have made me king in his place.

9 Now, O LORD God, let Your promise to David my father be established, for You have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this great people of Yours?"

11 Then God said to Solomon: "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches or wealth or honor or the life of your enemies, nor have you asked long life--but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge My people over whom I have made you king--

12 wisdom and knowledge are granted to you; and I will give you riches and wealth and honor, such as none of the kings have had who were before you, nor shall any after you have the like."

13 So Solomon came to Jerusalem from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the tabernacle of meeting, and reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>Also the king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.

<sup>17</sup>They also acquired and imported from Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty; thus, through their agents, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

2Then Solomon determined to build a temple for the name of the LORD, and a royal house for himself.

<sup>2</sup>Solomon selected seventy thousand men to bear burdens, eighty thousand to quarry stone in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.

<sup>3</sup>Then Solomon sent to Hiram king of Tyre, saying: <sup>4</sup>As you have dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build himself a house to dwell in, so deal with me.

<sup>4</sup>Behold, I am building a temple for the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him, to burn before Him sweet incense, for the continual showbread, for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, on the New Moons, and on the set feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel.

<sup>5</sup>And the temple which I build will be great, for our God is greater than all gods.

<sup>6</sup>But who is able to build Him a temple, since heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a temple, except to burn sacrifice before Him?

<sup>7</sup>Therefore send me at once a man skillful to work in gold and silver, in bronze and iron, in purple and crimson and blue, who has skill to engrave with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.

<sup>8</sup>Also send me cedar and cypress and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants have skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and indeed my servants will be with your servants, <sup>9</sup>to prepare timber for me in abundance, for the temple which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful.

<sup>10</sup>And indeed I will give to your servants, the woodsmen who cut timber, twenty thousand kors of ground wheat, twenty thousand kors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

<sup>11</sup>Then Hiram king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon: <sup>4</sup>Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them.

<sup>12</sup>Hiram also said: <sup>4</sup>Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, for He has given King David a wise son, endowed with prudence and understanding, who will build a temple for the LORD and a royal house for himself!

<sup>13</sup>And now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, Hiram my master craftsman

<sup>14</sup>(the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre), skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, purple and blue, fine linen and crimson, and to make any engraving and to accomplish any plan which may be given to him, with your skillful men and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.

<sup>15</sup>Now therefore, the wheat, the barley, the oil, and the wine which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants.

<sup>16</sup>And we will cut wood from Lebanon, as much as you need; we will bring it to you in rafts by sea to Joppa, and you will carry it up to Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup>Then Solomon numbered all the aliens who were in the land of Israel, after the census in which David his father had numbered them; and there were found to be one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred.

<sup>18</sup>And he made seventy thousand of them bearers of burdens, eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred overseers to make the people work.

3Now Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

<sup>2</sup>And he began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

<sup>3</sup>This is the foundation which Solomon laid for building the house of God: The length was sixty cubits (by cubits according to the former measure) and the width twenty cubits.

<sup>4</sup>And the vestibule that was in front of the sanctuary was twenty cubits long across the width of the house, and the height was one hundred and twenty. He overlaid the inside with pure gold.

<sup>5</sup>The larger room he paneled with cypress which he overlaid with fine gold, and he carved palm trees and chainwork on it.

<sup>6</sup>And he decorated the house with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was gold from Parvaim.

<sup>7</sup>He also overlaid the house--the beams and doorposts, its walls and doors--with gold; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

<sup>8</sup>And he made the Most Holy Place. Its length was according to the width of the house, twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits. He overlaid it with six hundred talents of fine gold.

<sup>9</sup>The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold; and he overlaid the upper area with gold.

<sup>10</sup>In the Most Holy Place he made two cherubim, fashioned by carving, and overlaid them with gold.

<sup>11</sup>The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits in overall length: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub;

<sup>12</sup>one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing also was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub.

<sup>13</sup>The wings of these cherubim spanned twenty cubits overall. They stood on their feet, and they faced inward.

<sup>14</sup>And he made the veil of blue, purple, crimson, and fine linen, and wove cherubim into it.

<sup>15</sup>Also he made in front of the temple two pillars thirty-five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

<sup>16</sup>He made wreaths of chainwork, as in the inner sanctuary, and put them on top of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the wreaths of chainwork.

<sup>17</sup>Then he set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand and the other on the left; he called the name of the one on the right hand Jachin, and the name of the one on the left Boaz.

4Moreover he made a bronze altar: twenty cubits was its length, twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.

<sup>2</sup>Then he made the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.

<sup>3</sup>And under it was the likeness of oxen encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The oxen were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

<sup>4</sup>It stood on twelve oxen: three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward.

<sup>5</sup>It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained three thousand baths.

<sup>6</sup>He also made ten lavers, and put five on the right side and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as they offered for the burnt offering they would wash in them, but the Sea was for the priests to wash in.

<sup>7</sup>And he made ten lampstands of gold according to their design, and set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.

<sup>9</sup>Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court and doors for the court; and he overlaid these doors with bronze.

<sup>11</sup>Then Hiram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the house of God:

<sup>12</sup>the two pillars and the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars;

<sup>13</sup>four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the pillars);

<sup>14</sup>he also made carts and the lavers on the carts;

<sup>17</sup>In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay molds, between Succoth and Zeredah.

<sup>18</sup>And Solomon had all these articles made in such great abundance that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

<sup>19</sup>Thus Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of God: the altar of gold and the tables on which was the showbread;

<sup>21</sup>with the flowers and the lamps and the wick-trimmers of gold, of purest gold;

<sup>22</sup>the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold. As for the entry of the sanctuary, its inner doors to the Most Holy Place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple, were gold.

5 So all the work that Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in the things which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and all the furnishings. And he put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore all the men of Israel assembled with the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month.

<sup>4</sup>So all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

<sup>5</sup>Then they brought up the ark, the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up.

<sup>6</sup>Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him before the ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.

<sup>7</sup>Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

<sup>8</sup>For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.

<sup>9</sup>The poles extended so that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. And they are there to this day.

<sup>10</sup>Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they had come out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup>And it came to pass when the priests came out of the Most Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without keeping to their divisions),

<sup>12</sup>and the Levites who were the singers, all those of Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, stood at the east end of the altar, clothed in white linen, having cymbals, stringed instruments and harps, and with them one hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets--

<sup>13</sup>indeed it came to pass, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying: "For He is good, For His mercy endures forever," that the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud,

<sup>14</sup>so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

6 Then Solomon spoke: "The LORD said He would dwell in the dark cloud.

<sup>2</sup>I have surely built You an exalted house, And a place for You to dwell in forever."

<sup>3</sup>Then the king turned around and blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.

<sup>4</sup>And he said: "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has fulfilled with His hands what He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying, <sup>5</sup>"Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that My name might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a ruler over My people Israel.

<sup>6</sup>Yet I have chosen Jerusalem, that My name may be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.'

<sup>7</sup>Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>But the LORD said to my father David, "Whereas it was in your heart to build a temple for My name, you did well in that it was in your heart.

<sup>9</sup>Nevertheless you shall not build the temple, but your son who will come from your body, he shall build the temple for My name.'

<sup>10</sup>So the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke, and I have filled the position of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised; and I have built the temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>11</sup>And there I have put the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with the children of Israel."

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands

<sup>13</sup>(for Solomon had made a bronze platform five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and he stood on it, knelt down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven);

<sup>14</sup>and he said: "LORD God of Israel, there is no God in heaven or on earth like You, who keep Your covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts.

<sup>15</sup>You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father; You have both spoken with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what You promised Your servant David my father, saying, "You shall not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne of Israel, only if your sons take heed to their way, that they walk in My law as you have walked before Me.'

<sup>17</sup>And now, O LORD God of Israel, let Your word come true, which You have spoken to Your servant David.

<sup>18</sup>"But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You. How much less this temple which I have built!

<sup>19</sup>Yet regard the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, and listen to the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You:

<sup>20</sup>that Your eyes may be open toward this temple day and night, toward the place where You said You would put Your name, that You may hear the prayer which Your servant makes toward this place.

<sup>21</sup>And may You hear the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and when You hear, forgive.

<sup>22</sup>"If anyone sins against his neighbor, and is forced to take an oath, and comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this temple, <sup>23</sup>then hear from heaven, and act, and judge Your servants, bringing retribution on the wicked by bringing his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

<sup>24</sup>"Or if Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and return and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication before You in this temple, <sup>25</sup>then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to them and their fathers.

<sup>26</sup>"When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them,

<sup>27</sup>then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, that You may teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

<sup>28</sup>"When there is famine in the land, pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is;

<sup>29</sup>whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, when each one knows his own burden and his own grief, and spreads out his hands to this temple:

<sup>30</sup>then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men), <sup>31</sup>that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

<sup>32</sup>"Moreover, concerning a foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for the sake of Your great name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray in this temple;

<sup>33</sup>then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, that all peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this temple which I have built is called by Your name.

<sup>34</sup>"When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them, and when they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name,

<sup>36</sup>"When they sin against You (for there is no one who does not sin), and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive to a land far or near;

<sup>37</sup>yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of their captivity, saying, "We have sinned, we have done wrong, and have committed wickedness";

<sup>38</sup>and when they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been carried captive, and pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and toward the temple which I have built for Your name:

<sup>39</sup>then hear from heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive

Your people who have sinned against You.

<sup>40</sup>Now, my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place.

<sup>41</sup>"Now therefore, Arise, O LORD God, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength. Let Your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, And let Your saints rejoice in goodness.

<sup>42</sup>"O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Your Anointed; Remember the mercies of Your servant David."

7 When Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

<sup>2</sup>And the priests could not enter the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.

<sup>3</sup>When all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped and praised the LORD, saying: "For He is good, For His mercy endures forever."

<sup>4</sup>Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

<sup>6</sup>And the priests attended to their services; the Levites also with instruments of the music of the LORD, which King David had made to praise the LORD, saying, "For His mercy endures forever," whenever David offered praise by their ministry. The priests sounded trumpets opposite them, while all Israel stood.

<sup>7</sup>Furthermore Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat.

<sup>8</sup>At that time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>And on the eighth day they held a sacred assembly, for they observed the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

<sup>10</sup>On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the good that the LORD had done for David, for Solomon, and for His people Israel.

<sup>11</sup>Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's house; and Solomon successfully accomplished all that came into his heart to make in the house of the LORD and in his own house.

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.

<sup>13</sup>When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among My people, <sup>14</sup>if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

<sup>15</sup>Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place.

<sup>16</sup>For now I have chosen and sanctified this house, that My name may be there forever; and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

<sup>17</sup>As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments,

<sup>18</sup>then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, "You shall not fail to have a man as ruler in Israel."

<sup>19</sup>"But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, and worship them,

<sup>20</sup>then I will uproot them from My land which I have given them; and this house which I have sanctified for My name I will cast out of My sight, and will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

<sup>21</sup>"And as for this house, which is exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and say, "Why has the LORD done thus to this land and this house?"

<sup>22</sup>Then they will answer, "Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this calamity on them."

8 It came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house, <sup>2</sup>that the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them; and he settled the children of Israel there.

<sup>4</sup>He also built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities which he built in Hamath.

<sup>5</sup>He built Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars,

<sup>6</sup>also Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities and the cities of the cavalry, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

<sup>7</sup>All the people who were left of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel--

<sup>9</sup>But Solomon did not make the children of Israel servants for his work. Some were men of war, captains of his officers, captains of his chariots, and his cavalry.

<sup>10</sup>And others were chiefs of the officials of King Solomon: two hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people.

<sup>11</sup>Now Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of David to the house he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy."

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built before the vestibule, <sup>13</sup>according to the daily rate, offering according to the commandment of Moses, for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the three appointed yearly feasts--the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>14</sup>And, according to the order of David his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, the Levites for their duties (to praise and serve before the priests) as the duty of each day required, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at each gate; for so David the man of God had commanded.

<sup>15</sup>They did not depart from the command of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter or concerning the treasuries.

<sup>16</sup>Now all the work of Solomon was well-ordered from the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

<sup>17</sup>Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath on the seacoast, in the land of Edom.

<sup>18</sup>And Hiram sent him ships by the hand of his servants, and servants who knew the sea. They went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and acquired four hundred and fifty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

9 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions, having a very great retinue, camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

<sup>2</sup>So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for Solomon that he could not explain it to her.

<sup>3</sup>And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

<sup>4</sup>the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his cupbearers and their apparel, and his entryway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

<sup>5</sup>Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

<sup>6</sup>However I did not believe their words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You exceed the fame of which I heard.

<sup>7</sup>Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

<sup>8</sup>Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on His throne to be king for the LORD your God! Because your God has loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness."

<sup>9</sup>And she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones; there never were any spices such as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

<sup>10</sup>Also, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought alnum wood and precious stones.

<sup>11</sup>And the king made walkways of the alnum wood for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers; and there were none such as these seen before in the land of Judah.

<sup>12</sup>Now King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, much more than she had brought to the king. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

<sup>13</sup>The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, <sup>14</sup>besides what the traveling merchants and traders brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

<sup>15</sup>And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of hammered gold went into each shield.

<sup>16</sup>He also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; three hundred shekels of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

<sup>18</sup>The throne had six steps, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne; there were armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests.

<sup>19</sup>Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.

<sup>20</sup>All King Solomon's drinking vessels were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Not one was silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon.

<sup>21</sup>For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram. Once every three years the merchant ships came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.

<sup>22</sup>So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

<sup>23</sup>And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

<sup>25</sup>Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup>So he reigned over all the kings from the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.

<sup>27</sup>The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.

<sup>29</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

10 And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.

<sup>2</sup>So it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), that Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

<sup>3</sup>Then they sent for him and called him. And Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

<sup>4</sup>"Your father made our yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

<sup>5</sup>So he said to them, "Come back to me after three days." And the people departed.

<sup>6</sup>Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, saying, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"

<sup>7</sup>And they spoke to him, saying, "If you are kind to these people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be your servants forever."

<sup>8</sup>But he rejected the advice which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.

<sup>9</sup>And he said to them, "What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

<sup>10</sup>Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you should speak to the people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us'--thus you shall say to them: 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's waist!'"

<sup>11</sup>And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!"

<sup>12</sup>So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had directed, saying, "Come back to me the third day."

<sup>13</sup>Then the king answered them roughly. King Rehoboam rejected the advice of the elders,

<sup>14</sup>and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!"

<sup>15</sup>So the king did not listen to the people; for the turn of events was from God, that the LORD might fulfill His word, which He had spoken by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

<sup>16</sup>Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying: "What share have we in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to your tents, O Israel! Now see to your own house, O David!" So all Israel departed to their tents.

<sup>18</sup>Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of revenue; but the children of Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

11

Now when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled from the house of Judah and Benjamin one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

<sup>2</sup>But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

<sup>3</sup>"Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

<sup>5</sup>So Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah.

<sup>11</sup>And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, oil, and wine.

<sup>12</sup>Also in every city he put shields and spears, and made them very strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

<sup>13</sup>And from all their territories the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with him.

<sup>14</sup>For the Levites left their common-lands and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem, for Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them from serving as priests to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Then he appointed for himself priests for the high places, for the demons, and the calf idols which he had made.

<sup>16</sup>And after the Levites left, those from all the tribes of Israel, such as set their heart to seek the LORD God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers.

<sup>17</sup>So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years, because they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

<sup>18</sup>Then Rehoboam took for himself as wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of Eliah the son of Jesse.

<sup>21</sup>Now Rehoboam loved Maachah the granddaughter of Absalom more than all his wives and his concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

<sup>22</sup>And Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maachah as chief, to be leader among his brothers; for he intended to make him king.

<sup>23</sup>He dealt wisely, and dispersed some of his sons throughout all the territories of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city; and he gave them provisions in abundance. He also sought many wives for them.

12 Now it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom and had strengthened himself, that he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel along with him.

<sup>2</sup>And it happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD, <sup>3</sup>with twelve hundred chariots, sixty thousand horsemen, and people without number who came with him out of Egypt--the Lubim and the Sukkiim and the Ethiopians.

<sup>4</sup>And he took the fortified cities of Judah and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, who were gathered together in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Thus says the LORD: "You have forsaken Me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shishak."

<sup>6</sup>So the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, "The LORD is righteous."

<sup>7</sup>Now when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance. My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

<sup>8</sup>Nevertheless they will be his servants, that they may distinguish My service from the service of the kingdoms of the nations."

<sup>9</sup>So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took everything. He also carried away the gold shields which Solomon had made.

<sup>10</sup>Then King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who guarded the doorway of the king's house.

<sup>11</sup>And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guard would go and bring them out; then they would take them back into the guardroom.

<sup>12</sup>When he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and things also went well in Judah.

<sup>13</sup>Thus King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Now Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king; and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

<sup>14</sup>And he did evil, because he did not prepare his heart to seek the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>The acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

<sup>16</sup>So Rehoboam rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David. Then Abijah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.

<sup>2</sup>He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

<sup>3</sup>Abijah set the battle in order with an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand choice men. Jeroboam also drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand choice men, mighty men of valor.

<sup>4</sup>Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

<sup>5</sup>Should you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the dominion over Israel to David forever, to him and his sons, by a covenant of salt?

<sup>6</sup>Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord.

<sup>7</sup>Then worthless rogues gathered to him, and strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and inexperienced and could not withstand them.

<sup>8</sup>And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and with you are the gold calves which Jeroboam made for you as gods.

<sup>9</sup>Have you not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests, like the peoples of other lands, so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may be a priest of things that are not gods?

<sup>10</sup>But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the priests who minister to the LORD are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites attend to their duties.

<sup>11</sup>And they burn to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense; they also set the showbread in order on the pure gold table, and the lampstand of gold with its lamps to burn every evening; for we keep the command of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken Him.

<sup>12</sup>Now look, God Himself is with us as our head, and His priests with sounding trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you shall not prosper!"

<sup>13</sup>But Jeroboam caused an ambush to go around behind them; so they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

<sup>14</sup>And when Judah looked around, to their surprise the battle line was at both front and rear; and they cried out to the LORD, and the priests sounded the trumpets.

<sup>15</sup>Then the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

<sup>16</sup>And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand.

<sup>17</sup>Then Abijah and his people struck them with a great slaughter; so five hundred thousand choice men of Israel fell slain.

<sup>19</sup>And Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephraim with its villages.

<sup>20</sup>So Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah; and the LORD struck him, and he died.

<sup>21</sup>But Abijah grew mighty, married fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

14 So Abijah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.

<sup>3</sup>for he removed the altars of the foreign gods and the high places, and broke down the sacred pillars and cut down the wooden images.

<sup>4</sup>He commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to observe the law and the commandment.

<sup>5</sup>He also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom was quiet under him.

<sup>6</sup>And he built fortified cities in Judah, for the land had rest; he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him rest.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered.

<sup>8</sup>And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah who carried shields and spears, and from Benjamin two hundred and eighty thousand men who carried shields and drew bows; all these were mighty men of valor.

<sup>9</sup>Then Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to Mareshah.

<sup>10</sup>So Asa went out against him, and they set the troops in battle array in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

<sup>11</sup>And Asa cried out to the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, it is nothing for You to help, whether with many or with those who have no power; help us, O LORD our God, for we rest on You, and in Your name we go against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God; do not let man prevail against You!"

<sup>12</sup>So the LORD struck the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

<sup>13</sup>And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. So the Ethiopians were overthrown, and they could not recover, for they were broken before the LORD and His army. And they carried away very much spoil.

<sup>14</sup>Then they defeated all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of the LORD came upon them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was exceedingly much spoil in them.

<sup>15</sup>They also attacked the livestock enclosures, and carried off sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

15 Now the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded.

<sup>2</sup>And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him: "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you while you are with Him. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.

<sup>3</sup>For a long time Israel has been without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without law;

<sup>4</sup>but when in their trouble they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and sought Him, He was found by them.

<sup>5</sup>And in those times there was no peace to the one who went out, nor to the one who came in, but great turmoil was on all the inhabitants of the lands.

<sup>6</sup>So nation was destroyed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every adversity.

<sup>7</sup>But you, be strong and do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded!"

<sup>8</sup>And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities which he had taken in the mountains of Ephraim; and he restored the altar of the LORD that was before the vestibule of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>Then he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who dwelt with them from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, for they came over to him in great numbers from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

<sup>10</sup>So they gathered together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

<sup>11</sup>And they offered to the LORD at that time seven hundred bulls and seven thousand sheep from the spoil they had brought.

<sup>12</sup>Then they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

<sup>13</sup>and whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel was to be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

<sup>14</sup>Then they took an oath before the LORD with a loud voice, with shouting and trumpets and rams' horns.

<sup>15</sup>And all Judah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and sought Him with all their soul; and He was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest all around.

<sup>16</sup>Also he removed Maachah, the mother of Asa the king, from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of Asherah; and Asa cut down her obscene image, then crushed and burned it by the Brook Kidron.

<sup>17</sup>But the high places were not removed from Israel. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was loyal all his days.

<sup>18</sup>He also brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated and that he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils.

<sup>19</sup>And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

16In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and built Ramah, that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

<sup>2</sup>Then Asa brought silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-Hadad king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

<sup>3</sup>"Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you silver and gold; come, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

<sup>6</sup>Then King Asa took all Judah, and they carried away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them he built Geba and Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup>And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him: "Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped from your hand.

<sup>8</sup>Were the Ethiopians and the Lubim not a huge army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your hand.

<sup>9</sup>For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him. In this you have done foolishly; therefore from now on you shall have wars."

<sup>10</sup>Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in prison, for he was enraged at him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

<sup>11</sup>Note that the acts of Asa, first and last, are indeed written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>12</sup>And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and his malady was severe; yet in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but the physicians.

<sup>13</sup>So Asa rested with his fathers; he died in the forty-first year of his reign.

<sup>14</sup>They buried him in his own tomb, which he had made for himself in the City of David; and they laid him in the bed which was filled with spices and various ingredients prepared in a mixture of ointments. They made a very great burning for him.

17 Then Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel.

<sup>2</sup>And he placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had taken.

<sup>3</sup>Now the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the former ways of his father David; he did not seek the Baals, <sup>4</sup>but sought the God of his father, and walked in His commandments and not according to the acts of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah gave presents to Jehoshaphat, and he had riches and honor in abundance.

<sup>6</sup>And his heart took delight in the ways of the LORD; moreover he removed the high places and wooden images from Judah.

<sup>7</sup>Also in the third year of his reign he sent his leaders, Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

<sup>8</sup>And with them he sent Levites: Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah--the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.

<sup>9</sup>So they taught in Judah, and had the Book of the Law of the LORD with them; they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught the people.

<sup>10</sup>And the fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

<sup>11</sup>Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver as tribute; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

<sup>12</sup>So Jehoshaphat became increasingly powerful, and he built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.

<sup>13</sup>He had much property in the cities of Judah; and the men of war, mighty men of valor, were in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>These are their numbers, according to their fathers' houses. Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valor;

<sup>15</sup>and next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand;

<sup>16</sup>and next to him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to the LORD, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor.

<sup>17</sup>Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield;

<sup>18</sup>and next to him was Jehozabad, and with him one hundred and eighty thousand prepared for war.

18 Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance; and by marriage he allied himself with Ahab.

<sup>2</sup>After some years he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria; and Ahab killed sheep and oxen in abundance for him and the people who were with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>3</sup>So Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?" And he answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will be with you in the war."

<sup>4</sup>Also Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire for the word of the LORD today."

<sup>5</sup>Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" So they said, "Go up, for God will deliver it into the king's hand."

<sup>6</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of Him?"

<sup>7</sup>So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!"

<sup>8</sup>Then the king of Israel called one of his officers and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imla quickly!"

<sup>9</sup>The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, clothed in their robes, sat each on his throne; and they sat at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

<sup>10</sup>Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the LORD: "With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed."

<sup>11</sup>And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."

<sup>12</sup>Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Therefore please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement."

<sup>13</sup>And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, whatever my God says, that I will speak."

<sup>14</sup>Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" And he said, "Go and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand!"

<sup>15</sup>So the king said to him, "How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

<sup>16</sup>Then he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, "These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace."

<sup>17</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

<sup>19</sup>And the LORD said, "Who will persuade Ahab king of Israel to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.

<sup>20</sup>Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, "I will persuade him.' The LORD said to him, "In what way?"

<sup>21</sup>So he said, "I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, "You shall persuade him and also prevail; go out and do so.'

<sup>22</sup>Therefore look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

<sup>23</sup>Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

<sup>24</sup>And Micaiah said, "Indeed you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!"

<sup>25</sup>Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;

<sup>26</sup>and say, "Thus says the king: "Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction, until I return in peace."""

<sup>27</sup>But Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

<sup>28</sup>So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>29</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

<sup>30</sup>Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."

<sup>31</sup>So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "It is the king of Israel!" Therefore they surrounded him to attack; but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God diverted them from him.

<sup>32</sup>For so it was, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

<sup>33</sup>Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

<sup>34</sup>The battle increased that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Syrians until evening; and about the time of sunset he died.

19 Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned safely to his house in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Therefore the wrath of the LORD is upon you.

<sup>3</sup>Nevertheless good things are found in you, in that you have removed the wooden images from the land, and have prepared your heart to seek God."

<sup>4</sup>So Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the mountains of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD God of their fathers.

<sup>5</sup>Then he set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, <sup>6</sup>and said to the judges, "Take heed to what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment.

<sup>7</sup>Now therefore, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take care and do it, for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, no partiality, nor taking of bribes."

<sup>8</sup>Moreover in Jerusalem, for the judgment of the LORD and for controversies, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites and priests, and some of the chief fathers of Israel, when they returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>And he commanded them, saying, "Thus you shall act in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and with a loyal heart:

<sup>10</sup>Whatever case comes to you from your brethren who dwell in their cities, whether of bloodshed or offenses against law or commandment, against statutes or ordinances, you shall warn them, lest they trespass against the LORD and wrath come upon you and your brethren. Do this, and you will not be guilty.

<sup>11</sup>And take notice: Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters; also the Levites will be officials before you. Behave courageously, and the LORD will be with the good."

20 It happened after this that the people of Moab with the people of Ammon, and others with them besides the Ammonites, came to battle against Jehoshaphat.

<sup>2</sup>Then some came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, from Syria; and they are in Hazazon Tamar" (which is En Gedi).

<sup>3</sup>And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

<sup>4</sup>So Judah gathered together to ask help from the LORD; and from all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

<sup>6</sup>and said: "O LORD God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven, and do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and in Your hand is there not power and might, so that no one is able to withstand You?

<sup>7</sup>Are You not our God, who drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and gave it to the descendants of Abraham Your friend forever?

<sup>8</sup>And they dwell in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your name, saying,

<sup>9</sup>"If disaster comes upon us--sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine--we will stand before this temple and in Your presence (for Your name is in this temple), and cry out to You in our affliction, and You will hear and save.'

<sup>10</sup>And now, here are the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir--whom You would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them and did not destroy them--

<sup>11</sup>here they are, rewarding us by coming to throw us out of Your possession which You have given us to inherit.

<sup>12</sup>O our God, will You not judge them? For we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon You."

<sup>14</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly.

<sup>15</sup>And he said, "Listen, all you of Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you, King Jehoshaphat! Thus says the LORD to you: "Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's.

<sup>16</sup>Tomorrow go down against them. They will surely come up by the Ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the brook before the Wilderness of Jeruel.

<sup>17</sup>You will not need to fight in this battle. Position yourselves, stand still and see the salvation of the LORD, who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem!' Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, for the LORD is with you."

<sup>18</sup>And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem bowed before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>Then the Levites of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with voices loud and high.

<sup>20</sup>So they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in the LORD your God, and you shall be established; believe His prophets, and you shall prosper."

<sup>21</sup>And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who should sing to the LORD, and who should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army and were saying: "Praise the LORD, For His mercy endures forever."

<sup>22</sup>Now when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated.

<sup>23</sup>For the people of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to utterly kill and destroy them. And when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

<sup>24</sup>So when Judah came to a place overlooking the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude; and there were their dead bodies, fallen on the earth. No one had escaped.

<sup>25</sup>When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away their spoil, they found among them an abundance of valuables on the dead bodies, and precious jewelry, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away; and they were three days gathering the spoil because there was so much.

<sup>26</sup>And on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Berachah, for there they blessed the LORD; therefore the name of that place was called The Valley of Berachah until this day.

<sup>27</sup>Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat in front of them, to go back to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had made them rejoice over their enemies.

<sup>28</sup>So they came to Jerusalem, with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets, to the house of the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>Then the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest all around.

<sup>31</sup>So Jehoshaphat was king over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

<sup>32</sup>And he walked in the way of his father Asa, and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>Nevertheless the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

<sup>34</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

<sup>35</sup>After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who acted very wickedly.

<sup>36</sup>And he allied himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion Geber.

<sup>37</sup>But Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works." Then the ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

21 And Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

<sup>2</sup>He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>Their father gave them great gifts of silver and gold and precious things, with fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn.

<sup>4</sup>Now when Jehoram was established over the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself and killed all his brothers with the sword, and also others of the princes of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for he had the daughter of Ahab as a wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that He had made with David, and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons forever.

<sup>8</sup>In his days Edom revolted against Judah's authority, and made a king over themselves.

<sup>9</sup>So Jehoram went out with his officers, and all his chariots with him. And he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots.

<sup>10</sup>Thus Edom has been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. At that time Libnah revolted against his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

<sup>11</sup>Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit harlotry, and led Judah astray.

<sup>12</sup>And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, 4 Thus says the LORD God of your father David: 4 Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, or in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

<sup>13</sup>but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the harlot like the harlotry of the house of Ahab, and also have killed your brothers, those of your father's household, who were better than yourself,

<sup>14</sup>behold, the LORD will strike your people with a serious affliction--your children, your wives, and all your possessions;

<sup>15</sup>and you will become very sick with a disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out by reason of the sickness, day by day.

<sup>16</sup>Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabians who were near the Ethiopians.

<sup>17</sup>And they came up into Judah and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, and also his sons and his wives, so that there was not a son left to him except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

<sup>18</sup>After all this the LORD struck him in his intestines with an incurable disease.

<sup>19</sup>Then it happened in the course of time, after the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his sickness; so he died in severe pain. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning for his fathers.

<sup>20</sup>He was thirty-two years old when he became king. He reigned in Jerusalem eight years and, to no one's sorrow, departed. However they buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place, for the raiders who came with the Arabians into the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, reigned.

<sup>2</sup>Ahaziah was forty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri.

<sup>3</sup>He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother advised him to do wickedly.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction.

<sup>5</sup>He also followed their advice, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

<sup>6</sup>Then he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

<sup>7</sup>His going to Joram was God's occasion for Ahaziah's downfall; for when he arrived, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who served Ahaziah, that he killed them.

<sup>9</sup>Then he searched for Ahaziah; and they caught him (he was hiding in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu. When they had killed him, they buried him, "because," they said, "he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." So the house of Ahaziah had no one to assume power over the kingdom.

<sup>10</sup>Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs of the house of Judah.

<sup>11</sup>But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered, and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she did not kill him.

<sup>12</sup>And he was hidden with them in the house of God for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

23In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and made a covenant with the captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri.

<sup>2</sup>And they went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the chief fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Then all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has said of the sons of David.

<sup>4</sup>This is what you shall do: One-third of you entering on the Sabbath, of the priests and the Levites, shall be keeping watch over the doors;

<sup>5</sup>one-third shall be at the king's house; and one-third at the Gate of the Foundation. All the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>But let no one come into the house of the LORD except the priests and those of the Levites who serve. They may go in, for they are holy; but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>And the Levites shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the house, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."

<sup>8</sup>So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each man took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest had not dismissed the divisions.

<sup>9</sup>And Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had belonged to King David, that were in the temple of God.

<sup>10</sup>Then he set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and by the temple, all around the king.

<sup>11</sup>And they brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, gave him the Testimony, and made him king. Then Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, "Long live the king!"

<sup>12</sup>Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people in the temple of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>When she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, also the singers with musical instruments, and those who led in praise. So Athaliah tore her clothes and said, "Treason! Treason!"

<sup>14</sup>And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the priest had said, "Do not kill her in the house of the LORD."

<sup>15</sup>So they seized her; and she went by way of the entrance of the Horse Gate into the king's house, and they killed her there.

<sup>16</sup>Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, the people, and the king, that they should be the LORD's people.

<sup>17</sup>And all the people went to the temple of Baal, and tore it down. They broke in pieces its altars and images, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

<sup>18</sup>Also Jehoiada appointed the oversight of the house of the LORD to the hand of the priests, the Levites, whom David had assigned in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was established by David.

<sup>19</sup>And he set the gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the LORD, so that no one who was in any way unclean should enter.

<sup>20</sup>Then he took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD; and they went through the Upper Gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom.

<sup>21</sup>So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

24 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

<sup>3</sup> And Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

<sup>4</sup> Now it happened after this that Joash set his heart on repairing the house of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> Then he gathered the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather from all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that you do it quickly." However the Levites did not do it quickly.

<sup>6</sup> So the king called Jehoiada the chief priest, and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD and of the assembly of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?"

<sup>7</sup> For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God, and had also presented all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD to the Baals.

<sup>8</sup> Then at the king's command they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> And they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God had imposed on Israel in the wilderness.

<sup>10</sup> Then all the leaders and all the people rejoiced, brought their contributions, and put them into the chest until all had given.

<sup>11</sup> So it was, at that time, when the chest was brought to the king's official by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, that the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it and returned it to its place. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

<sup>12</sup> The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also those who worked in iron and bronze to restore the house of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> So the workmen labored, and the work was completed by them; they restored the house of God to its original condition and reinforced it.

<sup>14</sup> When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; they made from it articles for the house of the LORD, articles for serving and offering, spoons and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

<sup>15</sup>But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; he was one hundred and thirty years old when he died.

<sup>16</sup>And they buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God and His house.

<sup>17</sup>Now after the death of Jehoiada the leaders of Judah came and bowed down to the king. And the king listened to them.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served wooden images and idols; and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem because of their trespass.

<sup>19</sup>Yet He sent prophets to them, to bring them back to the LORD; and they testified against them, but they would not listen.

<sup>20</sup>Then the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, who stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God: "Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, He also has forsaken you."

<sup>21</sup>So they conspired against him, and at the command of the king they stoned him with stones in the court of the house of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son; and as he died, he said, "The LORD look on it, and repay!"

<sup>23</sup>So it happened in the spring of the year that the army of Syria came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

<sup>24</sup>For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; but the LORD delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

<sup>25</sup>And when they had withdrawn from him (for they left him severely wounded), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed. So he died. And they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

<sup>26</sup>These are the ones who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

<sup>27</sup>Now concerning his sons, and the many oracles about him, and the repairing of the house of God, indeed they are written in the annals of the book of the kings. Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

25Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem.

His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a loyal heart.

<sup>3</sup>Now it happened, as soon as the kingdom was established for him, that he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king.

<sup>4</sup>However he did not execute their children, but did as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall the children be put to death for their fathers; but a person shall die for his own sin."

<sup>5</sup>Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together and set over them captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, according to their fathers' houses, throughout all Judah and Benjamin; and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them to be three hundred thousand choice men, able to go to war, who could handle spear and shield.

<sup>7</sup>But a man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel—not with any of the children of Ephraim.

<sup>8</sup>But if you go, be gone! Be strong in battle! Even so, God shall make you fall before the enemy; for God has power to help and to overthrow."

<sup>9</sup>Then Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do about the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?" And the man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give you much more than this."

<sup>10</sup>So Amaziah discharged the troops that had come to him from Ephraim, to go back home. Therefore their anger was greatly aroused against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

<sup>11</sup>Then Amaziah strengthened himself, and leading his people, he went to the Valley of Salt and killed ten thousand of the people of Seir.

<sup>12</sup>Also the children of Judah took captive ten thousand alive, brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were dashed in pieces.

<sup>13</sup>But as for the soldiers of the army which Amaziah had discharged, so that they would not go with him to battle, they raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth Horon, killed three thousand in them, and took much spoil.

<sup>14</sup>Now it was so, after Amaziah came from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the people of Seir, set them up to be his gods, and bowed down before them and burned incense to them.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore the anger of the LORD was aroused against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, "Why have you sought the gods of the people, which could not rescue their own people from your hand?"

<sup>16</sup>So it was, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, "Have we made you the king's counselor? Cease! Why should you be killed?" Then the prophet ceased, and said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not heeded my advice."

<sup>17</sup>Now Amaziah king of Judah asked advice and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one another in battle."

<sup>18</sup>And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife'; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.

<sup>19</sup>Indeed you say that you have defeated the Edomites, and your heart is lifted up to boast. Stay at home now; why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall--you and Judah with you?"

<sup>20</sup>But Amaziah would not heed, for it came from God, that He might give them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought the gods of Edom.

<sup>21</sup>So Joash king of Israel went out; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

<sup>22</sup>And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent.

<sup>23</sup>Then Joash the king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh; and he brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate--four hundred cubits.

<sup>24</sup>And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

<sup>25</sup>Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

<sup>26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, indeed are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

<sup>27</sup>After the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

<sup>28</sup>Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of Judah.

26 Now all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

<sup>3</sup>Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

<sup>5</sup>He sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper.

<sup>6</sup>Now he went out and made war against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities around Ashdod and among the Philistines.

<sup>7</sup>God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and against the Meunites.

<sup>8</sup>Also the Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah. His fame spread as far as the entrance of Egypt, for he became exceedingly strong.

<sup>9</sup>And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress of the wall; then he fortified them.

<sup>10</sup>Also he built towers in the desert. He dug many wells, for he had much livestock, both in the lowlands and in the plains; he also had farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in Carmel, for he loved the soil.

<sup>11</sup>Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men who went out to war by companies, according to the number on their roll as prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

<sup>12</sup>The total number of chief officers of the mighty men of valor was two thousand six hundred.

<sup>13</sup>And under their authority was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

<sup>14</sup>Then Uzziah prepared for them, for the entire army, shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows, and slings to cast stones.

<sup>15</sup>And he made devices in Jerusalem, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and large stones. So his fame spread far and wide, for he was marvelously helped till he became strong.

<sup>16</sup>But when he was strong his heart was lifted up, to his destruction, for he transgressed against the LORD his God by entering the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

<sup>17</sup>So Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him were eighty priests of the LORD--valiant men.

<sup>18</sup>And they withstood King Uzziah, and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed! You shall have no honor from the LORD God."

<sup>19</sup>Then Uzziah became furious; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was angry with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead, before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the incense altar.

<sup>20</sup>And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and there, on his forehead, he was leprous; so they thrust him out of that place. Indeed he also hurried to get out, because the LORD had struck him.

<sup>21</sup>King Uzziah was a leper until the day of his death. He dwelt in an isolated house, because he was a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. Then Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

<sup>22</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from first to last, the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz wrote.

<sup>23</sup>So Uzziah rested with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

27 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.

<sup>2</sup>And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done (although he did not enter the temple of the LORD). But still the people acted corruptly.

<sup>3</sup>He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD, and he built extensively on the wall of Ophel.

<sup>4</sup>Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers.

<sup>5</sup>He also fought with the king of the Ammonites and defeated them. And the people of Ammon gave him in that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The people of Ammon paid this to him in the second and third years also.

<sup>6</sup>So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

<sup>7</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

<sup>8</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>So Jotham rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD, as his father David had done.

<sup>2</sup>For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made molded images for the Baals.

<sup>3</sup>He burned incense in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. They defeated him, and carried away a great multitude of them as captives, and brought them to Damascus. Then he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who defeated him with a great slaughter.

<sup>6</sup>For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed one hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

<sup>7</sup>Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer over the house, and Elkanah who was second to the king.

<sup>8</sup>And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters; and they also took away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

<sup>9</sup>But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the army that came to Samaria, and said to them: "Look, because the LORD God of your fathers was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand; but you have killed them in a rage that reaches up to heaven.

<sup>10</sup>And now you propose to force the children of Judah and Jerusalem to be your male and female slaves; but are you not also guilty before the LORD your God?

<sup>11</sup>Now hear me, therefore, and return the captives, whom you have taken captive from your brethren, for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you."

<sup>12</sup>Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war,

<sup>13</sup>and said to them, "You shall not bring the captives here, for we already have offended the LORD. You intend to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel."

<sup>14</sup>So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the leaders and all the assembly.

<sup>15</sup>Then the men who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and from the spoil they clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them and gave them sandals, gave them food and drink, and anointed them; and they let all the feeble ones ride on donkeys. So they brought them to their brethren at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

<sup>17</sup>For again the Edomites had come, attacked Judah, and carried away captives.

<sup>18</sup>The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Sochoh with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages; and they dwelt there.

<sup>19</sup>For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had encouraged moral decline in Judah and had been continually unfaithful to the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>Also Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came to him and distressed him, and did not assist him.

<sup>21</sup>For Ahaz took part of the treasures from the house of the LORD, from the house of the king, and from the leaders, and he gave it to the king of Assyria; but he did not help him.

<sup>22</sup>Now in the time of his distress King Ahaz became increasingly unfaithful to the LORD. This is that King Ahaz.

<sup>23</sup>For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him, saying, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel.

<sup>24</sup>So Ahaz gathered the articles of the house of God, cut in pieces the articles of the house of God, shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

<sup>25</sup>And in every single city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

<sup>26</sup>Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>27</sup>So Ahaz rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem; but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

29 Hezekiah became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>2</sup>And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

<sup>3</sup>In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them.

<sup>4</sup>Then he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them in the East Square, <sup>5</sup>and said to them: "Hear me, Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry out the rubbish from the holy place.

<sup>6</sup>For our fathers have trespassed and done evil in the eyes of the LORD our God; they have forsaken Him, have turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD, and turned their backs on Him.

<sup>7</sup>They have also shut up the doors of the vestibule, put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore the wrath of the LORD fell upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He has given them up to trouble, to desolation, and to jeering, as you see with your eyes.

<sup>9</sup>For indeed, because of this our fathers have fallen by the sword; and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity.

<sup>10</sup>"Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us.

<sup>11</sup>My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and that you should minister to Him and burn incense."

<sup>12</sup>Then these Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

<sup>13</sup>of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

<sup>14</sup>of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

<sup>15</sup>And they gathered their brethren, sanctified themselves, and went according to the commandment of the king, at the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>Then the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and brought out all the debris that they found in the temple of the LORD to the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it out and carried it to the Brook Kidron.

<sup>17</sup>Now they began to sanctify on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD. So they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

<sup>18</sup>Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offerings with all its articles, and the table of the showbread with all its articles.

<sup>19</sup>Moreover all the articles which King Ahaz in his reign had cast aside in his transgression we have prepared and sanctified; and there they are, before the altar of the LORD."

<sup>20</sup>Then King Hezekiah rose early, gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>And they brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. Then he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. Likewise they killed the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar.

<sup>23</sup>Then they brought out the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them.

<sup>24</sup>And the priests killed them; and they presented their blood on the altar as a sin offering to make an atonement for all Israel, for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering be made for all Israel.

<sup>25</sup>And he stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, of Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for thus was the commandment of the LORD by His prophets.

<sup>26</sup>The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

<sup>27</sup>Then Hezekiah commanded them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD also began, with the trumpets and with the instruments of David king of Israel.

<sup>28</sup>So all the assembly worshiped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

<sup>29</sup>And when they had finished offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed and worshiped.

<sup>30</sup>Moreover King Hezekiah and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praise to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped.

<sup>31</sup>Then Hezekiah answered and said, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near, and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD." So the assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

<sup>32</sup>And the number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>The consecrated things were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.

<sup>34</sup>But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; therefore their brethren the Levites helped them until the work was ended and until the other priests had sanctified themselves, for the Levites were more diligent in sanctifying themselves than the priests.

<sup>35</sup>Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

<sup>36</sup>Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced that God had prepared the people, since the events took place so suddenly.

30 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>For the king and his leaders and all the assembly in Jerusalem had agreed to keep the Passover in the second month.

<sup>3</sup>For they could not keep it at the regular time, because a sufficient number of priests had not consecrated themselves, nor had the people gathered together at Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>So they resolved to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem, since they had not done it for a long time in the prescribed manner.

<sup>6</sup>Then the runners went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the king and his leaders, and spoke according to the command of the king: "Children of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; then He will return to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

<sup>7</sup>And do not be like your fathers and your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, so that He gave them up to desolation, as you see.

<sup>8</sup>Now do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD; and enter His sanctuary, which

He has sanctified forever, and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you.

<sup>9</sup>For if you return to the LORD, your brethren and your children will be treated with compassion by those who lead them captive, so that they may come back to this land; for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn His face from you if you return to Him."

<sup>10</sup>So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun; but they laughed at them and mocked them.

<sup>12</sup>Also the hand of God was on Judah to give them singleness of heart to obey the command of the king and the leaders, at the word of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>Now many people, a very great assembly, gathered at Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month.

<sup>14</sup>They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away all the incense altars and cast them into the Brook Kidron.

<sup>15</sup>Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought the burnt offerings to the house of the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>They stood in their place according to their custom, according to the Law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood received from the hand of the Levites.

<sup>17</sup>For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves; therefore the Levites had charge of the slaughter of the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>For a multitude of the people, many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD provide atonement for everyone

<sup>19</sup>who prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he is not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary."

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD listened to Hezekiah and healed the people.

<sup>21</sup>So the children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing to the LORD, accompanied by loud instruments.

<sup>22</sup>And Hezekiah gave encouragement to all the Levites who taught the good knowledge of the LORD; and they ate throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

<sup>23</sup>Then the whole assembly agreed to keep the feast another seven days, and they kept it another seven days with gladness.

<sup>24</sup>For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

<sup>25</sup>The whole assembly of Judah rejoiced, also the priests and Levites, all the assembly that came from Israel, the sojourners who came from the land of Israel, and those who dwelt in Judah.

<sup>26</sup>So there was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.

<sup>27</sup>Then the priests, the Levites, arose and blessed the people, and their voice was heard; and their prayer came up to His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

31 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke the sacred pillars in pieces, cut down the wooden images, and threw down the high places and the altars--from all Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh--until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned to their own cities, every man to his possession.

<sup>2</sup>And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites according to their divisions, each man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and peace offerings, to serve, to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>The king also appointed a portion of his possessions for the burnt offerings: for the morning and evening burnt offerings, the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and the New Moons and the set feasts, as it is written in the Law of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Moreover he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to contribute support for the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to the Law of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>As soon as the commandment was circulated, the children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits of grain and wine, oil and honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything.

<sup>6</sup>And the children of Israel and Judah, who dwelt in the cities of Judah, brought the tithe of oxen and sheep; also the tithe of holy things which were consecrated to the LORD their God they laid in heaps.

<sup>7</sup>In the third month they began laying them in heaps, and they finished in the seventh month.

<sup>8</sup>And when Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel.

<sup>9</sup>Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

<sup>10</sup>And Azariah the chief priest, from the house of Zadok, answered him and said, "Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left, for the LORD has blessed His people; and what is left is this great abundance."

<sup>11</sup>Now Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them.

<sup>12</sup>Then they faithfully brought in the offerings, the tithes, and the dedicated things; Cononiah the Levite had charge of them, and Shimei his brother was the next.

<sup>13</sup>Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

<sup>14</sup>Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the East Gate, was over the freewill offerings to God, to distribute the offerings of the LORD and the most holy things.

<sup>15</sup>And under him were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, his faithful assistants in the cities of the priests, to distribute allotments to their brethren by divisions, to the great as well as the small.

<sup>16</sup>Besides those males from three years old and up who were written in the genealogy, they distributed to everyone who entered the house of the LORD his daily portion for the work of his service, by his division,

<sup>17</sup>and to the priests who were written in the genealogy according to their father's house, and to the Levites from twenty years old and up according to their work, by their divisions,

<sup>18</sup>and to all who were written in the genealogy--their little ones and their wives, their sons and daughters, the whole company of them--for in their faithfulness they sanctified themselves in holiness.

<sup>19</sup>Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the commonlands of their cities, in every single city, there were men who were designated by name to distribute portions to all the males among the priests and to all who were listed by genealogies among the Levites.

<sup>20</sup>Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and he did what was good and right and true before the LORD his God.

<sup>21</sup>And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, in the law and in the commandment, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart. So he prospered.

32After these deeds of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered Judah; he encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them over to himself.

<sup>2</sup>And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that his purpose was to make war against Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup>he consulted with his leaders and commanders to stop the water from the springs which were outside the city; and they helped him.

<sup>4</sup>Thus many people gathered together who stopped all the springs and the brook that ran through the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water?"

<sup>5</sup>And he strengthened himself, built up all the wall that was broken, raised it up to the towers, and built another wall outside; also he repaired the Millo in the City of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance.

<sup>6</sup>Then he set military captains over the people, gathered them together to him in the open square of the city gate, and gave them encouragement, saying,

<sup>7</sup>"Be strong and courageous; do not be afraid nor dismayed before the king of Assyria, nor before all the multitude that is with him; for there are more with us than with him.

<sup>8</sup>With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles." And the people were strengthened by the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

<sup>9</sup>After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem (but he and all the forces with him laid siege against Lachish), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying, <sup>10</sup>"Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria: "In what do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem?"

<sup>11</sup>Does not Hezekiah persuade you to give yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, "The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria"?

<sup>12</sup>Has not the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, "You shall worship before one altar and burn incense on it"?

<sup>13</sup>Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hand?

<sup>14</sup>Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed that could deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand?

<sup>15</sup>Now therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or persuade you like this, and do not believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand?"

<sup>17</sup>He also wrote letters to revile the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, "As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people from my hand."

<sup>18</sup>Then they called out with a loud voice in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and trouble them, that they might take the city.

<sup>19</sup>And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth--the work of men's hands.

<sup>20</sup>Now because of this King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, prayed and cried out to heaven.

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD sent an angel who cut down every mighty man of valor, leader, and captain in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned shamefaced to his own land. And when he had gone into the temple of his god, some of his own offspring struck him down with the sword there.

<sup>22</sup>Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side.

<sup>23</sup>And many brought gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations thereafter.

<sup>24</sup>In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death, and he prayed to the LORD; and He spoke to him and gave him a sign.

<sup>25</sup>But Hezekiah did not repay according to the favor shown him, for his heart was lifted up; therefore wrath was looming over him and over Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup>Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

<sup>27</sup>Hezekiah had very great riches and honor. And he made himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of desirable items;

<sup>28</sup>storehouses for the harvest of grain, wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of livestock, and folds for flocks.

<sup>29</sup>Moreover he provided cities for himself, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much property.

<sup>30</sup>This same Hezekiah also stopped the water outlet of Upper Gihon, and brought the water by tunnel to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

<sup>31</sup>However, regarding the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, whom they sent to him to inquire about the wonder that was done in the land, God withdrew from him, in order to test him, that He might know all that was in his heart.

<sup>32</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, indeed they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>33</sup>So Hezekiah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

33Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; he raised up altars for the Baals, and made wooden images; and he worshiped all the host of heaven and served them.

<sup>4</sup>He also built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem shall My name be forever."

<sup>5</sup>And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Also he caused his sons to pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom; he practiced soothsaying, used witchcraft and sorcery, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

<sup>7</sup>He even set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

<sup>8</sup>and I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for your fathers--only if they are careful to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses."

<sup>9</sup>So Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they would not listen.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze fetters, and carried him off to Babylon.

<sup>12</sup>Now when he was in affliction, he implored the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, <sup>13</sup>and prayed to Him; and He received his entreaty, heard his supplication, and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

<sup>14</sup>After this he built a wall outside the City of David on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate; and it enclosed Ophel, and he raised it to a very great height. Then he put military captains in all the fortified cities of Judah.

<sup>15</sup>He took away the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem; and he cast them out of the city.

<sup>16</sup>He also repaired the altar of the LORD, sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>Nevertheless the people still sacrificed on the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

<sup>18</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

<sup>19</sup>Also his prayer and how God received his entreaty, and all his sin and trespass, and the sites where he built high places and set up wooden images and carved images, before he was humbled, indeed they are written among the sayings of Hozai.

<sup>20</sup>So Manasseh rested with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

<sup>21</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup>But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done; for Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and served them.

<sup>23</sup>And he did not humble himself before the LORD, as his father Manasseh had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

<sup>24</sup>Then his servants conspired against him, and killed him in his own house.

<sup>25</sup>But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

34 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

<sup>3</sup>For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images.

<sup>4</sup>They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and the incense altars which were above them he cut down; and the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images he broke in pieces, and made dust of them and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

<sup>5</sup>He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>And so he did in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali and all around, with axes.

<sup>7</sup>When he had broken down the altars and the wooden images, had beaten the carved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>In the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

<sup>9</sup>When they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites who kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, from all the remnant of Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin, and which they had brought back to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Then they put it in the hand of the foremen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they gave it to the workmen who worked in the house of the LORD, to repair and restore the house.

<sup>11</sup>They gave it to the craftsmen and builders to buy hewn stone and timber for beams, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>And the men did the work faithfully. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to supervise. Others of the Levites, all of whom were skillful with instruments of music, <sup>13</sup>were over the burden bearers and were overseers of all who did work in any kind of service. And some of the Levites were scribes, officers, and gatekeepers.

<sup>14</sup>Now when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD given by Moses.

<sup>15</sup>Then Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

<sup>16</sup>So Shaphan carried the book to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "All that was committed to your servants they are doing.

<sup>17</sup>And they have gathered the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workmen."

<sup>18</sup>Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

<sup>19</sup>Thus it happened, when the king heard the words of the Law, that he tore his clothes.

<sup>20</sup>Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,

<sup>21</sup>"Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for those who are left in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book."

<sup>22</sup>So Hilkiah and those the king had appointed went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke to her to that effect.

<sup>23</sup>Then she answered them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, "Tell the man who sent you to Me,

<sup>24</sup>"Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah,

<sup>25</sup>because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath will be poured out on this place, and not be quenched.'"

<sup>26</sup>But as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard--

<sup>27</sup>because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before Me, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you," says the LORD.

<sup>28</sup>"Surely I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the calamity which I will bring on this place and its inhabitants.'"" So they brought back word to the king.

<sup>29</sup>Then the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup>The king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem--the priests and the Levites, and all the people, great and small. And he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.

<sup>32</sup>And he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin take a stand. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

<sup>33</sup>Thus Josiah removed all the abominations from all the country that belonged to the children of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel diligently serve the LORD their God. All his days they did not depart from following the LORD God of their fathers.

35Now Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the first month.

<sup>2</sup>And he set the priests in their duties and encouraged them for the service of the house of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then he said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD: "Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built. It shall no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Prepare yourselves according to your fathers' houses, according to your divisions, following the written instruction of David king of Israel and the written instruction of Solomon his son.

<sup>5</sup>And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brethren the lay people, and according to the division of the father's house of the Levites.

<sup>6</sup>So slaughter the Passover offerings, consecrate yourselves, and prepare them for your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses."

<sup>7</sup>Then Josiah gave the lay people lambs and young goats from the flock, all for Passover offerings for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, as well as three thousand cattle; these were from the king's possessions.

<sup>8</sup>And his leaders gave willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred from the flock, and three hundred cattle.

<sup>9</sup>Also Conaniah, his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave to the Levites for Passover offerings five thousand from the flock and five hundred cattle.

<sup>10</sup>So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their places, and the Levites in their divisions, according to the king's command.

<sup>11</sup>And they slaughtered the Passover offerings; and the priests sprinkled the blood with their hands, while the Levites skinned the animals.

<sup>12</sup>Then they removed the burnt offerings that they might give them to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the lay people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. And so they did with the cattle.

<sup>13</sup>Also they roasted the Passover offerings with fire according to the ordinance; but the other holy offerings they boiled in pots, in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them quickly among all the lay people.

<sup>14</sup>Then afterward they prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy in offering burnt offerings and fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

<sup>15</sup>And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their places, according to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. Also the gatekeepers were at each gate; they did not have to leave their position, because their brethren the Levites prepared portions for them.

<sup>16</sup>So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah.

<sup>17</sup>And the children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

<sup>18</sup>There had been no Passover kept in Israel like that since the days of Samuel the prophet; and none of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as Josiah kept, with the priests and the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was kept.

<sup>20</sup>After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him.

<sup>21</sup>But he sent messengers to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I have not come against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; for God commanded me to make haste. Refrain from meddling with God, who is with me, lest He destroy you."

<sup>22</sup>Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself so that he might fight with him, and did not heed the words of Necho from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.

<sup>23</sup>And the archers shot King Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am severely wounded."

<sup>24</sup>His servants therefore took him out of that chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had, and they brought him to Jerusalem. So he died, and was buried in one of the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

<sup>25</sup>Jeremiah also lamented for Josiah. And to this day all the singing men and the singing women speak of Josiah in their lamentations. They made it a custom in Israel; and indeed they are written in the Laments.

<sup>26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his goodness, according to what was written in the Law of the LORD, <sup>27</sup>and his deeds from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

36 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Now the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

<sup>4</sup>Then the king of Egypt made Jehoahaz's brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother and carried him off to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

<sup>6</sup>Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him, and bound him in bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon.

<sup>7</sup>Nebuchadnezzar also carried off some of the articles from the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

<sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>At the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar summoned him and took him to Babylon, with the costly articles from the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah, Jehoiakim's brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>And he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear an oath by God; but he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>Moreover all the leaders of the priests and the people transgressed more and more, according to all the abominations of the nations, and defiled the house of the LORD which He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD God of their fathers sent warnings to them by His messengers, rising up early and sending them, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place.

<sup>16</sup>But they mocked the messengers of God, despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, till there was no remedy.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore He brought against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, on the aged or the weak; He gave them all into his hand.

<sup>18</sup>And all the articles from the house of God, great and small, the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his leaders, all these he took to Babylon.

<sup>19</sup>Then they burned the house of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its precious possessions.

<sup>20</sup>And those who escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon, where they became servants to him and his sons until the rule of the kingdom of Persia, <sup>21</sup>to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths. As long as she lay desolate she kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.

<sup>22</sup>Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying, <sup>23</sup>Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD God of heaven has given me. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah. Who is among you of all His people? May the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up!
